Mrs. W. H. Jamieson pleasantly entertained sixty-five of her lady friends at her home in this city this afternoon. The reception rooms presented the appearance of a veritable floral conservatory, being most handsomely decorated with ferns, lilies of the valley, carnations, roses, tulips and violets. S. H. Munson, one of the best known and highly respected residents of Edgewater, was committed to the state insane asylum by the county court yesterday and last night was taken to Salem by Sheriff Parrott. Mr. Munson's form of insanity is said to consist of brain softening, due to an illness from which he partially recovered physically several months ago. His wife and two sons and daughter brought the complaint, testifying that Mr. Munson had homicidal tendencies. Apparently he never exhibited such tendency outside of his own home. A very slight mental weakness was noticeable, but this did not in the least affect his almost perfectly rational manner, when he made his usual daily walks into town. His commitment is therefore the occasion of painful surprise and regret among his many friends.
