THE KEYS OF THE RIGHTEOUS.

At the Antlers theatre tomorrow pretty Ethel Bennett, Thomas H. Ince's Australian star will make her debut in Paramount pictures. "The Keys of the Righteous" as directed by Jerome Storm, will be the vehicle and it is said that the cast picked to support Miss Bennett is especially good. It includes Earl Rodney, Geo. Nichols, Josef Swickard, Carl Formas, Gertrude Claire, Lydia Knott and Melbourne MacDowell. The story is that of a girl who makes a supreme sacrifice to save her father, a weakling, for her dead mother's sake, thus gaining a strong and lovable character which wins her the love of a handsome youth.

Live-wire Doings of City

Home On Furlough.
Archie L. Bushnell, of Ten Mile, who is stationed at Fort Stevens with the 16th Columbia, is home on a sixty day furlough during which time he will assist in the harvesting of the crops.

Returned Here Today.
J. W. Perkins, who has been attending to business matters in Portland returned home this morning. Mr. Perkins reports that business men of Portland are taking a very optimistic view of the war and believe that the tide has turned in favor of the allies.

Another June Wedding.
Miss Isabella R. McCune, of Roseburg, and Ralph J. Jackson, of San Francisco, were married Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock at the Methodist parsonage on Main street. Rev. J. C. Spencer, officiating. Only a few were present to witness the ceremony.

Delegates Arrive.
Rev. E. T. Smith, pastor of the First Baptist church of Junction City; Mrs. E. T. Smith, Rev. C. E. Dunham, pastor of the First Baptist church of Eugene; Mrs. E. G. O. Grant, and Mrs. A. E. Phelps, of Cottage Grove, arrived in this city today. All are delegates to the Umpqua Valley Baptist Association, being held at the First Baptist church of this city.

J. C. Freeman Returns.
J. C. Freeman returned last evening from Silver Lake, Oregon, where he had gone in answer to a summons stating that his brother, R. L. had been seriously injured in an automobile accident. He was accompanied to this city by the injured man, who has almost fully recovered, and the latter will remain here for several days enjoying a visit at the Freeman home. The injured man was unconscious for 14 hours after the accident and it was thought for a while that it would be impossible to revive him. He was badly cut about the head and face.

CITY NEWS

Elder J. A. Rippey, of the Seventh Day Adventist church, will conduct services at Oakland tomorrow.

R. B. Bullwinkle, of Riddle, who was attending to business matters here, yesterday, returned home last evening.

Mrs. E. D. Jones, of Portland, arrived in this city last night to visit with her mother Mrs. W. C. Anderson, who resides in West Roseburg.

Call and look at the Auto Cream Freezer and the Auto Cook stove, Churchill Hdw. Co.

Ed. Marks, of Edenhower, has almost recovered from his recent attack of pneumonia, though he is still unable to perform any of his regular duties on the farm.

Mrs. Abe Rice and little son, Victor, Mrs. Alton Rice and little son, Robert, and Mrs. Albert E. Morris, were among the Dillard visitors to this city yesterday.

"The Kaiser, Beast of Berlin," coming to the Bungalow theatre, Oakland, Sunday and Monday, is one of the greatest photoplay attractions ever produced. A show you can't afford to miss.

Larson Stucker, an old soldier, who has been confined to the hospital for some weeks, is so much improved that he is able to be over to town occasionally. With Mrs. Stucker, the aged veteran called at The News office today for a few moments.

Lee Williams, who enlisted recently in the United States navy, and who is stationed at Bremerton navy yard, arrived in this city this morning on a sixty day furlough, during which time he will look after the harvesting of crops on his mother's farm near Looking Glass.

Mr. and Mrs. John Penne returned to their home in West Roseburg last evening from a several days' stay at the Welsh Penne place a few miles south of Medford, where they went to put up the hay crop, the owner having enlisted in the navy some weeks ago, and is now at Bremerton.

The low dusting process installed by Sloper, the cleaner and pressed, eradicates every particle of dust from your clothing before they are pressed and cleaned, thus assuring you of the most sanitary methods employed in handling your work. The only sanitary dusting machine in the city.

J. O. Lewis was in town for a few hours today. He brought his automobile in for repairs, something having gone wrong with the starting arrangement. The machine shops are so busy that he has to wait until next week before his car will be ready for use again. In the meantime the family will miss their regular trips to the city.

A. T. Lawrence phoned The News this morning to this effect: "Stop my ad. Got all the berry pickers needed to handle the crop." The appeal to the people of the city to help out fruit men, issued in this paper Wednesday, coupled with the advertising for help, did the business. Printer's ink causes lots of people to think.

REGULAR DRAFT CALL.

At 1:30 this afternoon the local draft board received a dispatch announcing that another regular call had been issued for men, and that Douglas county's quota would be 33. Coming so closely on the heels of the draft requiring 57 men next Monday, this begins to look as though the war department is transporting soldiers to France mighty fast. The next in this last draft will report to the local draft board July 5.

Mrs. R. G. Hall and children, of Riddle, arrived in this city today to visit with friends. Prof. Hall will be here Sunday.

RETURN TO ROSEBURG.

B. W. Maddox and family arrived in this city last night from Myrtle Point, where Mr. Maddox has been running as S. P. conductor from that city to Marshfield. Mr. and Mrs. Maddox state that their son, Woodson, is still in an aviation school in England and likes his work fine. Mr. Maddox will go back on his old run from this city to Ashland.

LEAVES FOR EUGENE.

Superintendent Aubrey G. Smith, of the Roseburg schools left for Eugene today where he will attend the summer session of the University of Oregon. Mrs. Smith and son left yesterday. Mr. Smith will make several trips back to Roseburg during the session, in the interest of school matters here.

ASKING FOR TEACHERS.

Superintendent O. C. Brown announced today that he has received more than 20 applications from school boards asking for teachers, but has been unable to furnish teachers in the majority of cases. Apparently there will be a decided shortage of teachers.
