Enraged because his divorced wife refused to accord him an interview, E. D. Tobin, a mining man from Baker City, fired three shots at her in her rooms in the Ainsworth block in Portland Thursday evening, with the intention of killing her. Two of the bullets were deflected by her corset steels, but the third pierced her arm. She fled from the room and Tobin applied a lighted match to the paper wrapper enclosing a box of dynamite which he carried and to which a fuse was attached. Then he shot himself in the head, expiring instantly. Attracted by the noise of the shots, a man in an adjacent office rushed into the room and put out the blazing fire just in time to prevent an explosion which would have wrecked the whole building and perhaps brought death to a score or more of people.

THE REASON

WHY do so many of the most careful dressers in town give us their entire furnishing goods trade?

BECAUSE they know that our styles in Shirts, Ties, Collars and Hosiery are always smart, tasty and correct.

We please the hard-to-please---perhaps this means you.
