Salem Statesman: The death of Senator Hanna will again start the "cauldron" of Ohio politics into action just as the commotion which so often disturbs the political ripples there had been allayed. The legislature which re-elected Mr. Hanna last month is still in session and the unpleasant duty of electing his successor will devolve upon it. Although elected for a full term of six years, Senator Hanna's present term would not have expired until the 4th of next March. It is not at all unlikely that Governor Herriek, the particular personal and political friend of the dead senator, may be his successor.

The Cost of Living.

Every pocket knows its own bitterness. According to the statistics of the department of labor, which got its figures from 2,667 families with an average income of $827.19, and an average expenditure of $768.54, the cost of living in 1902, when it was highest, was 16.1 per cent more than in 1890, when it was lowest. Average wages have accordingly increased by just that 16.1 per cent; in some cases by more. The Employers' Association, of Chicago, estimates that the cost of living increased by 16.8 per cent from 1898 to 1903. Various newspapers and independent observers have guessed a much higher increase of cost, even more than double. Statistics are rampant liars, and in figures there is no comfort. Ask your wife how the household bills for groceries, and meat, and so on, in the last two years compare with those of 1890. If she doesn't say that they have gone up from 40 to 50 per cent, you are a mighty lucky man. Wages may or may not have gone up 16 per cent. Salaries have not gone up at all.—"With the Procession" in Everybody's Magazine for February.

Twenty Years Trial.

There are lots of good things the doctors know nothing about. We frequently cure people of disease after the doctors have given them up. If the disease comes from overwork, dissipation or exposure, causing weak and watery blood and loss of flesh and strength, we have the one sure remedy in Dr. Gunn's Blood and Nerve Tonic. These tablets taken with meals turn the food into rich red blood, making strong, steady nerves, and increasing the strength, building up solid flesh at the rate of 1 to 3 lbs. per week. This means health. For nervous prostration, loss of memory, or a pale, sallow complexion, a better remedy was never made. Doctors know nothing about this remedy only the fact that we make cures; so we have been doing this for twenty years we know our method to be the right one. Druggists sell Dr. Gunn's Blood and Nerve Tonic for 75c per box, or 3 boxes for $2, or sent by mail on receipt of price. Write us for a pamphlet telling all about this great medicine. Address Dr. Rosanko Co., Philadelphia, Pa. For sale by A. C. Mursters, druggist.

CURED WHEN OTHERS FAILED

1056 Winnebec Avenue.

CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 25, 1902.

Wine of Cardui can always be relied upon to cure when everything else fails. It is a certain cure for female diseases in their worst forms. I suffered for years with ulceration. Intense pains in the womb and ovaries and dreadful headaches afflicted me for my work. Finally I grew so ill that I had to keep to my bed. The pains were so intense at times as to cause spasms and a disagreeable discharge drained my life force. In my extremity after all else had failed, I tried Wine of Cardui. After using it for two weeks I began to improve so rapidly that I felt encouraged to keep up the treatment, which I did for eighteen weeks, but at the end of that time I was entirely cured. What a relief was mine and how new and beautiful life looked to me when my health was restored. Only those who have passed through such a siege of sickness as I have will understand how much I value Wine of Cardui. It is indeed a boon to sick women.

Frances Mitchell

Secretary, North Chicago Frauen Verein.

Every weak woman needs Wine of Cardui. Wine of Cardui cures disordered and painful menstruation, periodical headaches, falling of the womb and leucorrhoea. It cures extreme cases of these troubles. It strengthens girls approaching womanhood, helps bring children to barren homes, makes pregnancy and childbirth easier, prevents miscarriages and is the best medicine ever made for use during the change of life. Why permit the good women in your home to suffer another day? Every druggist has $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

The flinch party given at Brown's Hall Friday evening was a very pleasant affair. A number of guests were invited and the evening was spent playing flinch and pit. Refreshments were served later in the evening and all went home well pleased with the good time had.

Another Case of Rheumatism Cured by Chamberlain's Pain Balm.

The efficacy of Chamberlain's Pain Balm in the relief of rheumatism is being demonstrated daily. Parker Triplet, of Grigsby, Va., says that Chamberlain's Pain Balm gave him permanent relief from rheumatism in the back when everything else failed, and he would not be without it. For sale by Hamilton Drug Co.

Faith Cure Ineffectual.

Portland, Oregonian, Tuesday, Feb. 16: Prayer has been found ineffective as a remedy for smallpox. Mrs. Mildred Albend is dead at her home in Arieta Park, while Rev. G. T. Neal, of the "Church of God," is quarantined at the stricken home. Death ended the woman's suffering while the Rev. Mr. Neal was praying for her recovery from the dread disease. The other members of the household are under quarantine, where they will remain pending an official investigation of the case which was commenced yesterday by the coroner and health authorities. Arrests may follow.

Notwithstanding the nature of the woman's ailment she had no doctor or medicine during her illness.

Since the faith treatment was of Mrs. Albend's own choosing the authorities say no one can be held culpable of negligence in not securing a doctor.
