DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

- FOR SENATOR-O. P. Coshaw, of Roseburg. FOR REPRESENTATIVES-Willis Kramer, of Myrtle Creek; F. F. Wells, of Elkton.

THE NOMINEES.

So well and favorably known are the democratic nominees for district and county offices in this portion of the state that no introduction is necessary to those who have lived here for any considerable length of time.

For Congressman, Hon. R. M. Veatch, of Cottage Grove, is the nominee. Senator Veatch was formerly register of the U. S. land office in this city and has a host of friends throughout the state.

For Circuit Judge, Hon. J. W. Hamilton, of Roseburg, is so generally and favorably known throughout the district that each county will vie with the others in giving him a rousing endorsement for another term.

For District Attorney, Hon. L. M. Travis, of Eugene, is the nominee. His ability and attainments are generally admitted and his popularity at home is attested by his having run several hundred votes ahead of his ticket in the race for state senator two years ago.

For Joint Senator, Hon. Lark Bilyeu, of Eugene, was named. His wide practice as an attorney in the counties of the district has gained for him numerous friends and acquaintances who will be glad to give him their support.

For Joint Representative, W. O. Bridges, of Yoncalla, has been chosen. He is an active and successful business man who knows the wants of the people and will attend to them honestly, without fear or favor.

For State Senator, Hon. O. P. Coshaw, of Roseburg, is so widely and favorably known throughout the county that any introduction is needless. His endorsement at the polls already seems assured.

For Representatives, Hon. Willis Kramer, of Myrtle Creek, and F. F. Wells, of Elkton, are among our best known citizens. Mr. Kramer merits a re-election, and Mr. Wells is one of the county's most successful and progressive farmers who will ably serve his constituents.

For Sheriff, Thos. E. Biedson, of Drain, possesses all the needed qualifications. In his large sawmill and other business engagements he has always been successful. He has a rare tact in dealing with his fellow men, and being active, obliging, energetic and honest, his friends can only be numbered by the wide circle of his acquaintance.

For Clerk, Prof. Zopher N. Agee, of Oakland, is eminently well qualified. He was handicapped two years ago by not being generally well known. However, he gained many friends in that campaign, who, with numerous others, will be glad to support him this year. He never loses a friend, and new acquaintances soon become his friends and supporters.

For Treasurer, J. T. Bryan, of Roseburg, has every qualification. He is thoroughly capable, strictly honest and always obliging. He is one of this city's most highly esteemed business men and his friends are a legion.

For Commissioner, Morris Weber is eminently fitted. He lives five miles northwest of Roseburg on one of the finest and best equipped farms in the county, and it is always kept in model condition. Mr. Weber is also a first-class practical road builder and is just the man the county needs at this time in the office of commissioner.

For Assessor, John L. Casebeer, of Deer Creek, is the nominee. He is a successful farmer and grower of blooded livestock. He was formerly a leading teacher in the public schools of this county. He has an excellent knowledge of property values and is in every way fitted for the position, which he will fill with "equal rights to all and special privileges to none."

For School Superintendent, Prof. Thurman Chaney, of Myrtle Creek, is fitted by many years of practical work in the public schools of this county. He knows the needs of pupils, patrons and teachers.

For Surveyor, J. A. Shook, who lives between Oakland and Kellogg, is the nominee. He has had many years of experience in his line and will do justice to all.

For Coroner, Dr. C. E. Bogue, of Myrtle Creek, has been named. He has been a practicing physician in the southern part of the county for a number of years past and is qualified to fill the position.

For Justice of the Peace and Constable of the Roseburg District, the qualifications of Atty. John Long and Stephen Van Houten are well known to nearly every citizen. They will do their duty.

A Thoughtful Man. M. M. Austin, of Winchester, Ind., knew what to do in the hour of his race for state senator two years ago. His wife had such an unusual case of stomach and liver trouble, physicians could not help her. He thought of and tried Dr. King's New Life Pills and she got relief at once and was finally cured. Only 25c. at A. C. Marslers & Co. drug store, Roseburg, Oregon.

Order of Artisans Sued.

The well known fraternal and mutual life insurance organization of United Artisans, and indirectly in this case, Umpqua Assembly No. 105, the branch of the order at Roseburg, is the defendant in a suit brought by Sol. J. Culver, of Bandon, to recover $1,000 on an insurance policy in that order, held by the late Wm. C. Hildebrand, jr., in favor of his little son, Robert, of whom Mr. Culver is now legal guardian. The suit has been filed at Roseburg. In this complaint, Mr. Culver alleges that the policy became payable on January 5, 1904, sixty days after proof of Mr. Hildebrand's death, but that the Artisans Supreme lodge would neither pay the amount specified, levy an assessment upon its members, showing its intention to do so, nor deliver a deficiency certificate whereby, as provided by the laws of the order, the money would draw interest at 6 per cent, until collected assessments would pay the policy. Mr. Culver also demands this interest from Jan. 15, 1904. He is represented by Attorneys Geo. M. Brown and John Long.

It is said the Artisans refuse to pay this policy because the deceased came to his death by suicide.

In Memoriam.

Written in memory of Albert S. Cloyd, who died April 16, 1904:

You are not dead, dear Albert, So it now seems to me, But only sweetly dreaming Of heaven, home and me.

I would not call you back again To content with grief and pain, For what to us is mortal loss Is your eternal gain.

Started now on your last run, May angels guard your way To a great and glorious station Where it's everlasting day.

We mourn your loss and always will But will strive to bear our pain, And teach our little ones to live So we all will meet again.

Farewell to you, our dear one, We leave you in God's care, And wait with resignation Till we shall be called there.

FROM A BROTHER.

Twenty Years Trial.

There are lots of good things the doctors know nothing about. We frequently cure people of disease after the doctors have given them up. If the disease comes from overwork, dissipation or exposure, causing weak and watery blood and loss of flesh and strength, we have the one sure remedy in Dr. Gunn's Blood and Nerve Tonic. These tablets taken with meals turn the food into rich red blood, making strong, steady nerves, and increasing the strength, building up solid flesh at the rate of 1 to 3 lbs per week. This means health. For nervous prostration, loss of memory, or a pale, sallow complexion, a better remedy was never made. Doctors know nothing about this remedy only the fact that we make cures; as we have been doing this for twenty years we know our method to be the right one. Druggists sell Dr. Gunn's Blood and Nerve Tonic for 75c per box, or 3 boxes for $2.00 sent by mail on receipt of price. Write us for a pamphlet telling all about this great medicine. Address Dr. Dosanko Co., Philadelphia, Pa. For sale by A. C. Marslers, druggist.

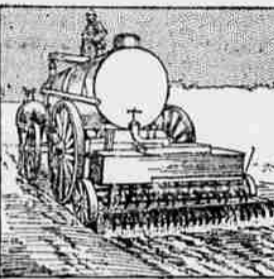

SMOOTH AND DUSTLESS.

Benefits From the Use of Oil on Roads of California.

In the year book of the department of agriculture James W. Abbott, special agent for the Rocky mountain and Pacific coast division, in a special report makes a review of the use of mineral oil in road improvement, which, he says, has been a great success in California. He says:

"The growth of oil in popular favor in southern California has been steady and rapid. Many of those who have had most experience with it have come to regard its use in a dry region as the most important discovery ever made in roadmaking. Quite a considerable number of persons have said to the writer: 'We could not go back to the old conditions. If we had to give up our oiled roads we would move away.'"

"In California it was soon learned that, incalculably valuable as it was, the laying of dust was not the only or even the most extraordinary result obtained. It was found that when oil was applied it immediately began to bind together all the loose particles constituting the road surface, whether clay, sandy loam, loose sand, gravel or the fine material on the top of macadam. A tough stratum formed resembling an asphalt pavement. Roads built on drifting sand or clayey dust, no matter how deep, where trotting with a buggy was impossible and for a pair of strong horses to pull a ton was a very laborious process, became indurated, resilient and firm, so that driving teams could trot with ease and the same pair of horses pull two and a half tons more comfortably than they formerly did the one ton. Of course these results were not fully obtained immediately, but they never failed to follow persistent treatment with oil.

"The oil is put on by means of a longitudinal tank mounted on wheels like an ordinary sprinkling wagon. Four horses can readily pull one holding from 800 to 1,000 gallons. To the rear of this tank is attached the device which lets the oil out on to the road. Attempts have been made to use an ordinary sprinkling wagon, but with very poor success. It has been found impossible to get any regulation to the discharge. When the tank was full it would discharge much faster than when it was partly full. There was a tendency also for the center of the strip treated to get too much oil and the edges not enough. If hot oil was used the spray tended to cool it before it reached the ground."

MILES ON GOOD ROADS.

The General's Views on the Improvement of Our Highways.

The most important speech made by General Miles recently was one on good roads. Among other things he said:

"I know of no one element of civilization in our country that has been more neglected than the improvement of our roads; yet this is the element that marks the line between barbarism and civilization in any country.

"During the past hundred years the people of this country have devoted more capital, industry and enterprise to the construction of great commercial railroads than have the people of any other country.

"Our government has expended more than $400,000,000 for the improvement of our harbors and waterways. If such expenditures of the national treasure have been made in the past for the development of railroads and waterways is it not now most appropriate that the improvement of our roads should receive national attention and government aid?

"Any measure that brings to the homes of the American people the daily news of the world, that gives the sovereign citizen the truth concerning the affairs of his own country, that affords him a knowledge of the conditions and necessities of his own people, enables him to discharge his duties of citizenship, benefits the entire country and gives strength and character to the nation.

"The wealth of the nation comes primarily from the ground. The factory and foundry utilize the products of the soil and mine. As agriculture is our principal industry, so the great mass of our rural people are our main dependence. Their patriotism, their public spirit, their welfare, must ever be the salvation and glory of our republic. Therefore every measure, whether by the national government, the state, county or municipal authorities, that can promote their welfare should be earnestly advocated."

Convict Camps in Porto Rico.

The government of Porto Rico is establishing convict camps at two important points, and several hundred prisoners who are now supported in idleness will be employed building much needed roads. The law was passed at the recent session of the legislative assembly of Porto Rico. The governor under the bill has made an allotment of $20,000 from trust funds at his disposal for the building of stockades, sheds and other necessary structures in the camps and for engineering, tools and other necessary expenditures.
