Oakland News.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Davis are late arrivals from Dedham, Iowa.
Mrs. Dr. Gilmour has arrived home from an extended visit in Portland.
C. H. Maupin was in from Kellogg with a wagon load of mohair Tuesday.
Victor Boyd will commence a term of school at Olalla Monday morning.
Mrs. D. E. Vernon visited the Rebeccah lodge in Roseburg Tuesday evening.
Ex-Surveyor General W. H. Byars is surveying a large tract of land near Gardiner.
Miss Anna Smith will commence a term of school near Jacksonville Monday.
C. W. Vail, agent for the Alliance Trust Company, has sold Dwight Reed 320 acres of the Chenoweth Park farm.
About 20 men are employed hoeing, training and twining hops in the Stearns yards in this city.
Many Oakland friends will be pained to hear Mr. and Mrs. L. McFarland formerly of this city, but now of Seattle, are both very feeble.
Major Beatty went to Roseburg Wednesday evening to accept the night clerkship at the Roseburg House.
James Batty has purchased a half interest in the Oakland Meat Market.
Yesterday morning G. J. Stearns went to Portland with two carloads of sheep for E. G. Young & Co. There were 325 fall grown sheep and 140 lambs in this shipment.
Jenner Page has arrived home from Canada. One foot and three fingers were pretty badly frozen in falling through the ice. Like many others, Jenner says Douglas county is all right, after all.
John Nelson of Wall Lake, Minn., is the guest of N. A. Foster, an Oakland real estate man. Mr. Nelson thinks 35 to 40 degrees below zero is a trifle cold for him. He is well pleased with Douglas county and may yet engage in business here.
Chicago has prohibited the sale of toy pistols within the city limits. Let every other incorporated city follow a worthy example. Crippling and sometimes killing children on the Fourth of July is not patriotism in any sense of the term.
Miss Lillie Levins, of Drain, was in the city a few days this week suffering with an attack of recurrent appendicitis. Dr. Gilmour afforded temporary relief. Miss Levins has returned home, but will perhaps undergo an operation in a few weeks.
Thomas William started to Walterville, Lane county, Monday night, where he expects to purchase or lease a saw mill.
Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Allen are late arrivals from Loyal, Wisconsin. They are pleased with Oregon and may invest in Douglas county.

Fred Goff has resigned as teacher in the Yoncalla public school and is devoting his time to farming.

E. E. Emmitt has returned from Witter Springs, California, much improved in health.

Mrs. Fred Lough and son, of Roseburg, are visiting relatives in and near this city. Mrs. Lough is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sampson Sutherland, of Fair Oaks.

George Fromm, wife and two daughters, arrived from Chicago Tuesday morning and will soon remove to the Chenoweth Park fruit farm. A few months ago Mr. Fromm purchased this valuable piece of property and is well pleased with the investment.—Owl.

Startling Evidence.

Fresh testimony in great quantity is constantly coming in, declaring Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption Coughs and Colds to be unequalled. A recent expression from T. J. McFarland, Bentonsville, Va., serves as example. He writes: "I had Bronchitis for three years and doctored all the time without being benefited. Then I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and a few bottles wholly cured me." Equally effective in curing all Lung and Throat troubles, Consumption, Pneumonia and Grip. Guaranteed by A. C. Marsters & Co., of Roseburg, Druggist. Trial bottles free, regular sizes 50c. and $1.00.

Myrtle Creek News.

Elbert Jackson is no longer with N. Sellig. Mr. Jackson and family have moved back to Riddle.

The new machinery for the oil well arrived Monday, and operations began at once, and in a few days straight drilling will be reached and then we may expect new developments.

Oscar Gustafson has rented his business building to Mrs. Stampine and Miss Sadie King who have formed a partnership and will continue the business.

A bad accident happened to Tom Jackson at his sawmill on North Myrtle on Wednesday evening. While arranging the saw Mr. Jackson's left hand came in contact with the saw, severing the thumb and cutting the hand badly.

The Woodmen of the World had a regular meeting last evening and initiated five new members into the mysteries of the camp. After the hall work the members and their invited guests went over to Gustafson's hall and danced the happy hours away. A fine dinner was served at midnight, eighty-eight meals being served.—Mail.

DIED.

SLOCUM.—At Walla Walla, Wash., May 6, 1904, Edward H. Slocum, of Dayton, Wash.

The deceased was formerly a resident of this county. He was a brother of Mrs. C. L. Hadley and H. C. Slocum, Sr., of this city, and Mrs. W. H. Byars, of Salem.

New stock of fine lithographed marriage certificates at this office.

Kelleher City News.

John Wagner, of Hayhurst, was a visitor here during the week.

The prospect for a heavy yield of fruit was never better than it is at the present writing.

The mill is running again cutting lumber for the flume to Drain. Liveller times at Kelleher City will soon be here.

Mr. W. H. Sykes returned from McKeesport, Pa., Wednesday. He reports the wedding of his daughter, the idol of his family. Business matters and delays in travelling, occasioned by storms, caused his absence from Billy Creek to be prolonged several days beyond what he had anticipated. He further states that spring is very backward in the eastern states and an overcast and umbrella very necessary articles anywhere and everywhere east of the Rockies. He leaves for Roseburg on business this morning (Friday).

G. W. White has returned from Roseburg.

Earl Small is again visiting here.

Hans Emerson is making many valuable improvements about his farm south of the mill, and eventually will have a nice home of it.
As per previous announcement, a social dance was given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Roberts Saturday night last. The music was excellent, and dancing ceased promptly at midnight. There were present, Messdames Stanley, Roberts and Thornton, the Misses Olsen, the Misses Thornton, Messrs. Springer, Shiria, Richey, David Thornton, Joe Thornton, Hewitt, Hamilton. All went to their respective homes pleased with the evening's enjoyment. REX.

The World's Fair Route.

Those anticipating an Eastern trip, or a visit to the Louisiana Purchase Exposition at St. Louis, cannot afford to overlook the advantages offered by the MISSOURI PACIFIC RAILWAY, which, on account of its various routes and gateways, has been appropriately named "The World's Fair Route."

Passengers from the Northwest take the MISSOURI PACIFIC trains from Denver or Pueblo, with the choice of either going direct through Kansas City, or via Wichita, Fort Scott and Pleasant Hill.

Two trains daily from Denver and Pueblo to St. Louis without change, carrying all classes of modern equipment, including electric lighted observation parlor cafe dining cars. Ten daily trains between Kansas City and St. Louis.

Write or call on W. C. McBride, General Agent, 124 Third street, Portland, for detailed information and illustrated literature.

Cocoa Free.

Next Monday and Tuesday, May 9 and 10, Mrs. Hayward will be at H. Marks Co's store, serving and demonstrating, free to all, the famous Baker's Cocoa. Ladies and gentlemen are invited to come and enjoy a cup of cocoa, prepared by an expert, and to learn anything new she may have to impart thereon. a-w-m10.
