Yoncalla News

W. O. Bridges was in Roseburg Tuesday.

Roscoe Andrews was a Cottage Grove visitor last week.

G. W. White and Chas. McGee were in the city from Myrtle Creek Monday.

McGrady Daugherty has moved into the old Burt house, near Geo. Applegate's.

W. S. Drew was attending to business matters at the burg Monday.

Mrs. Wm. Thiel is visiting with Oakland friends at the present writing.

Mrs. Henry Little returned Friday to Oakland after a brief stay among friends here.

Maude Devore left Sunday for Can-yonville where she will reopen her school for the winter.

Capt. B. D. Boswell, of the springs, was in town Saturday. He expects to leave soon for California.

S. S. Morrison returned home the last of the week from Roseburg where he had been attending to business matters.

John Applegate, son of P. Applegate, of Jacksonville, spent a few days among his relatives in this city.

Harry Mahoney, of Oakland, was in town last Friday.

Fred Goff, of Oakland, has been employed to teach the intermediate department of the Yoncalla school.

Miss Emily Devore left Sunday for Monmouth to re-enter school, after spending the holidays with her parents.

Chas. Drain, one of the active business men of Drain, was in the city last Saturday.

Miss Robin Conn came down Sunday from Melrose to take charge of the primary department of the public school here.

School re-opened here Monday after a week's vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart, of Cottage Grove, spent several days among their old friends here.

Rev. Jas. Moore, formerly a resident of this place, delivered a very interesting sermon here last Sunday.

Miss Jessie Starr, who has been attending school at Jefferson, is home for a short stay with her parents.

Harry Lauman left Wednesday for Portland to resume his work in a laundry, after spending the holidays with his parents here.

Zopher Agree, Z. L. Dimmick and several other Oakland Odd Fellows, came down Friday to assist in installing the new officers of Yoncalla Lodge.

W. H. Newman met with a serious misfortune Wednesday. While working in Hellwell Bros. store putting up ceiling paper he swallowed several tacks. He is now seriously ill and his doctor says he may have to go to the hospital at Portland and have an operation performed to remove the tacks.

A Natural Result.

It is a very reasonable thing to suppose if the foundation of a structure was removed that the building itself is bound to come down. This same principle can be applied to disease. Take a medicine into the system that will remove the cause of sickness and the illness

What Shall We Have for Dessert?

This question arises in the family every day. Let us answer it to-day. Try

Jell-O,

Saved From Terrible Death.

The family of Mrs. M. L. Bobbitt, of Bargerton, Tenn., saw her dying and were powerless to save her. The most skilful physicians and every remedy used, failed, while consumption was slowly but surely taking her life. In this terrible hour Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption turned despair into joy. The first bottle brought immediate relief and its continued use completely cured her. It's the most certain cure in the world for all throat and lung troubles. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Wonderful Nerve.

Is displayed by many a man enduring pains of accidental cuts, wounds, bruises, burns, scalds, sore feet or stiff joints. But there's no need for it. The Bucklen's Arnica Salve will kill the pain and cure the trouble. It's the best salve on earth for piles, too. 25c,

EDITOR REVIEW: If you will allow me space in your valuable paper I will endeavor to make reply to the question asked by our old friend Patrick Murphy, which appeared in your paper recently.

Now Mr. Murphy, as I am a very young fry who has just stepped out of his trail of teens, and knows but very little about the cares of life, of course you cannot expect a very correct explanation from me. I believe you said you was accused of being a socialist. Now I think a very good answer to give you for this, is a golden rule which I have found very profitable in many cases. It reads something like this: "Do not believe anything you hear and only half you see."

Now, Mr. Murphy, the little fellow who jumped from the Dominant party to the Prohl., and then accepted an office on his old platform again, and who made enough money to travel abroad, and then could not stand properly, must have had an involuntary mind, no doubt. Now, let me tell you a little incident that happened within the limits of my knowledge. A few years ago a man accepted the office of counting how many hogs, sheep, goats, horses, cattle, etc., that the people had luck to raise. Also to collect $1.00 from every man who was over 21 and less than 50 years of age. He opened his heart enough to accept .90 cents from a poor man who was trying to hide a few grains of wheat in the rocky soil of a brush ranch with one horse and a mule, so that his family might have same bread to eat in the coming winter. Now I don't think that man knew much of the sweets of labor, and don't know whether he intended to fatten off his neighbors or not, but he was all right because he had the republican on his political name.

Now, Mr. Murphy, in answer to your last question as to why the Editor always publishes the age of elderly folks when married and not the young, it is probably because his mind is something like mine. I consider that when a young lady of 18 years, marries a man of 93 and lives with him, cares for and loves him, it is an honor, and I think that the boys should not lose any time in hunting all the tin cans in the country, and pounding them as small as ten cent pieces in honoring the couple. Then I think that the State should grant a pension to this young lady for life. I think this would be far more honorable for the state than to make an appropriation to build a bridge across the moon at the foot of the Blue mountains, 40 miles from nowhere.

Mr. Murphy, if it ever happens that you and I have a double wedding, and you take your lady of 18 and I take mine of 93 and we go to Europe on our wedding tour, and on our return the editor of THE REVIEW, or any other editor, does not extend their congratulations to us, the type will fly thicker than blackbirds in a cornfield, because they will have two to carry instead of one. Respectfully, R. R. THOMPSON.
