"He that bloweth not his own horn the same shall not be blown"

WHEN DINNER'S READY

THE farmer's wife blows the horn to summon her husband to the mid-day meal.

It brings him.

When the merchant has prepared a feast of good things for which plenty of people are hungry, he, too, should tot a horn to call them to his banquet of bargains.

But the horn must be blown where the multitude will hear it or nobody will come to the feast.

Because nobody will know anything about it, even though it may be the most tempting repast ever spread.

The advertising horn, vigorously blown in the columns of a live, wide-awake, up-to-date, newsy newspaper, that goes among the class of people he wants for patrons, will bring him a volume of trade far beyond his most sanguine expectations.

The very best advertising medium in Southern Oregon is THE ROSEBURG REVIEW, daily and twice-a-week, because through them they can send their message direct every issue to far more prosperous homes and people, every one of whom wants to buy something, than by any other medium.

Let the business man show these people the advantage of buying his goods, and he will have no trouble in securing their patronage.

A little judicious blowing of the horn will do the business.

AN IMPORTANT HAPPENING.

The Recent Move of the W. A. Burr Music Company.

Permanent Establishment of a Thoroughly Progressive and Up-to-date Concern. What it Means to the People of Roseburg

Since the W. A. Burr Company commenced doing business in this city the people of Roseburg and vicinity have the advantage of piano purchasing on the most modern and progressive principles. Business has been conducted by this enterprising firm on the principle of quick sales and many of them—small profit to the dealer, large values to the purchaser and plenty of time to make payments. Every instrument has been fully guaranteed and exactly what it was represented to be.

Methods of this kind cannot fail to inspire confidence and bring custom. The W. A. Burr Co. has consequently rapidly grown in popularity and in the confidence of the people, until it now monopolizes the entire trade of this territory. Scores of customers the country through are ready to testify to the high standard on which this concern conducts its business.

Tomorrow it opens the doors of its new quarters where T. K. Richardson formerly did business. The store has been entirely remodeled and decorated, and is one of the leading business concerns now in Southern Oregon. It is equipped with a fine new line of pianos and organs, small instruments of all kinds, sheet and book music, everything in fact that a musician requires.

THE PIANOS.

The stock includes the handsome and popular Kimball piano, one of the finest pianos now before the public; the Hobart M. Cable, noted for its sweet tone and the beauty of its construction and finish; the superb Victor, made with especial reference to Pacific coast climate, being absolutely damp and rust proof, besides possessing every qualification as to good tone and being exceedingly handsome; the wonderful Wessler, the many-toned piano, upon which you can imitate various stringed instruments, such as the guitar and mandolin.

GRAND OPENING SALE.

In order to start things going and acquaint our friends with our new location, for the next ten days we are going to sell all these instruments at prices never heard of before in this country. Prices that will make the finest instruments yours, for what is required to secure one of these instruments, purchase to be completed by easy installments. Come in and see our new store and examine these pianos. You will find this the opportunity of a lifetime. Every instrument fully guaranteed and money back if there is not absolute satisfaction.

The date of the grand opening is February 1st. On this occasion the Roseburg orchestra will furnish music. Don't fail to attend.

W. A. BURR & CO.,
The Popular Music House,
Roseburg, Oregon.

Speaker L. T. Harris and Atty. J. M. Williams, of Eugene, were here today on legal business.

Geo. J. Langenberg, taxidermist, hides tanned for rugs. All work guaranteed first class. Prices moderate. Address, Roseburg, Ore.

Mrs. A. F. Drake came down from West Fork Sunday. No trace of her husband who was lost in the mountains a week ago has yet been found.

There will be a box supper at the Artisan lodge next Saturday night, Jan. 29. All Artisans come prepared—ladies to furnish the lunch and gentlemen prepared to buy.

Grant Taylor, Oakland; J. A. Martin, Portland; J. A. Campbell, Seattle; A. C. Nadler, Marshfield; Jas. Hodson, Chas. A. Pierce, Cleveland; Verale Buell, Looking Glass; Myrtle Dixon, Roseburg; A. T. Fetter, Drain; J. N. Griffith, Millwood; Dr. R. H. Barber, Yoncalla; W. A. Thornton, Oak Creek; H. L. Wilson and wife, J. M. Malone, Leland; G. M. Ingram, Wilbur; N. E. Britt, Newberg, were among the latest arrivals at the McClallen.

Congratulations.

Mr. John H. Callom, editor of the Garland, Texas, News, has written a letter of congratulations to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as follows: "Sixteen years ago when our first child was a baby he was subject to croupy spells and we would be very uneasy about him. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in 1887, and finding it such a reliable remedy for colds and croup, we have never been without it in the house since that time. We have five children and have given it to all of them with good results. One good feature of this remedy is that it is not disagreeable to take and our babies really like it. Another is that it is not dangerous, and there is no risk of giving an overdose. I congratulate you upon the success of your remedy." For sale by Hamilton Drug Co.

"Little Colds" neglected—thousands of lives sacrificed every year. Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup cures little colds—cures big colds too, down to the very verge of consumption.

HIGH SPEED ELECTRICS.

German Trolley Car Makes 131 1-2 Miles an Hour.

An elaborate series of experiments was undertaken in Germany under the auspices of the emperor over two years ago to solve several problems connected with electric traction. Although these were tried on a short bit of road, reaching from Marienfelde to Zossen and about fourteen miles long, they have an important bearing on the substitution of electricity for steam for trunk line service.

In the earlier tests a speed of nearly 100 miles an hour was reached. It was then discovered that the rails were not heavy enough. A long interruption ensued to admit of reconstructing the track and to make other preparations for getting valuable information. Shortly after the resumption of these experiments the cable dispatches

RECORD HOLDING TROLLEY CAR reported successive records of 100, 114, 117, 120 and finally 131 1/2 miles an hour for practically the whole length of the road.

The line has been equipped with the "three phase" system and has three overhead wires, one above another. Apparatus for taking off the current rises from each end of the car and presses sideways against the wires. The car itself is exceptionally stout and strong since it has to carry not only four heavy motors underneath, two on each truck, but also an enormous burden peculiar to these tests and not found on other electric cars. The coach is seventy-two feet in length.

The interior is divided into three compartments, with cross seats accommodating sixty passengers. The middle room is twenty-five feet long, and the others have only half that length. A vestibule at each end accommodates the motorman and a part of the equipment and takes off fully six feet from the available length of the coach.

Last Saturday morning about 6 o'clock, Mrs. A. T. Thompson was awakened in her bed by the noise of the wardrobe door being opened. She was startled upon observing that the door to another room was also open and fired a shot into the ceiling, when the intruder quickly got out of the house, having unlocked the front door. So far as known nothing was stolen.
