JULY 21, 1904.

Gardiner News.

Born—Monday, July 11, 1904, to Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Abbott, a girl.

The U. S. Steamboat inspectors paid their annual visit to Gardiner this week.

David Guthrie will leave in a few days for Dallas, Ore., where he will make his future home.

The Gardiner Hospital received a lot of fixtures by the tug Hunter on Monday.

Miss Maud Cornwall returned to Gardiner Tuesday after a visit to Eugene.

L. N. Spencer formerly filer at the mill, is visiting in Michigan. He is employed at Loyalton, Cal.

The story printed in the Roseburg and others papers about finding the skull of the late Senator A. W. Hood had been found, upon investigation, to be untrue.

Ernest L. Haskell proved up on his homestead at Otter Slough Wednesday. He will leave Gardiner in August and locate in the eastern part of the state.

Last Sunday two boys built a fire with some drift wood on Reed's ranch which came near destroying the entire tyke and hay crop. About fifteen men labored all afternoon in subduing the flames.

Ana Andrews, of Scottsburg, was brought to Gardiner Thursday night suffering from a dislocated shoulder, caused by falling on a slippery board walk. He is a civil war veteran and 85 years of age.

Pursuant to a call issued by O. B. Hinshale and Rev. C. O. Beckman, a meeting was held Wednesday night in the Gardiner Mill Company's office and the organization of the Gardiner Tennis Club perfected. The membership fee was fixed at $1. The club starts out with thirty-two members in good standing and bright prospects for the future. The court is now in good condition and some exciting games may be expected soon.—Gazette.

Night Was Her Terror.

"I would cough nearly all night long," writes Mrs. Chas. Applegate, of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but, when all other medicines failed, three $1.00 bottles of King's New Discovery wholly cured me and I gained 58 pounds." It is absolutely guaranteed to cure Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Bronchitis and all Throat and Lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00 Trial bottles free at A. C. Marsters & Co's. drugstore, Roseburg, Oregon.

Oregon Development League.

The Portland Commercial Club has issued a call for a convention of the Oregon Development League, to be held at the Marquam Grand Theatre in Portland August 2nd and 3rd. All Red Hill Items.

Farmers are busy harvesting. Crops are good considering the season we have had.

C. L. Westenhiser is improving from his serious attack of Pneumonia.

Red Hill's baseball team met last Sunday afternoon and an interesting game was played.

Miss M. Westenhiser has returned from Gardiner.

Mr. J. Petree has taken his departure for Haddon.

Miss Anna Cockeram was the guest of Miss Reese one day last week.

The dance at Mr. M. Petree's on last Monday night was largely attended and a good time was had.

Rev. Combs, of Black Butte, will deliver a sermon at our school house on July 24th at 11 a. m. Rev. Prosser will on the same day and same hour give the young people of Scotts Valley a talk.

Miss Conia Jones is at present the guest of her uncle at Oakland.

Mr. Albert Cockeram made Oakland a call Saturday.

We soon will hear the thrilling whistles of the steam thresher on the Hill. (Wig.)

SUFFERED 8 MONTHS

I can heartily recommend Acker's Tablets for Dyspepsia and Stomach Troubles. I have been suffering for eight months and tried many remedies without any relief, until I got Acker's Dyspepsia Tablets, which I used only a short time and am now perfectly well. Thanking you for the speedy recovery, I am gratefully yours, Francis L. Cannon, Vancouver, Wash.

WILL PAY YOU TO LOOK AT BEAUTIES

W. A. Burr's Opening Summer Sale eclipses all Previous Sales Both in Quality and Price.

Do you know how many people as well as schools and colleges in the United States are now using the Hobart M. Cable piano? Do you know that the Lester is such a popular piano that the factory was compelled a short time ago to reduce all orders, in order to anything like keep up with the demand for them? Do you know that the Weger is gaining in favor every day in Oregon, that it is made with especial reference to Pacific coast climate, and possesses an exquisite tone as well as handsome finish? You certainly know that the Kimball organ is the organ of today. Are you familiar with the value of these instruments?

We want you to know all about them, and about the W. A. Burr method of doing business. We want you to see our new establishment and its hardware modern appointments. For these purposes we have inaugurated a

TEN DAYS' PIANO SALE.

Every piano and organ we have at practically wholesale prices. This means the Lester, the Hobart M. Cable, the Weger, Kimball organs and a number of other fine pianos at prices you cannot hope to get them for anywhere else, and probably never here again.

Come in and see us, you are certain to be pleased in both instruments and prices. Every instrument fully guaranteed by us. Extremely moderate terms of payment in monthly installments if desired. d-sw-14 W. A. BURR.

Obituary.

Mrs. J. Anna Godwin was born January 22nd, 1816, in Johnstown, N. Y., being at her death eighty-eight years and six months old.

Her ancestors in the paternal line came from England, and from the maternal, from Germany, and settled in America before the Revolutionary war. On her father's side, being Quakers, they did not participate in the war for independence, but her grandfather on her mother's side served seven years—during the entire struggle—and at the conclusion would not accept a pension and enjoined upon his children that they should not accept anything from the government. Mrs. Godwin inherited the same characteristics of sterling character from her ancestor—even ready for duty—no matter if she was in the minority.

She is survived by two sisters and one brother, and by her daughter, Mrs. W. A. Smick. Her older daughter Mrs. Gage, having two years ago preceded her mother to the land of rest. Six grandsons and one granddaughter also survive her.

In her last illness she suffered but a few days and was unconscious most of the time. The first stroke of paralysis coming on Friday and the second on Monday, her death occurring Wednesday July 20, 1904. She has passed from suffering and is at rest—gone to meet many of the loved ones she called to with her latest breath.

The funeral services were held at the family residence, conducted by Rev. Robert Christison, and interment in the Masonic cemetery. XXX.
