E. A. Kruse, the well known poultry raiser, yesterday received from McMinville, the four Silver Combed Brown Leghorn chickens which he had sent there to enter in the poultry exhibition held by the Yamhill County Poultry Association. Accompanying the chickens were two prize cards showing that one had been awarded first premium as the best cockerel, with a score of 94, and another second premium as the second best cock, with a score of 91.

Upon complaint of Frank G. Micelli, an action has been brought in the justice court against H. S. French for assault and battery. The action is the outcome of a personal encounter between the two men in an ante-room of the Odd Fellows' hall last Friday night, as the result of a dispute over the right to a lodge room for that evening. When arraigned, Mr. French pleaded not guilty and his trial has been set for tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock.

Geo. Roberts, the well-known stage driver, was in Roseburg last week greeting old-time friends. For sixteen years he drove a six-horse team to the stages running between Roseburg and Yreka, and only laid off 30 days during that period. He had charge of the famous team of six white horses which was the pride of the stage line and worked in and out of Roseburg regularly. Since the railroad was completed through to California in 1881 he has been driving stage on various routes in California, including the famous Yosemite valley. With but one exception Mr. Roberts has done longer service than any other of the noted six-horse stage drivers now living, and ranks in the class of the famous Hank Monk. He is still an active man and expects to drive at the centennial exposition in Portland next year. Roberts Hill, in this county, was named after Jesse Roberts, father of the noted stage driver, who came to Oregon in 1845. Mrs. John Arner and Mrs. Amanda Russell, of Canyonville, are sisters of Mr. Roberts.

THE REASON

WHY do so many of the most careful dressers in town give us their entire furnishing goods trade?

BECAUSE they know that our styles in Shirts, Ties, Collars and Hosiery are always smart, tasty and correct.

We please the hard-to-please---perhaps this means you.
