Yoncalla News

J. W. Sherwood, of Portland, was visiting in the city last week.

Sheriff E. L. Parrott was down from Roseburg last Tuesday.

Phil. Beckley, one of Oakland's prominent business men, was in town Thursday.

J. B. Gentry, a prominent business man of Albany, was in town Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart, of Cottage Grove, are making a brief stay with their Yoncalla friends.

Rev. W. S. Smith, of Oakland, was in the city the first of the week.

John Geider was a Roseburg visitor last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Howe spent Sunday with their friends near Rice Hill.

J. A. Davis, principal of the Yoncalla school, was in Roseburg last Friday attending to business matters.

Fred Dobson, of Cottage Grove, is visiting with friends here at present.

Mrs. James Ambrose spent the first of the week with her sister, Mrs. Colwell, at Cottage Grove.

Walter Wamsley and several others were called to Roseburg during the week to appear as witnesses before the grand jury.

L. D. Malone delivered a very good lecture here last Tuesday to a large crowd. Subject: Temperance. He is said to be the best temperance speaker in the state at present.

W. J. Kelleher was in Roseburg Friday on business. He will soon have his large sawmill in operation. W. H. Sykes, of the same company, was with him.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Colgrove were in Roseburg the latter part of the week attending to business matters.

A. E. Shirla and Chas. McGee, who are employed at the Kelleher & Skelley sawmill, are spending a few days with home folks at Myrtle Creek.

George Meiner, who has been working for the past two months near Santa Rosa, Calif., is on our streets again.

Mrs. R. H. Barber and son, Eric, were visiting among their Roseburg friends Saturday.

F. J. Raymond is having the Yett house repaired and will soon use it for a hotel. He expects to make it the best hotel in town.

Frank Wilson, formerly a resident of this place, arrived here Saturday from Cottage Grove to spend a few days with his sister, Mrs. Potter.

Miss Emily Meiner, after spending several days visiting with relatives here, returned Saturday to Portland where she is employed in the McAllen & McDonnell store.

It is with pleasure that we record one of the most enjoyable birthday parties of the season which was given at the home of Mrs. Wm. Thiel to her sons, O. F. and H. V. Thiel, Sunday, January 24. There were over 20 guests invited and the rooms were beautifully decorated for this time of the year. It is hard to find a finer table than was prepared by Mrs. Thiel and her daughters. After spending the remainder of the day playing games and singing, all returned to their homes, thanking Mrs. Thiel for the hospitality extended to each and all by herself and generous family.

pletely overshadowed. As a matter of fact, few are aware that in his feats of legenddom he is without a peer. There is nothing Herrmann, the wizard, or Heller, ever did that he does not easily duplicate and the hundreds of things he does that they never thought of are more wonderful than anything they ever done. When he goes down in the audience and picks a live canary bird from some lady's hair, makes it disappear and appear again in the most unexpected places and finally completes the pretty deception by pulling it not only in two but into two lively canaries, and then shows them to you in a cage which he has never been near, the mind is utterly bewildered. This is one of the many, as difficult tricks, and his feats of palming are simply indescribable.

Twenty Years Trial.

There are lots of good things the doctors know nothing about. We frequently cure people of disease after the doctors have given them up. If the disease comes from overwork, disipation or exposure, causing weak and watery blood and loss of flesh and strength, we have the one sure remedy in Dr. Gunn's Blood and Nerve Tonic. These tablets taken with meals turn the food into rich red blood, making strong, steady nerves, and increasing the strength, building up solid flesh at the rate of 1 to 3 lbs per week. This means health. For nervous prostration, loss of memory, or a pale, sallow complexion, a better remedy was never made. Doctors know nothing about this remedy only the fact that we make cures; as we have been doing this for twenty years we know our method to be the right one. Druggists sell Dr. Gunn's Blood and Nerve Tonic for 75c per box, or 3 boxes for $2, or sent by mail on receipt of price. Write us for a pamphlet telling all about this great medicine. Address Dr. Bosanko Co., Philadelphia, Pa. For sale by A. C. Marsters, druggist.

DIED.

PRUNTY.—At the home of her daughter, at Wilbur, Oregon, Jan. 23, 1904, Mrs. Mary D. Prunty, widow of the late Patrick D. Prunty, of Salem, Oregon.

Deceased was the beloved mother of Mrs. Ellen Benoit, of Wilbur, and widow of the widely known and recently deceased S. P. section foreman, P. D. Prunty, who was formerly located in Roseburg, but during later years had his headquarters at Salem. The body has been taken to Salem for interment by the side of her late husband.

Like a Comet
This famous remedy does for the stomach what which it is unable to do for itself, even if but slightly disordered or overburdened.

Kodol supplies the natural juices of digestion and does the work of the stomach, relaxing the nervous tension, while the inflamed muscles and membranes of that organ are allowed to rest and heal. It cures indigestion, flatulence, palpitation of the heart, nervous dyspepsia and all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying and strengthening the glands, membranes of the stomach and digestive organs.

A Very Close Call.

"I stuck to my engine, although every joint ached an every nerve was racked with pain," writes C. W. Bellamy, a locomotive fireman, of Burlington, Iowa. "I was weak and pale, without any appetite and all run down. As I was about to give up, I got a bottle of Electric Bitters, and after taking it, I felt as well as I ever did in my life." Weak, sickly, run down people always gain new life, strength and vigor from their use. Try them. Satisfaction guaranteed by A. C. Marsters & Co., of Roseburg, Or. Price 50c.
