DIED.

CHAMBERLAIN.—At the home of A. F. Hoffman, in Happy Valley, five miles southwest of Roseburg, March 21, 1904, Lewis A. Chamberlain, aged 49 years, of heart trouble.

Mr. Chamberlain had been a resident of Happy Valley for nearly seven years, coming there from Colorado. He possessed a splendid education and previous to his residence in Colorado spent twenty years in a leading commission house in New York City. His health compelled him to seek outdoor labor. He was formerly a Mason and an Odd Fellow.

Mr. Chamberlain is survived by a wife—a daughter of J. W. Mote, of West Roseburg—an infant daughter, a brother at Savannah, Illinois, and two other brothers in New York City.

The funeral will take place at Brook way tomorrow afternoon; interment in the Civil Bend cemetery.

HUBBARD.—At the residence of her nephew, J. J. Thornton, at Oak Creek, March 31, 1904, Mrs. Hubbard, aged 99 years, of blood poisoning. The funeral was held at Oak Creek Thursday.

A Thoughtful Man.

M. M. Austin, of Winchester, Ind., knew what to do in the hour of need. His wife had such an unusual case of stomach and liver trouble, physicians could not help her. He thought of and tried Dr. King's New Life Pills and she got relief at once and was finally cured. Only 25c, at A. C. Marsters & Co. drug store, Roseburg, Oregon.

Split cedar posts for sale at Fisher & Bellows Co. d-sw-14.

"Whose Baby are You?" by Mark E. Swan, the brilliant young American play writer, will be the attraction at the opera house on Monday evening next. This farce has the proud distinction of being the very best farce ever written and the comedy element which is so strong in it is decidedly the cleverest bit of farcical construction before the public. Seats are now on sale.

I have been suffering for eight months and tried many remedies without any relief, until I got Acker's Dyspepsia Tablets which I had only a short time and am now perfectly well. Y., for free trial package. (Nothing like them.)
