JUNE 14, 1904.

An ear of corn, ten rows of which are white and ten rows red, exactly divided lengthwise of the cob, is a cereal freak in the Missouri exhibit in the Palace of Agriculture at the World's Fair.

Trying to increase trade without advertising is like short stepping and fuming behind a slowly moving through on a crowded street. Make a double quick flank movement and you find that you got beyond the lazy ones and strike a "hot" trail. Advertising is the only force that will carry a business above and beyond the inertia of "dull times" and set for trade a paying pace that puts advertisers in the class of "first under the wire."—Ex.

Eikton News.

Z. B. Lawson, the chittam bark man, of Sandy Bottom, was in our midst recently.

Clyde Beckley, of Oakland, was shaking hands here with old time friends recently.

Geo. Walker, of Sandy Bottom, was with us Saturday. He reports every thing moving smoothly in that vicinity.

Ada Robinson returned from Ashland Friday.

Fred Swaggert, the brush creek logger, was looking after business matters in town Saturday.

Lillian Levins, of Drain, is visiting relatives here at present.

Jas. Riley, the wide awake hunter of Sandy Bottom, was transacting business in our burg Saturday. Who.

Startling Evidence.

Fresh testimony in great quantity is constantly coming in, declaring Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds to be unequalled. A recent expression from T. J. McFarland, Bentonville, Va., serves as example. He writes: "I had Bronchitis for three years and coughed all the time without being benefited. Then I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and a few bottles wholly cured me." Equally effective in curing all Lung and Throat troubles, Consumption, Pneumonia and Grip. Guaranteed by A. C. Marsters & Co., of Roseburg, Ore., Druggists. Trial bottles free, regular sizes 50c. and $1.00.

REDUCED EXCURSION RATES

From S. P. and C. E. Points to the Seaside and Mountain Resorts for the Summer.

On and after June 1, 1904, the Southern Pacific, in connection with the Corvallis & Eastern railroad, will have on sale round trip tickets from points on their lines to Newport, Yaquina and Detroit at very low rates, good for return until October 10, 1904.

Three-day tickets to Newport and Yaquina, good going Saturdays and returning Mondays, are also on sale from all East Side points, Portland, to Eugene inclusive, and from all West Side points enabling people to visit their families and spend Sunday at the seaside.

Season tickets from all East Side points, Portland to Eugene, inclusive, and from all West Side points, are also on sale to Detroit at very low rates, with stop-over privileges at Mill City or any point east, enabling tourists to visit the Santiam and Breitenbush hot springs in the Cascade mountains, which can be reached in one day.

Season tickets will be good for return from all points until October 10. Three-day tickets will be good going on Saturdays and returning Mondays only. Tickets from Portland and vicinity will be good for return via the East or West Side at option of passenger. Tickets from Eugene and vicinity will be good going via the Lebanon-Springfield branch if desired. Baggage on Newport tickets checked through to Newport; on Yaquina tickets to Yaquina only.

Southern Pacific trains connect with the C. & E. at Albany and Corvallis for Yaquina and Newport. Trains on the C. & E. for Detroit will leave Albany at 7 a. m., enabling tourists to the hot springs to reach there the same day.

Full information as to rates, with beautifully illustrated booklet of Yaquina bay and vicinity, timetable, etc., can be obtained on application to Edwin Stone, manager C. & E. railroad, Albany; W. E. Coman, G. P. A., Southern Pacific company, Portland; or to any S. P. or C. & E. agent.

"See the statue turning to life!"

"No name, and alive!"

"See the ornamental glassblowers!"

The air resounded with these cries last night as the busy spellers earned their salaries and rent the atmosphere into tiny silvers down in the "Midway", as somebody facetiously dubbed the streets where the Dixie Carnival Company is located.

And they were all there. The lame, the well, the old, the young, mothers with infants in arms, fathers with youngsters holding to each hand and whole families flocking hither and yon.

A more perfect night could not have been granted for the opening of the week's carnival and until a late hour the grounds were alive with spectators.

The gay colored fronts of the tents—and there are nearly twenty of all kinds—shone bravely in the light, and the noisy spellers caught and held the attention on every side. Nothing of a rough or unseemly nature was visible. The whole scene was as peaceful as the interior of the average circus tent and respectful attention was given to the spectators everywhere.

One or two shows was not open last night but everything will be doing business this evening.

The high Ferris wheel was the center of attraction to many and all evening carried spectators to its full capacity.

The big snake claimed considerable attention. He is a monster without a doubt and the best exhibition of its kind ever presented in our city.

The glass blowers were well patronized and their work is of a high order and fascinating in the extreme. In this tent samples of the work are given to visitors.

The electric palace was probably the greatest drawing card of all last night. Here the spectators saw a woman appear and then transformed into a statue, then back to life. Alma, the fire dancer, is very good and the pictures of Mt. Pelee were more than pleasing. The exhibition is unusually clever and well worth seeing.

The remaining attractions are all good enough and it can be said they are all moral, which is not always the case with carnival companies.

Dana Thompson, the world's greatest high diver, did not make his leap for life last night owing to the fact that the tank which contains the water was broken in transporting last Sunday, but will be repaired in time so as Mr. Thompson can perform his dare devil act tonight.

Berger Bros. renowned equilibrist were more than pleasing in their act last night.

The carnival will remain here until the 18th and will undoubtedly be a great drawing card. It comes under the auspices of the Macabees, and play on a percentage basis. The Macabees share of the proceeds will be devoted to furnishing its new home.

You Never Know the Moment When This Information May Prove of Infinite Value.

It is worth considerable to any citizen of Roseburg to know how to be cured of painful, annoying and itching piles. Know then that Doan's Ointment is a positive remedy for all itching of the skin, for piles, eczema, etc. One application relieves and soothes. Read this testimony of its merit:

Mrs. G. W. Kezartee, wife of G. W. Kezartee, carpenter, residing on Flint street, says: "For some little time I was annoyed with an itching of some kind on my nose. Sometimes it was badly inflamed and became raw and sore. I tried a number of treatments but nothing cured me. When I read about Doan's Ointment I got a bottle at A. C. Marsters & Co.'s drug store and the very first application gave relief. After stopping the use of the preparation I felt no more of the irritating affliction. I consider Doan's Ointment the finest remedy I ever used for any and all skin diseases."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McIlburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S. Remember the name Doan's and take no substitutes.

Will Press His Candidacy.

Written for the Review.

Since the newspapers throughout the country have a great deal to say about my candidacy for the Presidency, I have thought it proper to say something through the medium of a home paper by way of a short preliminary before issuing to the public our—the nation's—platform and message by me as the people's true Representative.

Of the many marked copies and clippings mailed to me, criticising my late announcement, reminds me of the adage, "Many men of many minds," etc.

Yes, there are critics, wise and otherwise. No doubt some of those editors in their criticism "smile a smile" as they penned off their smart sayings. However, it moved me into a hearty laugh as I read some of them. There is another fitting adage: He laughs best who laughs last."

All commendation is appreciated by me, and the contrary does not daunt me in the least. Having my eye on the goal, I shall not allow myself to be thwarted by impediments, but will walk through all difficulties.

The ability to conceive a great proposition implies also the power of thought to carry it out. Life in this world, after all, is simply a matter of brain.

I read lately in a local paper: "It is sometimes difficult to convince the world that you have brains unless you have money." Sometimes does not mean always. The portion of the world who look to money as superior to mind, are not the knowing world. According to the above quoted hypothesis, Belmont and Morgan are superior in wisdom to Solomon, Jesus, Paul, Plato, Shakespeare, Webster, Lincoln and the rest.

I admit that it takes brains to accumulate wealth, as it does to accumulate fat on a hog. But then both are born of greed, for both are prone to stand lengthwise in the trough. Again, fine mansions imposing on the hillside and on the hilltops and elsewhere are mostly conspicuous advertisements of fraud, and the costlier the building the more colossal the fraud in the manner of obtaining the money that built them or bought them.

Time and again I have had the opportunity of starting on the road to wealth, and should I have directed my mind in the channel used by some in their tactics as skinners of the public, I could have been today a multi-millionaire.

A man cannot raise a patch of potatoes, shoe a horse or build a house unless he knows how. Likewise with the gaining the Presidency, and had I the choice between "a bar" of money," as the late Tilden expressed it upon his entering the Presidential fight, and marshals of knowledge to be ethically used, I would choose the latter.

Heretofore I have been successful in my undertakings, and if some did not "ban out financially" they were model-like in useful effect to the people of my environment.

The public can look to me for Our—The Nation's—Platform and Message for and to the people, and the people's consideration. It will be an eye-opener to all nations.

Yours truly,
JAMES ISHMAN.

It is Up to the Doctor.

A lady wrote us from Winchester, Va., that she had been under a Doctor's care for 4 years for dyspepsia, the pain appeared to center under the left shoulder blade, was so severe at times that she could neither eat nor sleep. She had lost faith in her home Doctor, and asked us to send her sample of Dr. Gunn's Improved Liver Pills, which had been recommended to her. We sent her two pills, in a few days she sent for a box. Now she writes that the pain under her shoulder has left her entirely, she enjoys her meals and never sleeps less than 8 hours every night, and this has all come about in 2 weeks, and cost her 50c. for two boxes of pills. Says the doctor charged her $50.00, and that she told him he had better take the $50.00 and invest it all in Dr. Gunn's Improved Liver Pills and build up his practice. Sold by Druggists for 25c. per box. Anyone having dyspepsia, bilious spells or sick headache can get a speedy cure by the use of these pills. For sale by A. C. Marsters & Co., Druggists.

The World's Fair Route.

Those anticipating an Eastern trip, or a visit to the Louisiana Purchase Exposition at St. Louis, cannot afford to overlook the advantages offered by the MISSOURI PACIFIC RAILWAY, which, on account of its various routes and gateways, has been appropriately named "The World's Fair Route."
