FRIDAY, JULY 19, 1918.

TRUE TO FORM.

The "Stars and Stripes," an American newspaper published in France by Yankee soldiers, sums up the Kaiser in the following language:

"In 1905 the Kaiser awarded to Mr. Wilson-Marshall, of New York, winner of the ocean yacht race in that year, an alleged gold cup which he declared to be worth $5,000. Recently Mr. Wilson-Marshall decided to auction off the cup for the benefit of the Red Cross. It brought $125,000 and the successful bidder had it sent off to a dealer's to be cleaned and put in shape.

"The dealer assayed and tested it, and then reported that, instead of being gold, the cup was made of German pewter, and that, far from being worth the $5,000 the Kaiser claimed for it, it was only worth $35.

"There is really no need for comment on the occurrence. It is merely put into the record here to show that even in the matter of yacht race prizes as far back as 1905, the Kaiser was practicing for the day when he expected to sell the whole world the gold brick of Kultur. In other words, Wilhelm was merely running true to form."

While the senate was discussing the injustices that have arisen because the food administration fixed the price of wheat flour and required the purchase of substitutes the price of which was not fixed, Senator Curtis, of Kansas, read the following statement from one of his constituents: "My neighbors complain that in the new food schedule the prices charged for substitutes are excessive. Flour is $2.75, or 5 1/2 cents per pound, while the substitutes all are sold at 10 cents per pound—corn meal 10 cents, barley flour 10 cents, etc. Now, I buy corn and get it ground at a little mill at Hartford, Kans. I pay 15 cents per hundred for grinding. I keep the bran and gives me 40 pounds of meal per bushel. This makes the meal cost me 3 1/2 cents per pound. A comparison with schedule prices will show that the poor people of this country are paying 6 1/2 cents per pound more on this article of food than it costs, or nearly 200 per cent above cost." The system which produces higher prices for the poorer food product was criticized by several senators.

The Hun on the Marne speeded up so fast yesterday to get away from the Yankees it became necessary for the latter to use their cavalry in order to keep up with the fleeing enemy.

The Western Union itself, by mailing messages now and then made the first move toward amalgamating the postoffice and the telegraph service.

It is now denied that the ex-ear has been slain; so Old Nick will have to wait a spell before meeting young Nick.

Austria may not know where it's going but it certainly is on its way.

Wings of riches enable them to fly up and roost on the highest branches.

If politics is adjourned, can't the vice-president have a third term, too?

BUSY STEPPERS DOING MUCH FOR RED CROSS

The Busy Steppers, a ladies' club at Olalla, yesterday turned in a quilt to the Red Cross in this city. There is surely something in a name, as this is the seventh quilt turned in to the Red Cross by these patriotic women who are giving much of their time and aid in the great work for the boys "over there."

Fifteen cars of other varieties, Rose, Winter Nellis and Howells, have also been sold by the association at a price higher than the average last year, although no announcement of the exact prices has been made. Mr. Beckwith is very much pleased with this sale, as are the members of the association, and a profitable season for the growers is anticipated.—Medford Sun.

NOTICE TO PATRONS.

Newspapers have come under government survey, and publishers are asked to conserve the use of paper stock to the greatest possible degree. Complimentary copies, copies to correspondents, sample copies, all of which may have been sent out free, are to be eliminated. Subscribers who have received the paper for any length of time and failed to pay for it, are under the ban. The News will endeavor to meet the requirements of the government. In this connection it becomes necessary to speak a word more particularly to the city subscriber whose paper comes to the postoffice. Many of these valued patrons frequently drop in at the publication office and get an extra copy. Then there is the subscriber who gets his paper at the counter each evening. Frequently two or even three members of a family come in the same evening and pick up a copy. One paper in itself is a trifling thing. But where several dozen go out each evening, often two or three copies to one family, the thing becomes burdensome to the publisher. The cost for this loss is considerable for a year. The waste of paper is large, and the government says it must be cut out. Therefore, we are asking that subscribers who get their paper at the desk or through the postoffice, take heed and please not duplicate their copy, thereby helping us to obey this conservation order. Respectfully, THE PUBLISHER.

CHAUTAUQUA TENT WILL ARRIVE THIS EVENING

S. P. Agent Wright advises Mr. Morse of the train scheduled to bring the big tent for the Roseburg chautauqua. Roseburg chautauqua patrons are fortunate, as congested conditions of traffic have made many tent arrivals late for the opening program.

Season reserved seat sale started this morning at nine o'clock at Chapman's drug store. Season tickets should be purchased at once if you don't want to pay the advance in price, those unable to come in before the opening program can have their tickets saved for them by phoning J. E. McClintock. It is desired to make the Roseburg chautauqua session the big event of the season. We quote below one of America's great writers on this American institution:

"One of the best institutions in this country is the chautauqua summer platform. Certainly in the stress of these times it should be preserved if any institution is to be preserved. It does a variety of things that we have great need should be done now. It brings to people who are harassed by the thought of the future, healthy entertainment, something different from what they get in their towns. It brings a fresh element into the social life of the town—a very desirable thing particularly in the smaller community. It will give stimulating ideas about the great questions that the country must understand and study. Everything now depends upon the country keeping its mind steady and active and inspiring people to a full co-operation in the undertakings of the government. The chautauqua platform will do this in a wonderful direct way. Every community ought to be willing to sacrifice, if necessary, to keep chautauqua alive in the community."

PEARS SELL AT $1.70 PER BOX.

The first sales of Bartlett pears, 1918 crop, were made by S. V. Beckwith, manager of the Rogue River Fruit and Produce Association, yesterday. Five cars were sold for $1.70 per box. C. O. B. Medford, spot cash when the cars roll. This is an excellent price for Bartlett's and there is prospect that the association will be able to dispose of a large part of its Bartlett's at this figure.

Fifteen cars of other varieties, Rose, Winter Nellis and Howells, have also been sold by the association at a price higher than the average last year, although no announcement of the exact prices has been made. Mr. Beckwith is very much pleased with this sale, as are the members of the association, and a profitable season for the growers is anticipated.—Medford Sun.

MILLIONAIRE'S SON PLACED CLASS ONE

Howard Starrett, son of the millionaire lumberman of the firm of Starrett & Hovey, has been placed in class one of the draft by the appeal board for the second district of Oregon, says the Eugene Guard.

Starrett, who has been in charge of the firm's extensive holdings in Lane county, was originally placed in class one, but was later given a deferred classification upon a showing that he was the head of a boom company which would be furnishing large quantities of logs to the mills. The district board has again placed him in class one, because no actual logging operations have been carried on.

Starrett has been in Detroit, Mich., for several months. The board in reclassifying him took the view that he is non-productive.

Starrett, in connection with his first classification in class one, appeared to the president, but the district board had reconsidered its action and placed him in class three before any action was taken in connection with this appeal.

Sergeant H. J. Robinson arrived in this city this morning on train No. 53 to attend to special duties for the military police headquarters at Camp Lewis. He will return to his camp tomorrow. Sergeant Robinson is registered at the Grand hotel.
