Return from Portland.
R. H. Grinstead, adjutant of the Soldiers Home, returned this morning from a business trip to Portland.

Spent Day at Sutherlin.
O. P. Coshaw and family and Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Graves, motored to Sutherlin to spend the day picnicking at Attorney Coshaw's fruit farm.

Yoncalla Man Here.
Isaac Olson, of Yoncalla, was a business visitor in Roseburg today. He reports everything prosperous in that district and states that the cutting of early hay has started.

Dance At Tiller.
Tonight at Tiller a big dance will be staged and several Roseburgers are planning to attend. The music for the occasion will be furnished by Goodman and Bates.

R. R. Turner Back.
R. R. Turner, of the local Land office returned this morning from Portland, where he has been attending to official matters for a couple of days.

Leave for San Francisco.
Mrs. Fred Schwartz and Miss Gertrude Hildebrand, have left for San Francisco, where they will join Dr. Lehrsach, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Fullerton and Mrs. Brann in an auto tour of southern California.

Looking for Location.
P. H. Smith of British Columbia, who has been spending a few days in Roseburg looking for a suitable location, left this morning for Medford, where he will investigate some property which has been offered for sale.

Mrs. Nasburg Home.
Mrs. Claude Nasburg, of Marshfield, who has been in San Francisco for several months doing Red Cross work, reached Roseburg last Thursday night on her way home. Her husband met her in this city and the two drove to Marshfield.

Fitting Up Offices.
Dr. A. C. Seely is today ordering equipment for his new offices on the fourth floor of the Perkins Building. He will have all the latest office furniture and in addition is ordering some of the most delicate instruments for use in his eye, ear, nose and throat work.

Presbyterians Win Again.
The Methodist team went down to defeat last evening at the hands of the fast Presbyterian team in the close score of 5 to 4. The game was one of the tightest to be played this season and it was thought for awhile the Methodists would be the winners. Street pitched for the Presbyterians and McIntock occupied the mound for the Methodists.

Boys Are Arrested.
Frank Rogers, Southern Pacific special agent, at night arrested two boys at the local depot grounds and placed them in the city jail. It is alleged the boys tampered with the train air valves at Grants Pass on account of being refused a ride. They will be held here until Monday and at that time an investigation will be made.

Will Take Vacation.
Attorney C. F. Hopkins will leave Saturday for Smith River and Gardiner districts, where he will spend a couple of weeks enjoying a vacation. Mr. Hopkins has worked hard at his profession giving his extra time to war work in the past few years and his health demands a rest. It is possible that he will extend the vacation period.

Ice Cream For Scouts.
The local Boy Scout organization will be treated with a treat to-night following their regular Saturday night meeting. The local sheriff's street restaurant has offered to feed the boys with ice cream and cake free of charge and it is needless to say the youngsters will be more than delighted with his generosity.

Elk Killing Prohibited.
A reward of $1,000 will be given for the arrest and conviction of any person who has killed an elk. The best reward was to have been $500 and Game Warden Thomas wrote to the state game warden informing him of the reward offered. The state warden wrote back that he would make the reward $1,000. Thomas says the offer still holds. The reward will be given in all 11 Districts of Coos, Douglas, Curry and Lane counties.

Farm Is Purchased.
C. C. Weaver, of Glenora, recently purchased the 10-acre farm situated on the Indian Point road and situated in the "Glenn Valley." Mr. Weaver expects to take possession of the farm about October 1st. He has been a resident of that locality for several years and has great faith in the valley as a prime growing section and will devote a great deal of his time and attention to the growing of Indian corn. The sale was a cash deal and made by the J. A. Walker realty house of this city.

Will Not Sue.
R. E. Cook, who it was alleged intended to bring suit against the city to compel issuance to him of a license to conduct a dance, stated to a News representative that the suit is positively quashed and that he will not take any such action. He also denied that he had been issued a license to the matter but did admit that he had received the license. He also stated that he was willing to meet his enemy on July 4th and turn all the gate receipts over to
