SHERIFFS THROUGHOUT STATE ARE AROUSED

OREGON CITY, Ore., Nov. 1.—Sheriffs and tax-collectors all over Oregon are aroused over the possibility of the enactment of the tax measure submitted to the voters by C. S. Jackson, of Portland, and appearing on the ballot as 309 Yes and 309 No. Sheriff Galloway, of Benton county, and Sheriff Bodine, of Lane county, made strong statements this week denouncing the measure as impracticable and dangerous and W. W. Everhart, for the last two years assessor for Clackamas county, made the following statements concerning the proposed measure:

"Notice to the public through the newspapers is a protection to the owner of the property. It is bad business for a county to sell a man's property for taxes without a public notice, when can be obtained only by publication. There is no merit in sending the delinquent tax payer a notice by mail, for we have that provision in the present law, and it does not get the money for the county. What the county needs, and must have, is the tax money, and the publication method gets it, as no other method will, for in many cases under the present law, the delinquent will pay up his taxes rather than have his name appear in print.

"The publication of the delinquent tax list does not cost the man who pays his taxes a red cent, as the cost of the publication is assessed against the property upon which taxes have become delinquent and the publication fee is collected along with the interest and penalty. If a mail notice law should be enacted, then the taxpayer who does pay his taxes will be assessed for the expense.

"I have been the tax-collector of Clatsop county for several years and my experience tells me, that the people should vote No on this measure next Tuesday.

ITALY'S ARMISTICE WILL BE DRASTIC

TERMS SUBMITTED TO AUSTRIA IS GIVEN IN A ROME DISPATCH TODAY

The conditions of the armistice are inspired by the principles of President Wilson, namely, to render it impossible for the enemy to recommence war and prevent him from profiting by the armistice to withdraw from difficult military positions."

CONDITIONS VERY MUCH IMPROVED

Number of Cases of Spanish Influenza Here Are Gradually Subsiding.

BAN LIFTED IN WEEK

Conference is Held Today With State Health Officer Seelye Advises that Quarantine Be Held For Another Week—No New Cases.

A conference was held this morning by City Health Officer B. R. Shoemaker with Dr. A. C. Seelye, state health officer, in regard to the Spanish influenza situation in Roseburg, and the latter official, upon recommendation of the local health officer, has ordered that the quarantine ban remain on the city of Roseburg for at least another week. While the number of cases are gradually diminishing it is thought that the wisest plan will be to follow the above course as a general and united effort to stamp out the epidemic here and a week more of quarantine will, without doubt, completely exterminate all signs of the "flu". The numerous fatalities of the past week in Roseburg and Douglas county impressed forcibly upon the minds of every man, woman and child the stern reality of the deplorable results of influenza and a greater and more systematic effort has been made to curb that which has cost so many precious lives in this community. Many local citizens have, in their effort to evade the influenza, taken the serum which was supplied the local physicians by the State Board of Health and reports from these precautions indicate that while in every case the serum does not serve altogether as a preventative, the cases are much lighter and complications are all. It has been discussed generally and communications have come in from every corner of the city and county as to the beneficial results of wearing the gauze masks. In speaking of the wearing of masks the Surgeon General's office advises: "That the wearing of gauze masks should be compulsory for those in close contact with the sick, but should be worn voluntarily by the general public. General use for public wear is probably impracticable."

The Surgeon General's office in a communication to the County and City Health Officers explains in a definite manner the reporting of the Spanish influenza and what includes the "flu" as follows:

"The nomenclature of this disease has been made somewhat confusing by the numerous contributions from the lay public. It is advised that in reporting—that the term influenza shall include the mild as well as the severe cases, of what is usually known as 'La grippe', 'Grip', 'flu', 'Spanish influenza', 'Three day fever', also the so-called severe colds. This of course does not include the ordinary uncomplicated coryza or cold in the head. Pneumonia is also included in the reports, as this is a complication of the influenza."

The county Spanish influenza situation is greatly improved, according to county health officer K. L. Miller, and in several towns the epidemic has been completely stamped out with no reports of cases for the past four days. Dr. Miller stated today that after conferring with the Mayors city physicians and citizens of Glendale, Riddle, Myrtle Creek, Sutherlin, Willamette, Drain and Yoncalla, that in many of these towns the situation is entirely relieved and that public activities will be resumed Monday, in the districts of Ollala, Ten Mile, Looking Glass, Winchester and Canyonville schools will be opened, should no cases be reported from those before Monday as the "flu" situation in these respective districts is relieved. Gardiner, Reedsport and Oakland will remain under the quarantine ban another week as will several other smaller districts where the epidemic is at its crest. Dr. Miller stated to a News representative today, that the citizens, physicians and city officials of the various Douglas county towns and districts had made possible the splendid results obtained so far because of their earnest cooperation with the county health board and in nearly every town in the county orders were obeyed promptly and without question.

It is hoped that the end of the coming week will result in the complete stamping out of the "flu" and from every indication this will be realized.

SAVE THE INITIATIVE AND REFERENDUM

Voters Are Urged to Preserve People's Laws By Killing Freakish Measures.

THEY HOLD THE KEY

One Man or a Single Group of Men, Should not be Allowed to Abolish the Oregon System.—Look Out For Millionaire Jackson.

There is a very simple way to kill the initiative and referendum. Abuse its powers and the best weapon of self-protection ever established for an electorate, will die a natural death.

The voters alone hold the secret of preserving the Oregon system. The people's weapon must be preserved by the people. They alone can protect themselves by turning down all unnecessary and freakish laws. The time to strike is at the polls, and every ethical measure which falls to measure up to genuine public service requirements, should be most vigorously swatted.

One man, or a single group of men, may kill the initiative and referendum. A proposed measure, if actuated by personal spite, political jealousy, or kindred motives, will do more to abolish the Oregon system, when once placed on the statute books, than a hundred direct attacks on the initiative and referendum.

A safe and sane plan for the voters to follow, if they would preserve the sanctity of the Oregon system, is to vote a general "NO" on all measures submitted for consideration of the people, unless the intent of the framers is clear beyond question, and the voter can see genuine merit in the bill. When in doubt, vote "NO" should be the slogan. In 99 cases out of a hundred this rule, if followed, will do more to preserve the initiative and referendum, than any other course at the polls.

The 100th case however, happens to be on the ballot to be voted on next week. This is the referendum by the state tax commission authorizing an increase in the state levy on meat-war-time emergencies. An emphatic "Yes" should be voted on this measure, for there is no argument against it in view of present conditions. Oregon's war record must be kept up at all cost.

With this exception, however, the voters should register a vigorous protest on every other bill proposed at the coming election, or referred, as the case may be. There happens to be four referendums and two initiative measures to be considered at the coming election. They should be snuffed under, with the exception of the war emergency measure mentioned.

No one will deny that the normal school is a splendid institution; neither is there any argument against establishing a home for dependent, delinquent and defective children. At this particular time, however, these expenditures are uncalled for, and the voter will be doing his bit by voting "No" on No. 301 and No. 303.

So also with two fish bills to be considered. Both are referendums, one to prohibit seine and set-net fishing on the Rogue river and tributaries, and the other closing the Willamette river to fishing south of Oatridge. The fisherman has a right to live, and during war times should have the advantage, if any there be, over the man who fishes for sport. Vote "NO" on both these bills. Common sense will dictate such action.

Then too, are the Jackson bills, proposed by initiative petition, to abolish the delinquent tax publication law and to establish a different rate for legal advertising. Both are creatures of Sam Jackson, editor of the Portland Journal, who is seeking a golden opportunity to even up old scores with the state press of Oregon. A few years ago the state press snuffed under the single tax measure, which Brother Jackson saw fit to foster. It was a bitter pill, and now under the guise of so-called war-time necessity, Jackson would even matters up with the press, at the expense of the taxpayers, whose property, under the proposed Jackson delinquent tax bill, will be left to the mercies of the tax title grabber. The legal rate will be lower than the same charges made by legislatures in most of the states of the union, and while Mr. Jackson knows that newspaper cost have gone up from 30 to 100 per cent during the past year, as in all lines of industry, he thinks the present rate of 5 cents per line should be lowered at this particular time. The personal spite-work element figures largely in the Jackson bills. This is shown particularly in the delinquent tax measure. The present law provides that mail notice be sent out. Jackson's substitute measure provides the same thing. The present law provides for publication ONLY after mail notice has failed to notify. In spite of this fact, there never yet has appeared a clear statement of the present law in the Journal's contemptible campaign to cloud the issue before the voters. Both these bills should be swatted along with the rest. They come within the general rule. Kill them.

POPULAR COUPLE WED AT MARSHFIELD TODAY

A wedding of much interest to Roseburg people was solemnized at Marshfield today, when Miss Maybelle Wilson, Principal of the Gardiner schools became the bride of Mr. Milton Church, a machinist at the Overland garage in this city. The marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. Colter of the First Christian Church of Marshfield. The bride is a Douglas County girl having been reared near Yoncalla. She is a graduate of the University of Oregon, and one of Douglas county's most successful teachers. For a number of years she taught in the Roseburg schools, the last several years being, at the head of the Maternal department, in the Roseburg High School, to which position she was re-elected this year, but accepted the more lucrative position as head of the Gardiner schools, instead. The groom is also well known in this city where he has made his home for the past twelve years, being for a number of years connected with his brother Howard in the bakery business. Both Mr. and Mrs. Church are very popular in this city and have a host of friends, whose best wishes are extended to them for a happy wedded life. Mrs. Church will finish her year's work as principal of the Gardiner schools.

AMERICAN SOLDIERS WILL BE SCHOOLED

Plans Perfected Whereby Many Thousand Will Be Taught Various Trades.

BE BETTER EQUIPPED

Many a Soldier Will Return Home Better Qualified For Useful Vocations—Work Carried On In a Large Scale.

LONDON, Oct. 20.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press.) Thousands of American soldiers, who have never had any trade, are going to have a chance to learn one, under the tutelage of Young Men's Christian Association instructors before they return to America. It is hoped by this plan that the soldiers, no matter what their vocation before the war, will go back home better equipped for it or for something better than before they enlisted.

Fifty instructors from the United States already are busy with classes of American soldiers in the United Kingdom and at least fifty more are needed before January 1, 1919. It is estimated that for each of the hundred Y. M. C. A. secretaries enlisted in this work five volunteer instructors can be obtained from the ranks of the soldiers. This would give a "faculty" in the British Isles of six hundred men capable of teaching 30,000 men in actual class work; between 10,000 and 20,000 in correspondence studies and of giving lectures every week to from 25,000 to 50,000 troops.

The work in France is much greater, of course, and there the Y. M. C. A. is receiving the cooperation of the military forces in fitting the American soldier for useful occupation when he has finished the job under Generals Foch and Pershing.

This great Y. M. C. A. plan is based upon the work the New Zealand Y. M. C. A. has done in England, which has challenged American admiration. American workers have visited the New Zealand camp for convalescent troops in the southeast of England, where the Zealanders are cultivating intensely a 40 acre farm and where the New Zealand troops are learning to be better farmers than ever.

Technical instruction for American soldiers is to include the study of automobile gas engines and aircraft engines; mathematics, from arithmetic to trigonometry; mechanical drawing and topographical draughting; plan reading and estimating; principles of mechanics; principles of electricity; arts and crafts; general principles of agriculture, which will include model farms and demonstrations in truck gardening and the raising of poultry, hogs, cattle, etc., with course in dairying and every other branch of farm work.

12,000 NURSES ARE NEEDED BY THE U.S.

Because Splendid Work Done By Schools, Government Is Asking Teachers Aid.

LETTERS BY SUPT. BROWN

Questionnaires Are Being Sent Out And House-to-House Canvass Is Asked For.—Field of Work Is Very Broad.

Supt. O. C. Brown is mailing a circular letter to the teachers of Douglas county, and enclosing questionnaires to them. These questionnaires are put out by the American Red Cross Society, who are making a nationwide survey of the nursing resources. This survey is made at the request of the Secretary of War and the Surgeon-General of the Army. The questionnaire includes a number of general questions to be answered by all who are interested in the course and in addition to this there are lists of questions for graduate nurses, pupil nurses, undergraduate nurses, trained attendants, practical nurses, questions for midwives and questions for women who have taken Red Cross courses. The field is so broad in this work that a large majority of those who desire to enter this work may do so.

The following is Supt. Brown's letter to the teachers of Douglas county:

Dear Teacher:

Because of the splendid work you have done by the teachers and the schools during the past year the government has learned to call for help from this source when it has an important piece of work that must be done quickly and thoroughly. This time it is to secure a nurse survey of your school district.

The government is in great need of 25,000 nurses, but so far it has been able to muster only 13,000. For the purpose of meeting this emergency a thorough survey of the nursing resources of the United States is being instituted. Not only trained nurses are wanted, but a list of trained hospital attendants, pupil nurses, undergraduate nurses, practical nurses, and those who have taken Red Cross courses.

The teachers in each of the schools of Douglas county are asked to take charge of this survey. If additional help is desired the teacher has the authority to call to his or her aid such help as may be needed in getting this information.

For the purpose of this survey you are enclosing a supply of questionnaire No. 713, and a card No. 715. Have the section A of the questionnaire filled out in full, then only one of the other sections that applies to the individual registering. The card is to be filled out in full.

Make it clear to registrant that in filling out these questionnaires they are not enrolling or registering with the government, nor are they placing themselves under any obligations whatever. They are simply placing themselves in touch with the government.

At present we are limited in supply and are sending you only a few of the questionnaires, but will send upon request as many additional ones as may be needed. We are also asking that those not used be returned.

The government recommends a house-to-house canvass as the only sure way to get complete survey. This may be done quickly by calling sufficient help. When survey is completed, mail the questionnaire and cards to me.

Thanking you in advance for the active aid, which I know you will give in this important matter, I am, Very truly yours,
O. C. BROWN,
Chairman of Nursing Survey Com.
