Live-wire Doings of City

Will Arrive Here Monday.
It is expected that Lieutenant and Mrs. Frank Lilburn will arrive in Roseburg Monday. Lieutenant Lilburn has just been released from service at Washington, D. C., where he has been stationed in the quartermasters department of the service for the past few weeks.

Complaint Filed Today.
District Attorney George Neuner today filed a complaint in court in the case of Minnie C. Moore against Edward J. Douzie and six other defendants for the foreclosure of a mortgage of $900 with interest, attorneys' fees and cost.

Coming to Visit Parents
Miss Edith Hopkins who has been associated with a banking firm at Great Falls, Mont., for the past three years, will arrive in Roseburg next week to enjoy a visit of three months with her parents, Attorney and Mrs. Chas. Hopkins, of this city.

Leaves to Join His Company.
Sergeant Albert Easton, who has been in the city for the past ten days visiting with his parents and friends, left this morning for North Island, California, in response to a message from headquarters. The young man is in the regular army.

Will Return This Evening.
Miss Leone Coshow, who has been away during the past three weeks, will return home this evening. Miss Coshow visited with her sister, Mrs. Knapp Pickens and her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kay, in Salem, and with her Pi Phi sisters at Corvallis.

Preparing Box for Sick Soldiers.
The Honor Guard Girls are preparing a box of edibles for the hospital in the east, which is being sponsored by the local chapter. Any who wish to contribute to this box are asked to bring their donations in at once and leave them at Bubars jewelry store.

Glendale Boys Safe.
Word from Joe Jacques under date of November 14, three days after the fighting ceased on the battle front, brought relief to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Jacques. He says, he had just heard from his brother, Guy. The boys are both safe and relatives and friends are greatly relieved, so says The Glendale News.

Will Return Home Tomorrow.
Mrs. L. B. Skinner, who has been passing the week with her daughter, Mrs. George Johnson in Portland, will return home tomorrow morning, accompanied by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Edward Skinner, who will remain here until after the holidays. Mr. Edward Skinner will arrive next week.

A. M. Oeland Injured Last Night.
An unfortunate accident occurred at the Southern Pacific station freight yards last night, when A. M. Oeland fell from a ladder while attending to some repairs on a car and received a bad gash over the right eye. A physician was summoned, the wound dressed and Mr. Oeland returned to his work. Mr. Oeland was near the top of the ladder at the time the accident occurred and losing his hand hold, fell to the ground, lighting on his shoulder and the side of his head. Besides the gash over the eye, Mr. Oeland suffered several other minor bruises and cuts.

Bonds Discounted Five Per Cent.
Many inquiries have been received at The News office in reference to the selling of Liberty bonds and what discount is being made to the buyers. Inquiry at the banks here show that the discount fluctuates a little from day to day, but that it is quite safe to say that at the present time a five per cent discount is about normal. The banks are not, however, encouraging the sale of Liberty bonds, but rather are advising all holders to keep them.

Honor Guard Give Dance.
The Honor Guard girls are making elaborate preparations for a dance, which will take place on Christmas night, providing the "Flu" ban on dances is lifted by that time. The girls expect to make this affair a memorable occasion and are already busily engaged in arranging clever feature dances which will be enhanced by the play of colored lights thrown over the dancers.

Travel on Official Permit.
Mrs. N. B. Young, of Roseburg, Oregon, and Mrs. C. S. Magree, of Kremling, Colorado, passed through the city the first of the week on their way to visit their sister, Mrs. Aaron Pearce. They carried permits, letters officially signed by the state board of health, which stated that they could travel to Hotchkiss, Colo., on a Rio Grande train propelled by steam (speed not limited.)—Colorado News.

Little Girl Shot in Hand.
Mildred, the little daughter of Fred Bartell of Ferndale, was accidentally shot through the hand last Thursday, says the Glendale News. She was picking up the cartridges for her brother who was emptying the magazine of his 22, when the gun was accidentally discharged. The bullet went through the index finger of her right hand, shattering the bone, also plowing its way through the end of the second finger and breaking the nail on the third finger. Dr. Knott was called.

Has License—Not to Wed.
Glendale News.—Ed Throno returned yesterday from an extended visit in Roseburg and vicinity, leaving today for his home on upper Cow Creek. Ed's friends thought perhaps his trip to the county seat might have been to procure license to take to himself a helpmate, but he says nothing doing in the marriage license line. He declares the only license he got was a license to use explosives, but this doesn't signify that Ed is going to join the anarchists nor go out after the Kaiser. He does state emphatically, however, that he is going to get a bear.

Thankful for Unity and Patriotism

Every citizen of the U. S. A. has many things for which to be thankful, among the important ones are unity of purpose to accomplish the best ideals, and patriotic service at home and abroad.

The Roseburg National Bank thanks its customers for their patronage and invites new accounts.
