Oakland News.

Mrs. Ida Winniford left on the overland, via the Union Pacific, on Monday morning for St. Louis where she will visit the fair for some time, and then extend her trip to Morristown, Tenn., her old home, where she will visit her mother and other relatives.

The election in Oakland and Calapoia precincts passed off peacefully and very quietly—not the least disorder. Every voter, so far as we know, is submitting pleasantly to the results, like all true American citizens, believing that the majority must and should rule. Local option carried here by 80 majority and the primary nominating law by 123 majority.

Mrs. E. L. Fitch has just returned from the Lower Calapoia where she had been visiting friends for some time.

Mrs. A. N. Grant left here on Monday for Tazewell, Okla., where she will visit with one of her college friends, Mrs. Ada Crawford, for a few days, after which time she will go to The Dalles, where she will visit for several weeks with her father-in-law, Prof. J. H. O'Neil.

Mrs. Co. Jones, of Eugene, is visiting in our city this week, the guest of Mrs. Margie Medley. This lady taught in our school several years ago and has many friends here.

Mrs. Wm. Carl, of Portland, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Edwards, of Old Oakland, returned to her home recently.

Mrs. Woodard and baby will start in a day or two for Oakland, Calif., where they will visit with Mrs. Woodard's mother.

Mrs. G. A. Taylor, of Portland, is in Oakland visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Winniford, from Emporia Falls, were doing business in our city on last Wednesday.

Hon. Binger Hermann and Hon. O. P. Coshaw were among the distinguished visitors to Oakland on last Saturday.

Ph.D. Heckley, business manager of the Oakland Drug Co., is in Portland this week in the interest of this company's business.

Quite a number of the Masonic fraternity met on last Saturday and perfected arrangements whereby a Masonic lodge will soon be organized here.

The railroad company is delivering large quantities of heavy timbers in their yards here.

Ross Hutchinson passed through Oakland on Tuesday in charge of the Kellogg vote.

Since the organization of the Commercial Bank of Oakland, its business has had a remarkably substantial and rapid growth. It has already become widely known as one of the solid business institutions of the state, and its very liberal patronage is evidence of its usefulness and convenience to the community.

The card party given by Mesdames J. A. Collins, D. E. Vereen and Jas. Dearling, at Hotel Collins on last Saturday evening, was one of the most pleasant social affairs of the season. These ladies are delightful entertainers and never fail to make their guests happy.

Quite a number of gentlemen are now talking up a 4th of July celebration for Oakland. We hope they will succeed in their efforts. Many of the best and most largely attended celebrations ever held in this county have been at Oakland, and there seems no reason why we should not have a celebration this year—the most "glorious" of all. Let us all put our shoulders to the wheel and make her go.

Dr. Gilmore attended some sick people at Elton last week.

W. R. Thompson and Miss Rose Emmitt, of Coles Valley, were calling on Oakland friends on last Wednesday.
