GIFTED SPEAKER HOLDS AUDIENCE SPELLBOUND

Dr. Fry's subject in the revival at the M. E. Church, South, last night was: "A Great Man Facing a Great Task." His masterly presentation of the subject swayed his audience like grain is swayed by the wind. The speaker is not doing a surface work but is going down to bedrock for a foundation. He is a great scholar, but his scholarship is dedicated and consecrated to Almighty God. His eloquence is the eloquence born of a soul stirred to its depths, and conscious of the importance of his message as the ambassador of Christ. The text was Phil. 4-13, and the speaker dwelt on the greatness of Paul and the greatness of the work of the church today. Douglas County has never failed, nor will it fail this time. We will put the "V" in "over" and Douglas county will go down to history with the statement that she remained true to the last and her patriotic action will be a warning to those who would seek to spread their Bolshevick tendencies in this community that the same patriotism, which caused us to restrain from luxuries and even necessities in order that we might win, that caused us to dig down and finance the great cost of the war, is still alive and active and is willing to give to the utmost that our country, which now stands united in the great cause of humanity, may feel and know the undivided loyalty and support of its citizenship."
