Dr. J. A. Townsend and P. Benedick were among those who went to Portland last night to attend the annual meeting of the Presbyterian Synod.

Swante Peterson, who has been spending the summer here, left Wednesday evening for Tucson, Arizona, where he will remain during the winter.

Rev. D. T. Summerville, of Grants Pass, passed through here this morning enroute to Albany to assume his duties as pastor of the M. E. church at that place.

L. J. Dannaway, who lives on the west side of the river just above town, has some excellent brooms on the local market, of home grown material and manufacture.

H. W. Davis was in town from Brookway today. His son, H. B. Davis, who was operated upon for appendicitis several weeks ago, is now slowly regaining his strength.

Mrs. Ray Wright and little son arrived this morning from Grants Pass, to join Mr. Wright, the S. P. engineer who now has charge of the switch engine in the yards here.

A party composed of Alva Bellows, Rev. Geo. H. Bennett, Dr. J. P. Johnson and L. D. Carle left by private conveyance this morning for the mountains near Reston to enjoy a day's hunt.

Lafe Reeves, who arrived here a few days ago from Centralla, Wash., has re-established himself in the barber business in this city, having purchased a one-half interest in T. D. Weatherford's parlors, on Jackson street.

Rev. T. P. Haynes and family arrived here Wednesday evening. Rev. Haynes will have charge of the work of the M. E. church, South, at Myrtle Point during the coming year. His family will remain in Roseburg during the winter.

Governor Chamberlain has appointed Fred J. Blakely, of this city, a delegate to the National Irrigation Congress at El Paso, Tex., November 27 to 29, and to the Trans-Mississippi Commercial Congress, to be held in St. Louis Oct. 15-18.

If you are troubled with impure blood, indicated by sores, pimples, headache, etc., we should recommend Acker's Blood Elixir, which we sell under a positive guarantee. It will always cure Scrofula or Syphilitic poisons and all blood diseases. 50 cts. and $1.00.

Bennie Lohr, of this city, and Arthur ("Artie") McKensie, son of a former hardware merchant, of Roseburg, have jointly engaged in business in Portland. They have purchased and are now conducting the Western Employment Bureau, located at 225 Third street. The many friends of both young gentlemen wish them success in their venture.

Gov. Geo. E. Chamberlain arrived here from Salem this morning and spent the day at the Soldiers' Home. This evening he will attend a special meeting of the city council and endeavor to secure an adjustment of the claim of the Roseburg Water & Light Co. for services rendered the city before the company sold out to the present owners. Gov. Chamberlain is very hopeful for democratic success in the national election in November. He has been invited to participate in the campaign in California, and perhaps will make a few speeches in that state between Oct. 25 and Nov. 3.

W. B. Hammitte, the undertaker, is now a regular licensed embalmer, having just received a certificate to that effect from the Oregon State Board of Health, before whom he took the examination last month pursuant to the new state law. A state license is required where undertakers place in transit the corpses of persons who have died of contagious diseases.

The James Cox place on Deer Creek, eight miles east of Roseburg, and comprising about 510 acres, has been sold to F. H. Redescker, a Portland capitalist, for $7,000. The grantors are Burb Brockway, Geo. W. Cox, F. W. Dillard and wife and Mrs. Dillard's sister, Mrs. F. W. Barker, who resides in California. The place has been rented for a year to John W. Hedgepeth, who now occupies it.

Atty. Robt. G. Smith has begun the publication of a semi-weekly democratic newspaper, called the Herald, at Grants Pass. J. D. Quillen is the manager of the new publication, which is full of news and live editorial matter. All the other papers being republican, Grants Pass and Josephine county will doubtless be much benefited by having a live exponent of the other side of public and political matters.

Eugene Guard: Gross Brothers, who have conducted a foundry for the past several years on East Eighth street, near Ferry, will at once commence the erection of a huge new building on lots recently purchased by them just west of the present site of their foundry and will increase the capacity of their plant to more than double what it is now. The lot on which the new building will be erected is about 300 feet square. Nearly the whole space will be covered by the foundry buildings. Besides the main building, which will be 40x30 feet in dimensions, there will be the usual smaller accessory structures.

The "Umpqua" Cold Cure prepared at our pharmacy, if taken in time and according to directions, seldom, if ever fails to cure the worst colds. It is highly recommended by all who have used it. A 25c box of this remedy in your home will save sickness and expense. Hamilton Drug Co.

Major L. D. Kinney is again in Roseburg to remain for a few days on business. He and Mrs. Kinney are now located on Coos bay. He says the time has now arrived for Roseburg to act quickly in the matter of securing a direct railroad communication with Coos bay, or they will be forestalled by the parties working on the electric road from Eugene, via Florence and down the coast, which would probably delay for ten years the building of a road from here.
