Why Make a Change at This Time?

STAND BY THE WAR.

The Republican party says to the country—STAND BY THE WAR.

In this declaration of purpose is included the statement which the Democratic party seems to have adopted as a slogan—"Stand by the President."

Stand by the President in support of all war measures is a duty and privilege which the Republicans have assumed as a matter of course, as to all that the great office implies, and in the performance of which duty the Republican party has functioned far more fully and efficiently than the Democratic party, and in which course we shall persist without waver or shadow of turning.

The Republican party says—STAND BY THE WAR.

This includes more. It includes, stand by the President; it includes stand by every public official, high or low, measured by the thoroughness with which that public official stands by the war; it includes stand by the government; stand by this country; stand by our allies, every one; stand against our enemies in this war, every one; stand by our soldiers in France and the soldiers of our allies; stand by every effort for WAR SAVING and WAR GIVING in this country; stand for the Fourth Liberty Loan and every other war effort; stand for the cause for which we fight; stand by the "irreducible minimum" of peace terms so splendidly enunciated by Senator Lodge; stand by the war aims of this country to vindicate American rights, interests and honor and to forever end Prussianism in the world and the oppression which it typifies, and to make certain forever the inability of militarism, Prussianism or otherwise, to disturb again the peace of the world; stand irrevocably for a peace based on a compromise of principles which would make a sacrifice of our sacrifices to be made again by our grandchildren; stand for the preparation now of a sound and proper foundation for a policy of reconstruction after the war which will fulfill the economic needs and realize the spiritual ideals of our people, that the greatest good may come also to our own country from, and after, our supreme sacrifice.

All this we say—STAND BY THE WAR—and for this purpose we dedicate the last of our blood and of our treasure.—Extract from a speech by Will H. Hays, Chairman Republican National Committee.

CONTAGIOUS DISEASES.

One reason why the influenza epidemic got such a hold in this country is that so many people have a wholly wrong feeling about contagious diseases.

When scarlet fever is prevalent, there are plenty of people who will send children to school when they have enough of the disease to give it to other pupils. They dilate so much to be guaranteed that they will conceal the suspicious symptoms, until some one is really very sick and they get scared. Then they call the doctor, but not until the child is in great danger. Also he was out among children long enough to impart a lot of others and spread the epidemic widely.

When any such disease really starts, and a person becomes slightly ill with suspicious symptoms, he should not force himself to go to work. He will do much better for himself and his employer or his own business, to take a day off and send for the doctor. If he hasn't it, a day's rest will set him on his feet again. If he has it, then he saves giving it a lot of others. Also by taking it in time, his chances of getting off with only a slight attack are greatly improved. He is likely to have a much smaller doctor's bill.

Doctors are sometimes complained of for not reporting contagious diseases more promptly. Probably some are negligent. Yet the trouble is no doubt that most physicians hate to pronounce it a contagious case until they are sure. But persons that have suspicious symptoms ought to be more carefully isolated.

Had this influenza epidemic been met with adequate measures at the start, many lives could have been saved and interruption of our war activity prevented. We have had a lesson in the power for harm of such epidemics. Our people should co-operate heartily whenever any infection threatens to become general.

OUR TIME FOR PEACE.

Before he knew defeat, Before the great retreat, Which made him grieve and grieve, The Kaiser did believe, That England he could whip, Then armies he would ship, And land upon our shore, And that, forever more, His flag would be unfurled O'er us and all the world. To fight we shall not cease; And we shall make no peace, Until arrives the hour, When broken is his power. ALDEN HARNESSE, Roseburg, Ore., Oct. 20, 1918.

YOUR DUTY TO CLAIM DEFERRED CLASSIFICATION

As Industrial Advisor in behalf of the department of labor to District Board, Division No. 2, I call your particular attention to the fact that it is your duty to claim deferred classification for all men in your employ who are "necessary" or "key" men, especially fitted for the work in which they are engaged or highly specialized experts, assistant, or associate, or sole managers or controlling and directing heads of an industry or managers of a substantial or integral part thereof; and not to make any such claim for men who are not such. The employer, who, through fear of criticism, fails to make a claim which should be made, is as blameworthy as the employer, who, to prevent inconvenience to himself, makes a claim for deferred classification for a man who is not a "necessary" or a "key" man.

It should be borne in mind that industry at home must not be prevented at the expense of fighting to raise an Army. The army must be raised and industry must be maintained at the highest efficiency.

The method for you to claim deferred classification for men who are in your employ who are necessary men as herein above defined, is for specifying fully the nature of the employment and the reason for claiming deferred classification; which affidavit should be forwarded to me. In order that men in your employ may be promptly and properly classified it is imperative that you at once claim deferred classification for all men in your employ who are entitled to the same.

F. L. ARMITAGE, Industrial Advisor in behalf of the Department of Labor, District Board, Division No. 2, Address: Eugene, Oregon.

316 HOME-MADE PIES FOR THE SOLDIERS

Utilizing an ordinary army field range and oven, three Salvation Army lassies have established a new pie-baking record for the A. E. F. by turning out 316 apple pies in one day, says the Stars and Stripes.

The pies were like mother or wifey back in the good old U. S. A. in still baking—rich, heavy with aromatic juices and tantalizingly flavored with spices. The pie-baking campship of the Salvation Army overseas contingent was formerly held by the women workers in a hut near the firing line, who baked 235 pies in a day.

Any army cook will tell you that he can bake 60 or 70 pies for one meal, blindfolded and with shackles on his wrists, but when three weak women can bake 316 pies (double-deckers at that) without relief, and every pie a masterpiece, the cooks say they doff their overseas to the Salvation Army lassies.

To give an idea of the magnitude of the task, the labor involved and what that poor field range had to contend with, the Salvation Army record shows that in baking those 316 articles de cuisine, the following quantities of the various ingredients were used:

One hundred and fifty pounds of flour, 18 gallons of apples, 58 pounds of lard, 100 pounds of sugar and two pounds of cinnamon.

WHAT ARE YOU DOING TO HELP WIN THE WAR?

Here are three ways you can help: Use one spoon of sugar instead of two. Use substitutes instead of all flour. Have your clothes cleaned and pressed instead of throwing them away. If there are no holes or tears in them they are good for lots of wear yet. You'll be surprised to see them aser they are cleaned up.
