You can do it by using ALABASTINE and S. & W. paints and varnishes. Nothing better, little as good.

S. & W. Floor Lac is a varnish stain that is just as good for your picture frames or for your furniture as for your floors. One of the best made and the cheapest. Try it. Prove it.

Have you ever used "FLAXOPE" for washing your paints and varnishes. Builds them up and renews them. It is a wonderful peace of goods. Try it.

Put Them in Running Order.
Better hurry and get that old cast off worn out automobile in shape for the Carnival. Prizes on the worst looking automobile $7.50, $5.00 and $2.50.

Decree Given.
A decree was handed down yesterday in the case of J. L. Boggs vs. Rowe Weber, et ux, the decision being in favor of the plaintiff who was suing for foreclosure of mortgage.

Undergoes Operation.
Dr. R. R. Shoemaker recently underwent an operation for removal of tonsils in Portland. He is recovering quite rapidly and will be home within a few days.

Be Here For Carnival.
Miss Nell Mullen of Klamath Falls writes that she is on her way to Roseburg to help you at the Deer Carnival. Miss Mullen was formerly a clerk in this city and is well known in the community.

Wife Seriously Ill.
E. T. Compton, local S. P. Agent, left last evening for Salt Lake City in response to a telegram announcing the serious illness of his wife. Mrs. Compton left here a short time ago for a visit with relatives and was taken seriously ill.

Contenders Wanted.
Hey, you big stout man, are you going to let the Deer Creek Tag-of-War team blubb you? The Deer Creek fellows have a challenge out for a contest during the Carnival. Somebody better get busy, prize $15 for the winning team.

Error in Announcement.
The news item concerning the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Petrusch, appearing Monday, was an error as to the place. They were married in Portland, at the home of the bride's parents, instead of in Vancouver, B. C. The wedding occurred on May 5. The young couple are now at home in this city, 328 Chadwick Street.

Installs New Freezer.
The Douglas County Creamery has installed a new ice-cream freezer which will greatly increase the efficiency of their modern plant. The machine in operation is one of the best in this section of the state and with it a much better grade of ice-cream can be produced. It is not necessary to use ice with the freezer and the quickness with which it freezes is also a very important feature.

Young Lady Entertains Friends.
A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Mercier when their daughter, Edna Mae, entertained a number of her young friends. Following many amuses and a delightful hour of music, a dainty luncheon was served the guests. Those present to enjoy this charming social event were: Faye Goddess, Helen Campbell, Nellie Pickens, Helen Atterbury, Louise and Maurine Buchanan, James Pickens, Harry Spencer, Burton Hutton, Lewis Britt, Mae Butler, Lois Wright, Russell Freese. Mrs. Dick Gilvin and

Graduation Gifts

Commencement week will soon be here and with it comes the pleasant duty of choosing something pleasing and appropriate as a gift for the graduate.

For the Young Lady Graduate let us suggest Richelieu Pearls. These pearls have a permanent iridescent lustre. They are the finest reproductions of genuine pearls and are constructed to stand wearing abuses. We are showing Richelieu Pearls in a variety of sizes. No gift will be more fitting for the Girl graduate than Richelieu Pearls.

The Bracelet Watch is another worthy suggestion. We have all the better grade of movements handsomely cased. The new designs are very attractive.

PIONEER MAIL CARRIER DEAD

Jeff Bailey, aged 60 years, a pioneer mail carrier of Myrtle Creek, was found dead this morning while driving along the road over his usual mail route. He ate breakfast with his four sons with whom he had been living, and started on his way seemingly as well as ever. He had gone only a short distance when a couple of women happened to drive by and noticed that the reins were dragging. They stopped their team and found the aged man was dead. The funeral will be held at Myrtle Creek tomorrow.
