GIVE YOUR BOY HOME PAPER.

Overseas, where American soldiers are facing the enemy, a letter from home is most welcome. It is the strongest home-tie. It helps to keep the morale of the American soldier at the topmost point. Next in point of importance is the old home newspaper. From this he learns what is happening among his friends. It is most important that the home newspaper should follow him across the seas.

Persons who wish to get this work of cheer to the boys from this community may do so by subscribing to this newspaper and have it addressed to the American Y. M. C. A. 12 Rue d'Aguesseau, Paris, France. The national war work council of the Y. M. C. A. will see that the paper is forwarded to the soldier at the front. It will be sent to a camp where boys from this state are stationed.

War work secretaries in Y. M. C.
 A. huts overseas state that the hardest thing they have to combat is homesickness. The lads are yearning for news from their loved ones.
 The letter is first in importance, the old home newspaper fills the void in the absence of the letter. You can help to maintain the morale of the American troops in France by sending him this paper. "Think it over."

Germany has announced that she will treat American prisoners of war "just like she treats other nationalities." This would be very consoling to our people had we not already had a clear insight to her dastardly atrocities committed against Belgian prisoners and others during the past four years of the world struggle. Prisoners of other nations held in Germany are compelled to work under shell fire, are starved and allowed little or no medical treatment when badly wounded, are transported in stock cars ankle deep in filth on trips requiring days without water or food, are denied sufficient shelter and clothes in camps, are paraded as in medieval days before the people who insult them and spit in their faces, and when in hospitals are subjected to unbearable indignities by German Red Cross nurses who pollute their food and water.

Oregon housewives need have no further anxiety as to whether there will be a sufficient supply of sugar for the canning and preserving of fruits during the coming season.
 Provision has been made. Federal Food Administrator W. B. Ayer announces, for an ample supply of sugar for this purpose, and instructions as to the distribution of sugar for canning are now in the hands of all retailers in the state. Sugar for canning purposes will be issued under a certificate system. Each purchaser must sign an official certificate with each purchase, setting forth the amount and date of purchase and attesting that the sugar will be used for this purpose only; also that she will limit the use of sugar in her household for all other purposes, to three pounds per month per person.
 Each retailer will keep a check upon his customers, to prevent misuse or abuse of the certificate privilege, and all certificates will be returned to the good administration, where they will be rechecked. Under this system it will be impossible for any purchaser to buy an unreasonable amount of sugar without prompt detection.

According to a news bulletin issued by the Anti-Saloon League of Oregon, every candidate on the primary ballot for any office of importance stands for a strict enforcement of the prohibition laws in this state and nation. We can now dismiss any "wet" and "dry" propaganda advanced against any of the candidates, either democrat or republican, and "hit her up" along other lines.
 Mayor Harley, of Astoria, candidate for governor, is about the only real "wet" thing on the list, and he will have all the "bug juice" whipped out of him before the primaries end.

Today's gentle rain is pouring dollars into the pockets of the progressive farmer.

NEW RECRUIT GETS "SHOT."

The News received a letter today from Richard Busch, formerly employed in this office and who left last Tuesday for Camp Lewis, where he is taking his initial step to become a regular soldier. "My right arm is very nervous today and I can hardly write. We just had the needle stuck into our arms and were also vaccinated. We arrived here at 1:30 Wednesday and the camp is sure some lively city, and I think I will like it here fine after I get used to it.
 Give the gang my best regards."

TISDALE CALLED FOR AVIATION.

Charles Tisdale, a senior in the university, received word yesterday that he would be called for aviation service and would be expected to report at Berkeley May 11. Mr. Tisdale has had his application in for some time and expected the call. His wife, a co-ed he married during the winter, will live with Mr. Tisdale's parents at Sutherlin.—Eugene Guard.

SACRIFICE LUXURY TO CLOTHE, FEED TROOPS

For the first year of the great world war America marked time, blind to the fact that liberty had become the real issue, blind to the fact that the German people had gone mad in the savage philosophy of the insane Nietzsche and that the freedom born of a thousand years of political travail was threatened with extinction. We could not bring ourselves to believe that the German of Helme, Goethe, and the gentle Grimms, of Mozart and Mendelsohn had gone cruelly mad under the jungle tutelage of the beast with the withered arm, and was seeking to impose upon the free people of the world a militarist system abhorrent to our very souls and to bind us as captives to the chariot wheels of their stinking Kultur.

We know that the fate of the world is in the balance. We know that at best our allies are fighting a drawn battle with the Huns—that we must rush to make such sacrifices of blood and money as we have never known, or become a vassal state. Our soldiers are unflinchingly marching to the firing line prepared to make the supreme sacrifice as free men should for the chastity of women and the honor of men, and to prove that the world is ruled by love and not by hate. This is the essence of our movement. We must sacrifice every luxury great or small for the sake of the liberty loans that these soldiers may be fed and clothed and their sufferings made less cruel, and that the teachings of Moses and the Nazarene, and not those of the belided barbarians of Potsdam, may be the governing force of the world.

SMITH RIVER.

Ed. Sterling was a stage passenger Friday.

Arthur Woolley was in Drain one day this week attending to some business matters.

There were several frosty nights last week. Doney and Ora Powell were over on Smith river one day last week.

Monta Spaulding was sent over with the sad tidings of the death of Miss Taylor's grandmother last Monday. Miss Taylor hastened to Drain with auto where she took the evening train south to Roseburg.

Arthur Woolley and sister, Eva, are just recovering from the German measles. There are no more cases on Smith river at present.

Joe Krewson was over on Smith river one day last week.

Albert and Everett Wright returned home Monday from the Leona mills where they have been employed for sometime past. They expect to stay about a couple of weeks or so.

Messrs. Jake Bower, Marlon, Vietor and John Gunter expect to leave soon for Eagle Gorge, Waa., to work in the logging camps. The name of their newly established postoffice is Baldy, we understand.

Mr. and Mrs. George Woolley and children came up last Saturday for a brief visit with friends and relatives returning home the first of the week.

 Mrs. Edson and children and her sisters, the Misses Gertrude and Grace Ruthven were stage passengers Wednesday to Drain where they will take the train for Eugene where her parents reside. Mrs. Edson expects to be gone several months visiting with relatives.

Miss Gertrude Ruthven closed a very successful term of school in district No. 64 last week and returned to her home in Eugene.
 School in district No. 96 will close May 17. Miss Taylor expects to have a program Thursday afternoon in order that it may not conflict with the primaries, which will be held next day at the Gunter school house.

Will Traylor is over on Smith river this week visiting friends and relatives. He reports that several members of his family have just recovered from the German measles.

Mr. Redford has again begun carrying the mails in his automobile, and is able to make the trip in short time. The postoffice department last year granted permission to make two round trips weekly during the summer months.

Arthur Woolley received word last Thursday from Neil Conry to report for duty Monday morning to begin the cruise of the Douglas county timber. They are to meet at Oakland Monday morning and begin work at once. X X

RIDDLE ITEMS.

John Bacon and wife, of Wilbur, and Mrs. Minnie James motored down last Sunday and spent the day visiting at the home of Mrs. Mattie Haekler. Mrs. Bacon was formerly Miss Vera James.

J. C. Gyle made a business trip to Portland last week, returning on Sunday evening. While in Portland Mr. Gyle visited with H. F. Mc-Donald, former S. P. agent here, who is now in the Great Northern office there.

Little Elsie Pardee is reported to be quite ill with an affliction resembling typhoid fever. Considerable sickness is reported among the youngest children, the little baby of Mr. and Mrs. Searle also has been very sick.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Crosby received a letter from their son, Bouse-man, better known as "Cracker," in which among other things of interest he mentions that he has been promoted from the rank of corporal and is now Sergeant Crosby.

Mrs. C. N. Wood, of Days Creek, is out of the hospital at Stockton, Calif., and is convalescing at the home of her niece, Mrs. Charles Mc-Gowan, of that city. She will not return to her home for a month or six weeks yet.—Tribune.

Sterling Character
 Upon the character and conservatism of your bank's officers and directors—to a great extent depends the safety of your funds. If they are known as men of high integrity—if they have a record as successful men in business—if they are known as conservative men in all things—then you may rest assured that their bank is governed in conformance with a policy of safety before everything else.
 Such are the men who govern this bank—and your funds are absoof rock, sand, and gravel. The tires emerged tested warriors of the road, from a grand mileage of 4,178,744 tire miles.

 They triumphed, SILVERTOWN CORDS and BLACK SAFETY TREADS, with an endurance that doubled Goodrich's pride in the structure of the spiral wrapped, cable-cord tire body, and the tough-
