AMERICAN CUT RAILWAY

With the U. S. Army, July 22.—At two o'clock this afternoon reports from the battle front stated that the Germans were clinging with desperation to the line south of Soissons, throwing in reserves without number in the one hope of protecting their flanks as they only show to escape annihilation of the crown prince's army.

NOBODY "SKEERED"

Washington, July 22.—The fact that a German submarine attacked a tug and barges off the Massachusetts coast, Sunday, is taken as indicating that the imperial government may be undertaking to bring its campaign of frightfulness to America, trusting to intimidate the people of this country and produce anti-war sentiment.

RETURNS FROM SEASIDE

MR. BAGLEY'S VERSION OF CEMETERY PASTURE

W. T. Bagley, of Deer Creek, was in town today and told his version of the report that the little cemetery some ten miles east of the city was being used as a calf pasture. The gentleman admitted that he had put one calf in the enclosure, and that he had pastured a number of young goats there, but alleged that it was with the consent and even by request of the people of the community, and had done so. Some months ago a couple of young goats belonging to him got into the cemetery, and on decoration day, when many old timers were there looking after the graves of deceased relatives, and the question of goats being there came up, and it was remarked to Mr. Bagley, according to the gentleman's statement today, that a few goats would really do the place benefit in keeping down the wild growth, and one or two parties personally told him to let his animals continue to pasture there.

FIXES PRICES ON HIDES

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, July 22.—In the fixing of prices for hides the government has provided for a reduction of from seven to eight cents per pound from the prices that have prevailed for several months. This action is expected to have an immediate effect of reducing leather to that extent.
