SPIRITUAL HELP EXTOLLED.

Concerning America's entry into the present big conflict, an Italian author of note says:

"All of this for us should be a comfort, not only in words but in substance and effect. We talk enough of the material help we are receiving from America; we talk, on the other hand, too little of the moral support she is holding out. This is essential as well in a war as long as ours in which, if the spirit is not always willing, the flesh may prove weak and give out."

"America tells us that our ideals rest upon truth and justice, that the cause for which we fight is not for passing objects, for opportunism, or for passing needs, which are easily satisfied, but a cause involving eternal rights which once lost can be recovered only by great effort made by generation after generation through many ages."

"The gift America brings us is a treasure beyond all price. It is the reason why we shall conquer and live. It gives us faith that our dead have not died for us in vain, and in all the future which shines brightly on the other side of the atrocious field of battle."

"She brings us in her strong hands our own heart, armed and equipped by her, through her hundred millions of men who are free."

Senator Knute Nelson, of Minnesota, one of those level-headed, thrifty, descendants of the Norsemen, said in the senate recently that he received a letter from a lady in Iowa saying that there were women travelling around the state giving instructions to the farmers' wives how to make cottage cheese. They claimed to be employees of the government and were getting $8 a day and their expenses. She wrote Senator Nelson inquiring whether that was true. She felt that, if true, it was a great piece of extravagance. Senator Nelson says he referred the letter to one of the executive departments for information on the subject and got no reply. He wants to know whether the government is paying women $8 a day and expenses to teach farmers' wives how to make cottage cheese. After the department of justice gets through prosecuting the profiteers and after politics gets through with its adjournment, perhaps the senator will get an answer to his inquiry.

Back to the tall timber seems to be the slogan of those yanks fighting on the Marne and the Hunns are taking their advice according to recent reports from the battle front.

"Why did the kniser teach us the goose step?" asked one German soldier. "He thought he and Bertha Krupp had discovered a way to make the army lay golden eggs."

Don't forget, this is Chautauqua week for Roseburg. A good place to polish up your mind.

Solsens has not fallen, but the boys are making it awful rocky for the boches.

No amount of voice culture will make a fat man stop snoring in his sleep.

Russia is being educated in the bitter—and expensive school of experience.

Maybe von Kuehlmann will be decorated with the order of the tin can.

Also the conservation of food provides more money for thrift stamps.

It is easy for any man to make his wife do anything she wants to.

The A. P. way is the only way to get the news.

WILBUR ITEMS.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Grae were visiting in Roseburg on Thursday. A camouflage party was given at the home of Miss Edith Brown on Thursday evening by 14 of the young people on their 18th birthday. The young lady was very much surprised when she opened a lovely box which contained dainty handkerchiefs, etc. as gifts. After a pleasant evening was spent the jolly crowd departed for their homes wishing Miss Brown many more happy birthdays.

A community social was given at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Davenport in the grove on Friday evening. Patriotic songs were given and the minister and his estimable wife were presented with a leather upholstered couch. After games were indulged in for a time under the spreading oaks, ice cream and cookies (Hooverized) were served by the Ladies Aid and Honor Guard girls.

The funeral of Mrs. R. Anderson, of Ashland was held here on June 10. She was a former pupil of the Wilbur schools and was loved by all for her happy disposition and winning manner. The services were conducted by Rev. R. J. Davenport and the songs that Vernie used to sing were given by the choir, and her grave was covered with beautiful flowers. The bereaved husband and relatives have the sympathy of the entire community.

Sheriff Quine and daughter, Evelyn, were guests of Mrs. G. A. Brown and family for a short time on Wednesday.

Mrs. Patton and son, Glen, left for Roseburg after a few days' visit with Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Russell. The Russell family lived in this vicinity for a number of years.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smith, Mr. and Mrs. H. Pinkston, Mrs. E. L. Henninger and daughter, Josephine, motored over from Oakland to attend the funeral of Mrs. Vernie Anderson. The board of education has elected the following teachers for the Wilbur schools: Mrs. James, principal, and Misses Eley Walker and Nancy Watson and Mazie Walker as assistants.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Outlinger, while enroute to Tyee on a camping trip, had the misfortune to have their car turn turtle in going down a bank to the river. Mr. Outlinger was pinned underneath the car and injured his back and might have proved very serious if Ernest Short had not appeared in time to lift the Ford up so Mr. Outlinger could extricate himself.

Musical Duo at Chautauqua

The Morrison-Smith Company, coming to Chautauqua on the third afternoon, is one of the most talented two-people companies on the platform. Alice Genevieve Smith is one of the country's foremost harpists, one who infuses the singing quality of tone into her playing, so rarely secured by players on this wonderful instrument. Mildred Morrison, pianist, soprano soloist and reader, has been a prominent figure in the Lyceum and Chautauqua world for several years. As a reader she has attained unusual prominence.

SMITH RIVER NEWS.

A much needed rain fell Thursday evening which although far below the amount needed will nevertheless help the gardens considerably.

Haying is about over now, with, generally, a fair stand of all but spring vetch, which was badly injured by the aphids.

Miss Violet Gunter was a stage passenger one day last week.

E. J. Harris and sons were in Roseburg last week attending to some business matters, returning home in their auto the first of the week.
