Thoughts are stubborn things.

Hope, although a light master is also a alphasot servant.

Domestic happiness is so-called because in spite of pessimists it pretty often is.

Then there is the kind of woman who dearly loves children but who has none of her own and will not allow any around.

More persons are worried about where to raise the capital for three square meals a day for self and family than are worried about how to get capital with which to float big business.

One cannot help but admire the stand taken by Mayor Hansen, of Seattle. That fellow has the mettle that will clear Seattle of the Bolsheviki element—even if it comes to the rifle and bayonet.

The North Carolina mountaineers have a local proverb which says, "Moonshine in the cabin makes sunshine in the soul." Also it sometimes makes starshine in the hole that the revenue men drill through the mountaineer.

"I do not propose," declares Senator Reed of Missouri, "to engage in any second-story work to put Ford in the Senate." There is little doubt that Mr. Reed expresses the sentiments of other conservative and self-respecting Democrats in the Senate, who like him, are good losers and willing to let the majority vote of the people of Michigan be accepted as final.

A careful comparison of the language of President Wilson's address of January 8, 1918, in which he set forth his (14) peace principles, with an address delivered by Lloyd George three days previously, shows that (13) of the (14) points advocated by Wilson were covered by Lloyd-George. This circumstance will cause many people to recall the time when President Wilson bolstered up his new-found preparedness policy by quoting a passage of Scripture, which it developed had been discovered and used in the same connection a short time before by Theodore Roosevelt. President Wilson found it necessary to issue a denial that he had read the Roosevelt speech. Perhaps he will let some one else deny for him that he had read the Lloyd George speech.

We find in the columns of a Democratic contemporary the story of a small boy whose sister gave him a pocket knife as a Christmas present. A few days later, while examining the knife closely, the boy discovered on the blade the words "Made in Germany", whereupon he threw the knife as far as he could and never touched it again. The Democratic editor publishes the story as an illustration of commendable patriotism. And yet that same editor, in 1913, consistently supported the Democratic administration in the enactment of a tariff law which encouraged the increased development of the German pocket-knife industry by increasing the opportunities for sales of German knives in America. If it was patriotic of the boy to throw the knife away, what shall we say of the course of full-grown and presumably intelligent men who deliberately aided in enacting a "Germany-First" tariff law?

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—Criticism of alleged failure to equip properly American forces abroad, delay in payment to soldiers and dependents, and many acts of the Government in the war, Senator Frelinghuysen, of New Jersey, said in the Senate today that American soldiers had returned ragged and penniless, "and more like tramps." He advocated placing of responsibility and concluded with the following reference to President Wilson: "It is very well for the President to break the precedent of a century that he may head triumphal processions in foreign capitals, sleep in the chambers of royalty, dine off gold plates in the palaces of the modern Caesars, and have his photographs taken, with kings, queens and princesses. But what of the American private who returns to his native shores, dismissed without a dollar in his pocket?"

Senator Kirby, of Arkansas, Democrat, replied briefly to Senator Frelinghuysen. He charged that incidents had been unduly enlarged upon, and said criticism had been made for partisan purposes and with little and often no foundation in fact. The ratio of complaints to the number of men involved has been exceedingly small, Senator Kirby declared.

OAKLAND, Feb. 6.—Four crafts of the Oakland Boilermakers Union struck today. The men demand full mechanical pay for their services. Twenty-five hundred walked out.

PUT STOMACH IN FINE CONDITION

Says Indigestion Results from an Excess of Hydrochloric Acid.

Undigested food delayed in the stomach decays, or rather, ferments the same as food left in the open air, says a noted authority. He also tells us that indigestion is caused by Hyper-acidity, meaning there is an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach which prevents complete digestion and starts food fermentation. Thus everything eaten soars in the stomach much like garbage soars in a can, forming acid fluids and gases which inflame the stomach like a toy balloon. Then we feel a heavy, lumpy misery in the chest, we belch up gas, we eructate sour food or have heartburn, flatulence, water-brash or nausea.

He tells us to lay aside all digestive aids and instead, get from any pharmacy four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and drink while it is effervescing and furthermore, to continue this for a week. While relief follows the first dose, it is important to neutralize the acidity, remove the gas-making mass, start the liver, stimulate the kidneys and thus promote a free flow of pure digestive juices.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and sodium phosphate. This harmless salts is used by thousands of people for stomach trouble with excellent results.
