God's Art Gallery of the Rockies.

Edyth Tozier Weathered says in a recent number of "The Exposition":

"My first trip has recently been made over the world renowned Denver & Rio Grande Railroad. Any attempt at a pen picture would be a sacrifice. To appreciate it is to see it and be held spellbound while you gaze on the grand, glorious, beautiful and sublime. 'God's Art Gallery of the Rockies' is unsurpassed and fills one's soul with more love for the Creator, and you are also impressed with the wonderful achievements of man who made it possible for the traveller to enjoy the picturesque of America."

If you contemplate a trip east, write W. C. McElride, 124 Third street, Portland, Ore., for booklets picturing Colorado's famous scenery, and whatever information you may desire. tf
