Live-wire Doings of City

Leaves for Elkton Home.
Mrs. L. P. Rapp, who has been in the city for the past several months receiving medical treatment, left today for her home at Elkton. Her health is much improved.

Leaves For Salem.
Miss Dolly Smith, of this city, left for Salem last evening where she will teach school this year. Miss Smith has been appointed to duty on the fair grounds at the state fair.

Attend Funeral.
Mrs. W. S. Howard, A. J. Howard and wife and Alfred Teal, all of whom are from Oakland, arrived in this city today to attend the funeral of the late William Moore, who was buried here today.

County Commissioner Here.
County Commissioner B. F. Nichols was in the city last evening, having been called here to attend to some business matters. He is now busily engaged harvesting his prune crop which he reports is a very good one.

Leaves to Attend State Fair.
A. C. Marsters, president of the state fair board, has gone to Salem where he will remain during the coming week attending to official duties in connection with the forthcoming exhibition which opens there Monday.

Will Work in Ship Plant.
Attorney George Jones has announced that he will discontinue his law practice in this city and will leave the coming week for Anacortes, Wash., where he will accept a position in the shipyards. He will be accompanied by his family.

Will Leave for Walla Walla.
C. E. Ferguson, representative of a Portland wholesale house, who has been making his headquarters in this city, will leave the coming week, accompanied by his wife, for Walla Walla, Wash., where he will be stationed in the future.

Glendale News Changes Hands.
The Glendale News, formerly operated by Mrs. Effie Drummond, has been sold and is now in charge of I. H. Smith, who formerly issued the paper. Mrs. Drummond has moved to this city where she has accepted a position in a local printing establishment.

In New Studio Next Monday.
Mrs. C. S. Helmlie will occupy her musical studio in the Perkins building next Monday, which has been specially arranged for her occupancy. Four rooms have been taken by Mrs. Helmlie in order to accommodate her class and have been fitted up in a most inviting manner.

Leaves For Eastern Oregon.
Elmer Center, a brother of Mrs. L. P. Rapp, and who has been in this city for several weeks enjoying a visit with his sister and other relatives, will leave tomorrow for his home in eastern Oregon. Mr. Center is a stockman of the eastern part of the state, but will soon be inducted into service after his return home.

Many Contribute to Salvation Army.
A committee of Red Cross women and Honor Guard girls are in charge of Salvation Army contribution kettles at the various street corners today and hundreds of local citizens have added their bit in this worthy cause by dropping coins into the kettles. These Salvation army kettles will be stationed on the street corners of the city until conclusion of the drive this evening and it is thought that Roseburg will go over the top in this project as it has so done on every occasion in the past.

Will Attend Conference.
Rev. J. C. Spencer, pastor of the Methodist church, will leave on the late train Sunday night for the annual session of the Oregon conference, which meets in Portland, September 25. Mr. Spencer will visit his parents in Salem enroute, reaching Portland Tuesday morning in time for the meeting of the board of examiners for the conference, of which he is a member. The year just closing has been remarkably successful considering the conditions that have faced the church, and Mr. Spencer's return is desired.

Harrie Booth Ready to Embark.
A letter received here today by the parents of Harrie Booth, who has been located at Camp Eustis, Va., conveys the information that the company to which he is attached will probably move from their present quarters which is evidence that they will soon embark for overseas service. James Goodman, who is at the same camp, is in quite poor health, according to the letter received, having not fully recovered from the sunstroke he recently suffered. Though an effort has been made by Mr. Goodman to be removed to a milder climate he has not been successful in this undertaking and his present condition is not at all encouraging.

Mrs. J. M. Rust and daughter.
Mrs. A. L. Howard, returned to their home at Dillard last evening, after spending a short time attending to business matters.

NEW TODAY.
FOR SALE—Fresh milk cows. Phone 5F2.

WANTED—To rent a good modern house, with garage, barn and garden preferred. Inquire at this office.
