Visited With Friends.
Carolina Ritzman, of Winchester, who has been visiting for a few days with Miss Jessie Crane and with other friends in this city, returned this morning to her home.

M. E. Revival Continues.

Dr. J. A. B. Fry preached two great sermons in town yesterday, and in the afternoon preached at the Green School House to the great delight of the large congregation present. The evening congregation in town was the largest yet present at the revival. At this service the Misses Aldridge, sang a duet which was well received and greatly appreciated. They will also sing at the services this week. At the close of the morning service the pastor baptised and received three children into the church. The interest still grows and we are expecting great results this week. The subject for tonight is: "Sin and its Cure."

CITY NEWS

The famous Zedeler Symphonic Quintet at the School house next Friday night.

The Zedelers are a great musical company. A rich treat for music lovers.

The National Republican, one dollar per year; W. F. Thomas, agent, will soon be sending in several subscriptions. Any one wishing to subscribe for it can leave name, address and subscription, at The News Office, or W. F. Thomas, 409 E. Douglas Street.

At three o'clock yesterday afternoon at the parsonage of the Christian church, Rev. C. H. Hilton united in marriage in a beautiful Easter ceremony Mr. J. M. Miller and Miss Tressie Fry. Both are of this city, and live in Bogard's addition. Miss Fry is an active member of the Christian church. The pastor used the ring ceremony. The young people were accompanied by a number of friends and relatives.

FORFEITS BAIL.

W. S. Smith was arrested yesterday by Marshal Shambrook charged with drunken and disorderly conduct. He was lodged in the city jail for a short time but was later released after depositing $20 with the officer to guarantee appearance at trial which was set for 2 o'clock this afternoon. He took the next train for his home at Oakland, however, and the money was turned over to the city treasurer.

STORE CHANGES HANDS.

A deal was made today whereby the cigar store and news stand conducted by Ben Hunsaker on Cass street has been traded to George Burnett for a 16-acre fruit ranch, known as the Moss place and situated a short distance west of Edenhower. Mr. Burnett will take possession of the store upon his return from Portland and it is very probable that his son, Gordon, will serve as manager. Mr. Hunsaker will take charge of his fruit tract at once.

BORN—to Mrs. G. W. Phillips, at Mercy Hospital on Saturday, April 19, a son.

INTERESTING ITEMS FROM MELROSE

The Red Cross met on Tuesday. They are finishing the work they have been doing for the Armenian children.

A surprise party was given last week in honor of Miss Sarah Anderson's birthday. Miss Anderson's home was filled with merry guests who enjoyed the evening by playing games, after which a dainty luncheon was served. Miss Sara blew out all the candles on her birthday cake, and we wonder if April 11, 1920, will find her at home again.

Mr. Cedarstrom and son Roy, have purchased a Ford roadster this past week.

The people of Elmarose are planning a social to be given at their school house April 25. We feel sure all are welcome and invited to attend. The weather is growing warmer.

so we suppose George Crane will be sharpening his razor ready for action.

This surely is a busy neighborhood now. From daylight till dark you can hear the panting of tractors, as the farmers are preparing the soil for planting. The horses also are as faithful as ever.

A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mrs. Reese and her daughter, Mrs. Orpha Sandstrom, last Thursday. The gathering took the nature of a birthday party in honor of Mrs. Sandstrom's birthday and also a house warming party for the hostesses, who have just settled themselves in their new home here. Were you ever at one of our gatherings? If so, you know that the occasion was enjoyed by all present and that as a large number.

The business visitors in Roseburg on Saturday were Mrs. Sindt and daughter, Mrs. Fred Brothers, A. J. Lingren, C. O. Nelson and Thomas Scott.

Miss Lenore Scott spent the weekend with her cousin, Miss Ellen Milliken in Roseburg.

The streets of Melrose were made more beautiful than usual by the display of new Easter bonnets worn by the fair sex on Sunday.

It rained just enough last week to keep the "webfooters" in good humor and the grass growing fine.

There were many joyriders seen on our highways Sunday.

Mrs. Guy Green is suffering from an illness which keeps her in bed. Let us hope she will soon be around again. SNOOKUMS.
