

Fenwick Newell Sings at Chautauqua

Heads Artists Company on Second Day

The Fenwick Newell Concert Company, who will present two programs at Chautauqua on the second day, is one of the stellar trios of the concert platform. Fenwick A. Newell, heading the company, is a lyric tenor who has been advancing very rapidly in popular favor during the past few years. His rich natural voice, under the care and instruction of the two greatest vocal coaches in the country, Rudanovits of Chicago and Oscar Saezger of New York, has developed tones of glorious warmth and color.

Miss Lillian Shank, violinist, is an artist of highly developed technique and deep musical understanding, with a record of unusual success on the platform. Mary Jane Grigsby, accompanist, is a true artist at the piano.

SEVERAL ORDERS MADE COUNTY COURT TODAY

Several orders were made by the county court in regular session today. The report of the county road viewers on the Robert Blakeley road between Oak Creek and Glide was accepted by the county court. The petition of Jean Parrott, Chas. Parrott, H. Wollenberg and J. J. Thornton for more damages on the same road, than allowed by the road viewers, was rejected.

The roadmaster was ordered to prepare plans and specifications for the Roadport-Schofield road, also for the Robert Lane road between the three corners and the R. S. Barker place.

No bids having been received on the Riddle-Canyonville road over the Bollenbach hill, the roadmaster was ordered to proceed to construct the road.

TWO LITTLE GIRLS RAISE MONEY FOR RED CROSS

Agnes Irwin, the 7-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Irwin, 611 S. Main street, and Maxine Moore, 8-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Moore, 635 Hamilton street yesterday afternoon conceived the idea of earning some money for the Red Cross. Accordingly, Harold Irwin, brother of Agnes, arranged a booth of dry goods boxes in front of the Irwin home, secured a Red Cross emblem, put up a sign, and the little girls stood out in the hot sun and called out to passers-by entreating them to buy the lemonade and the grape juice offered for sale, and not a few patronized them.

This morning these little patriots donated 1.07 to the local Red Cross, the results of their afternoon's work. This is a spirit that might well be emulated by many other people.

WRECK AT RICE HILL

A wreck occurred yesterday morning about 10 o'clock near Rice Hill. There were several cars derailed, this being the only damage done. There were no passenger trains held up at this point, owing to the quick clearing of the wreckage.

AUTO BURNS UP IN PASS CREEK CANYON

H. Malon, of Portland, had to jump for his life yesterday when his automobile suddenly burst into flames while travelling over the Pacific highway in Pass Creek canyon, near Divide, says the Eugene Guard. The fire surrounded the machine so suddenly that Malon did not have time to remove his overcoat and other things he had beside him on the seat. Malon, who was picked up on the road by other motorists and brought to Eugene, stated tonight that he smelled something burning and looked to see the flames coming from all sides of the car. He jumped and ran the machine over an embankment, where it burned, together with its contents.

Malon, who is a linotype operator on the Oregonian, left his machine in Roseburg when he made a trip north from California this spring. He returned to Roseburg Wednesday to get the car. He attributes the accident to bad roads in the canyon. Malon had just purchased a new set of tires for the machine.

McNary, who left Washington for Salem yesterday to attend the funeral of Mrs. McNary, who was killed in an automobile accident Wednesday night, is not expected to reach here before next Wednesday. The senator's brother, John H. McNary, said yesterday that he does not think the trip can be made under six days.

All of the others who were injured in the accident have been brought to Salem. None is injured seriously. Mrs. R. P. Bolse received a slight injury over the eye and suffered a nervous shock. Mrs. Frank Snedger has an injured shoulder and suffered from inhaling gas. Dr. Snedger has a severely bruised leg.
