Live-wire Doings of City

Enjoying Week's Vacation.

Miss Mattie Lee Stephenson, bookkeeper at the local water and light company's office, is enjoying a week's vacation. Later she will go to Eugene to visit with friends.

Here From Portland.

Wm. Spaulgo is in the city to remain until called into active service by the government. With his wife he has been visiting at the home of Robert McLaughlin on Deer creek.

Leaves For Eugene Sunday.

M. F. Rice left yesterday morning for Eugene, Salem and Albany where he has business matters requiring his attention, and will probably not return home until the middle of the present week.

Have Returned From Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. John Freeman have returned to this city from Newport and will remain for the winter. Mr. Freeman's health has been greatly impaired of late and it is hoped the change will be beneficial to him.

Tunnel Guards Removed.

For some reason the men guarding the railway tunnels between Nichols station and Glendale, have been removed. Several of these men have returned to Roseburg. The order calling off the guards went into effect October 1.

Miss Cook Attending Institute.

Miss Jennie Cook, a former instructor in the Roseburg public schools and at present engaged on the teaching force at Gardiner, is in the city attending the teacher's institute and is a guest of Mrs. F. H. Churchill.

Cake Ruffed for $10.10.

A cake, donated by Mrs. Thomas Finlay, was ruffed off in the railroad yards yesterday for the benefit of the Red Cross and $16.10 was realized. The chances were disposed of at 10 cents each, and every fellow in the yards took a number.

For Armenian Sufferers.

The young peoples' society of the Seventh Day Adventist church, at a meeting Saturday afternoon, took up an offering of over $13 for the Armenian sufferers, besides one pledge of $5 per month for one year to go to the same worthy cause.

Completed O. A. C. Course.

Miss Eva Blackwell, of Douglas county, Oregon, who came to Corvallis recently to take a short course in cow testing at O. A. C., left yesterday for her home. Miss Blackwell has already been offered a position in Douglas county and will at once begin her work of testing the dairy herds of that vicinity.—O. A. C. Barometer.

War Souvenir Received.

A vase, carved from a shrapnel shell, has been received from Clifford Jope in France. In the design of the vase is a helmet of France, a miniature Lorraine cross and the inscription, "American Expeditionary Forces." The trophy, which was carved from a 75 mm shell, was found in a shell crater on the battle field and is a relic of more than ordinary interest.

Fancy Stationery Tabooed.

No more will mill-dy, after the present stock is exhausted, decorate exquisitely tinted paper with her dainty chirography. No more will she delight in envelopes, tiny, large or of an artistic style all her own. This is because war is upon us, and the order comes from the government officials who have so ruthlessly destroyed other things fanciful in which the dainty lady was wont to revel.

Valuable Returned to Owner.

While hunting near Oak Ridge, on the middle fork of the Willamette river last July, W. C. Dement, of Missouri Bottom, lost his check book, which contained a five dollar bill, his hunting license and sundry papers. The other day he got a letter from Mr. E. J. Moore, of Eugene, stating that he had found the book and asked for complete address. In due time the lost book arrived with everything, including the five spot, in place just as it was when last in the rightful owner's possession.—Myrtle Creek Mail.

Pleasant Surprise Saturday.

Mrs. J. C. Spencer, assisted by Mrs. Ferguson and Mrs. McClintock, very pleasantly surprised the women who gathered at the parsonage Saturday to complete the work on the linen shower from the M. E. church. With the aid of several other ladies, Mrs. Spencer had completed the work in the morning and when the regular club came in the afternoon, they found a nice little program arranged for their benefit. Mrs. R. M. Brumfield sang a group of songs in her usual charming manner and Mrs. A. J. Geddes gave an entertaining reading. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Will Reopen Store.

D. J. Wynne, of the firm of Wynne & Raffelson, who recently bought out the interests of J. B. King, of the Cash Store, is busy restocking the store and will soon open up with a complete line of new goods. The business will be conducted at the old place where Mr. King has been located for the past two years. Most of the King stock was disposed of before the new owners took over the business, as the former was expecting a call to the service and had endeavored to close out everything on that account. It is understood that Messrs. Wynne & Raffelson are experienced business man, and will doubtless make a success of the enterprise.

No Liberty Chorus Tonight.

There will not be a rehearsal of the Liberty chorus this evening. Please come October 14.

Got Eight Fine Birds.

Chas. Clark and Milton Church were at Looking Glass valley yesterday hunting China pheasants. They returned with eight chickens as a result of their afternoon's hunt.

Here From Myrtle Creek.

W. A. Newton and little daughter and W. C. Bronson and family drove to the city today from Myrtle Creek to look after business matters. They report things prosperous in their section and the roads from the home town to Roseburg are in excellent condition after the recent rains.

Yoncalla Residents Here.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Parrott, of Yoncalla, are in the city today visiting with friends and transacting business. Mr. and Mrs. Parrott have been on a hunting trip up near Elkton with Guard Sawyers, the famous hunting guide of that section. In the last three years, Mrs. Parrott, under the tutelage of Mr. Sawyers, has killed six deer and one wild cat. Mr. Parrott is a Douglas county product and is now a representative of the Peters Cartridge Co., making his home in Yoncalla.
