Electric Vacuum Washing Machine

The manufacturers guarantee it, and we guarantee it. The guarantee is that it must do satisfactory work. Think of this, a washing that would take you the better part of a forenoon to rub out, done in an hour or two and without any great labor on your part. Five or ten minutes for tub full of clothes. Then run them through the electrically driven wringer, all washer again and while it is washing the second lot you have awing the wringer over the rinsing tub and put them through, then over the bluing water, put them through, and are done with the first. The second lot being ready, repeat the operation, and there has been no straining or lifting. The cost of machine is still within reach of all—$95.00 on installments, with a discount for cash.

The day ended all too soon and at five o'clock the boating parties began to make preparations for the return trip, and the first community fair for Smith river had passed into history, but the seed has been sown which will be productive of much good, for the people of that magnificent section of country are resolved that next year's fair shall be even bigger and better than this one. As they left Smith river the chief topic of conversation among the visitors was the Smith river fair, but since going to Elkton it is now Smith river and Elkton, for there they found the same splendid spirit and practically a duplication of the fair at York Place. One exhibit at Elkton which Smith river did not have was the sheep. tf

Although three threshers were running in the Elkton vicinity a large crowd was present. Very nearly the same program was carried out at Elkton as at Smith river. The list of exhibitors for the Elkton fair have not yet been secured. tf

Features of both fairs were solos by Mrs. Pearey and Prof. Kaddery and duets by both of them. These splendid singers responded graciously to encores. tf

At Smith river, Noah Black was elected president and Clifford Benson secretary of the permanent fair organization and at Elkton, Mrs. R. O. Thomas president and Mrs. Walter Rydell secretary. tf

Tomorrow a community fair will be held in North Douglas at Curtin, Friday at Scotts Valley and Saturday at Yoncalla.
