AUGUST 13, 1904.

Surrender to the Trusts.

From the New York World.
 For 20 years the republican party in California has belonged to the Southern Pacific railroad. In the early part of that period it was sometimes possible for an independent republican to get an office in the remoter parts of the state, but there is one region in which the party organization has been consistently run as a part of the railroad's operating department. This is the third congressional district, containing the great terminals and shops at Oakland and the vast grain warehouses at Port Costa. Any republican officeholder in this district is as much a Southern Pacific agent as a conductor on the road.

Mr. Victor H. Metcalf, of Oakland, has represented this Southern Pacific headquarters in congress for three terms. In the recent cabinet shift at Washington he was placed in charge of the department of commerce and labor, vice Mr. Cortelyou, promoted to the position of party fat-frier-in-chief.

The creation of the department of commerce and labor was our first serious attempt at the sympathetic national regulation of corporations. The law establishing the department provided for a bureau of corporations, with power to make—under the direction and control of the secretary of commerce and labor—"thorough investigation into the organization, conduct and management of the business of any corporation, joint-stock company or corporate combination engaged in commerce among the several states and with foreign nations, excepting common carriers subject to the interstate commerce act, and to gather such information and data as will enable the president of the United States to make recommendations to congress for the regulation of such commerce."

To enable him to perform these duties the commissioner of corporations is to "have and exercise the same power and authority in respect to corporations, joint-stock companies and combinations subject to the provisions herein as is conferred on the interstate commerce commission in respect to common carriers, so far as applicable."

In the first year's work of the bureau of corporations it investigated, among other things—
 The general subject of interstate commerce and the powers of the federal government in relation thereto.
 The decisions of the federal courts relating to corporations engaged in interstate commerce which are subject to the jurisdiction of the bureau.
 The jurisdiction and powers of the interstate commerce commissions.
 The decisions of the federal courts in relation to trade conspiracies, monopolies and combinations in restraint of trade.
 The corporation laws of the various states and territories.
 The method of taxing corporations in each state and decisions relating to the taxation of interstate commerce.

 The effect of industrial combinations upon the prices of the commodities sold by such combinations, the effect of tariff duties upon the prices of commodities subject to such duties, and the reasons for the difference, if any exists, between the domestic and foreign prices of commodities manufactured by the protected industrial combinations of the country.

This is the work that President Roosevelt has intrusted to a representative of a notorious corporation whose very existence is as flagrant a defiance of law as the organization of the Northern Securities company.

Is Mr. Metcalf qualified to execute in its spirit a law imposing such obligations? Is not his selection for such a responsibility as gross an impropriety as the transfer of Mr. Cortelyou from the work of investigating corporations to that of extracting their fat, or that of Mr. Knox from the task of prosecuting lawbreaking combinations to that of representing the Pennsylvania railroad in the senate? Is it not, like the appointment of Vice-President Morton of the Santa Fe to the cabinet six weeks after his initiation into the Republican party, a proof that Mr. Roosevelt has definitely surrendered to the trusts?

A Perfect Painless Pill

is the one that will cleanse the system, set the liver to action, remove the bile, clear the complexion, cure headache and leave a good taste in the mouth. The famous little pills for doing such work pleasantly and effectually are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. Bob Moore of Lafayette, Ind. says: "All other pills I have used give and sicken, while DeWitt's Little Early Risers are simply perfect." Sold by Fallerton & Richardson, Roseburg; Oakland Drug Co., Oakland.

EVER HAVE IT?

If You Have, the Statement of This Roseburg Man Will Interest You.

Ever have a "low-down" pain in the back?

In the "small" right over the hips? That's the home of backache.

It's caused by sick kidneys.

That's why Doan's Kidney Pills cure it.

Roseburg people endorse this. Read a case of it:

John Batey, janitor at the public school, residing on Flint street, says: "I have been troubled with my kidneys off and on for years. I had severe pains in my back and sides, sometimes a dull aching and at other times sharp pains. After remaining in a stooped position for a short time it was hard for me to straighten. During the last attack I had, Doan's Kidney Pills were recommended to me and I got a box at A. C. Marsters & Co's drug store and after taking them a couple of weeks the pains all disappeared. I am now perfectly well and hearty. No signs of the old trouble and I give Doan's Kidney Pills all the credit."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.
