Elmer Pierce of Cleveland, was arrested yesterday afternoon for hav-ing deer ment in his possession and after being arraigned in the Justice ing deer ment in his possession and after being arraigned in the Justice Court entered a plea of guilty, being fined $25 by Justice I. B. Riddle. It had been reported into the office at Portland that Mr. Pierce had killed an elk which is one of the most serious offenses against the game code, and consequently F. M. Brown, Secretary of the Oregon Fish and Game Commission and E. S. Hawker, District Deputy Game Warden for Linn, Benton, Lincoln and Douglas counties, and F. B. Herrington of Riddle, local deputy game warden, made a search of the premises, which however, disclosed only the deer ment and hide. Mr. Pierce plead guilty to the charge of having vonison in his possession and paid his fine without protest. There are two large herds of elk in the county and these are being carefully protected. The season is closed at all times and it is made a very serious offense to kill one of these animals.

Silage Differs So Much in Appear Stie "Organization Will Now ..Get and Forms that the Farmers Are At a Loss How To Use Them

(By J. E. McClintock.)

Mr. Yoran, of Eugene, representing the Oregon State Chamber of Commerce, met with the officers and trustees of the Roseburg Commercial Club on Thursday evening of this week and presented the plans and policy of the state chamber. This state organization has been formed for the purpose of developing the industries of the whole state, and no certain locality of community will hold any advantage as against another section. Portland has no advantage over Roseburg in so far as development is concerned and out of fifteen directors the city of Portland has easly two, and on voting on any measure that may be brought before Portland will have only five votes, or the same as Salem, Eugene or Pendieton. The first thing proposed by the state organization is to get back of the good roads program, and not cease their efforts until our state can boast of as good roads as California. Bringing in new people to develop our hundreds of thousands of acres of idle lands; bringing in outside capital to develop our sliceping industries and undeveloped resources; adjustment of unfair rates in certain sections of the state; mesting local communities with their problems and various other constructive measures is the real purpose of this organization. We are asked to take out a membership for the local organization. C. J. Hurd and Prot. E. L. Potter returned last evening from Days Creek, where they conducted a very successful animal husbandry school. This was the second meeting in the itinerary boing caried out in the county this week by Professor Potter and was well attended. The subject discussed at this meeting was the best methods of feeding of best cattle to obtain the best results taking into consideration the crops ordinarily raised in the vicinity, where the meeting was held. Professor Potter said: "Silage differs so much in appearance and form from the feeds with which farmers are accustomed that many are at a loss to know just how to use it properly. It must, however, be classed with the roughages rather than with the grains, although it contains such a large amount of water that it can not be fed as an entire substitute for large

WOUNDED SOLDIERS

One hundred and ten soldiers, 23 of whom were sick or wounded, passed through Roseburg this moraing enroute from Camp Lewis to Prestodio, Calif., the sick to enter Letterman general hospital where they will be given treatment. The soldiers are all from overseas, having seen service at the battlefront, many of them having been gassed or wounded by shrapnel. They are now in casual units and will be discharged soon after reaching the California camp. A committee from the local Red Cross Chapter met the boys at the station and served them with coffee and doughnuts, the committee being composed of H. C. Darby, Mrs. M. Devener, Mrs. F. R. Dunlap and Mrs. A. J. Huggerth. The sick were given sandwiches and homesmade jellies by the ladles who served them on the train.

JEWISH EMPIRE IN

W. A. Baker, a lecturer of national reputation, will deliver an address on the "Rise of the Jewish Impire in Palestine" at I. O. O. F. hall, this city on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mr. Haker represents the International Bible Student's Association, and his addresses have never failed to deeply interest his henrers. The subject fir this occasion is one which it is said cannot fail to interest all students of history and especially those who have noted its close association is hiblical prophegy with the innaguration of a new order of the things. While all civilized nations have fell that Palestine rightly be longs to the Jews, only now has its transference to them been made possible by the allied victory, and it is subject to the sew, only now has its transference to them been made possible by the allied victory, and it is subject to the Jews, only now has its transference to them been made possible by the allied victory, and it is subject to the Jews, only now has its transference to them been made possible by the allied victory, and it is subject to the Jews of the Jews only now have fell that Palestine rightly be not the Jews only now have fell that Palestine rightly be not the Jews only now have fell that Palestine rightly be not the Jews only now have fell that Palestine rightly be not the Jews only now have fell that Palestine rightly be not the property at Sutherlin, on which options are now held, will be purchased. The following are now held, will transference to them been made pos-sible by the allied victory, and it is evidently the intention of the Britisi evidently the intention of the British government that right and justice, and cleanliness skall reign in the land so intely delivered out of the clutches of the "unspeakable Turk." Orest developments may be expected, in fact are already taking place; this lecture is, therefore, thusly and will undoubtedly attract a large audience.
