City council meets tonight.

Jack Chapman was over from Wilbur this afternoon.

John Hunter came up from Wildwood, Lane county, Sunday.

Mrs. A. M. Crawford and son came up from Salem Monday.

Hon. Geo. M. Brown delivered the oration at Canyonville Monday.

Today's northbound local train was delayed about two hours by some accident in California yesterday.

Mrs. B. Casey arrived here from Dallas Monday evening to visit her mother, Mrs. M. Parrott, who is quite ill.

Special work and business of importance require the attendance of all members of Roseburg Chapter No. 8, O. E. S., at the regular meeting Thursday evening, July 7. Let all be present. By order of W. M.

B. Krakenberger and wife and four children had a narrow escape in a runaway accident on the lower part of Lane street Saturday evening. All were thrown out of the wagon and more or less bruised, but very fortunately none were seriously hurt.

W. J. Kelleher has purchased the R.
A. Reagan place on Deer Creek, four miles east of this city. Mrs. Kelleher returned to Yoncalla Monday to arrange for sending their household goods here and they will occupy their new home at once. They expect to erect a new residence on the place later on. Their many friends will be glad to have them locate among us again.

Upon the hearing of the charge against H. M. Oatman, of Myrtle Creek, this afternoon, before Justice Buchanan in this city he was held for a hearing before the circuit court with bond fixed at $250. He is charged with permitting gambling in his place of business. The defense holds that only trade checks were used, and in the same way as is done daily in every cigar store in the state.
