SATURDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1918.

DECREASING ACCIDENTS.

That it is possible greatly to reduce the number of industrial accidents is proved by a recent report of conditions in the steel industry. In 1907, 246 men were killed or injured out of every 1000, an appalling record of slaughter and crippling.

EAGLES OR DOBODOS?

The naval appropriation bill, now under consideration in the House Committee, is furnishing an opportunity for the Republicans to initiate their announced program of retrenchment in war expenditures.

Willett & Gray, of New York estimate the world cane sugar crop for 1918-19 will be less by 133,539 tons than that crop for 1917-18, while the beet sugar production shows an estimated falling off for the coming year, compared with

RIDDLE RED CROSS PLAN JUMBLE SALE

RIDDLE, Dec. 6.—(Special to The Evening News.) The Riddle chapter of the Red Cross has decided to hold a "Jumble Sale" the week of the sixteenth.

Most people go through life confusing causes, effects and unrelated circumstances and drawing wrong conclusions from the jumble.

However, non-material you may be don't ever let any wild-eyed dreamer convince you that the possession of money is undesirable.

With George Creel as cable censor during the peace conference, America will probably get its full quota of camouflage.

Supposing you don't own a automobile—neither did Julius Caesar nor George Washington nor Abraham Lincoln.

Don't expect too much of your friends. Not many of them are as deeply interested in your welfare as you imagine.

Many a Christmas will be made happy for many a family by the return of a doughboy from the western front.

Not a bit too early to do that Xmas shopping—because it's simply got to be done—this year, above all others.

WAR HAS HUMOROUS SIDE.

Following are some extracts from letters received from soldiers or their wives by the war risk insurance board:

She is staying at a disappated house. Previous to his departure we were married to a justice of the peace.

He was discharged on a goller and went home on it. Owing to a condition which I haven't walked in three months for a broken leg which is $75 I enclose lovingly yours.

I am left with a child seven months old and she is a baby and can't work.

In the service of the United States Army. He was the best supporter.

I received my insurance polish and have since moved my post office. I am his wife and only sir.

I am writing in the Y. M. C. A. with a piano playing on my uniform.

Now Mrs. Wilson I need help bad. See if the President can't help me. I need him to see after me.

How are you? I am well and hope you are too.

Dear Mr. Wilson, I have written to Mr. Headquarters and have received no reply and if I don't get one I am going to write to Uncle Sam himself.

I am a poor widow and all I have is in the front.

We have your letter. I am his grandmother and his grandfather and he was kept and bred up in this house according to your instructions.

Go to the Grand Grill and order fresh Eastern oysters, served in any style.
