Awful State of Anarchy.

Special to Evening Review.

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 21.—A frightful state of anarchy prevails throughout the Caucasus. Reports from different points in that region say that the strikers are resorting to extreme violence and that massacres have occurred at several places. Railway tracks and trains have been destroyed, oil wells have been set on fire and river navigation interfered with until it has been suspended. The authorities are powerless to cope with the situation, and the peaceable element of the populace is in a state of terror.

A belated dispatch from Baku says 35 persons were killed there Sunday in a street fight between Armenian rioters and Mussulmen troops. The fighting was resumed Monday, and the rioters were subdued.

CZAREVITCH IS ILL.

The Czarevith is seriously ill at Tsarskoe-Selo palace. Several physicians are in attendance.

That Tickling in the Throat.

One minute after taking One Minute Cough Cure that tickling in the throat is gone. It acts in the throat—not the stomach. Harmless—good for children. A. L. Spofford, postmaster at Chester, Mich., says: "Our little girl was unconscious from strangulation during a sudden and terrible attack of croup. Three doses of One Minute Cough Cure half an hour apart speedily cured her. I cannot praise One Minute Cough Cure too much for what it has done for our family." It always gives relief. Sold by Fullerton & Richardson.

Elkton News.

The weather has moderated.

Elkton now has a physician. Dr. Gray, of Tennessee, has located here.

Mrs. Robt. Hedden went to Drain Saturday with her sick infant child to consult Dr. Wade.

Ross Hedden is visiting with his nephew, Robt. Hedden, at this place.

The sale of the telephone line between Drain and Weatherly's ranch did not take place, as we had hoped and expected it would. The people of this section built the line and have kept it up, and if allowed to own it at reasonable figures will continue to do so. There is no money in it for private parties, but it is a great convenience to us and might be made self-sustaining.

Senator Coshow should certainly be commended for his courageous and proper attitude on the Legislative resolution of confidence in Senator Mitchell. I am certainly willing to give Mr. Mitchell the benefit of a doubt until proven guilty (and hope he will be able to extricate himself from any false aspersions) but if he is guilty, let him suffer the same as the lowest. That there have been frauds, and glaring ones, cannot be denied, and the legislature was presumptious in passing judgment on a matter entirely out of and above their jurisdiction.

How is it that the REVIEW is so irregular in coming to Elkton? The papers that should have reached here Saturday were delayed until Wednesday, Feb. 15th, when they came to hand tied with a string with no wrappers. Mine came two days later tied the same way. All were marked "missent". This is the first time they came without wrappers, but they have been delayed quite often, with no apparent cause, as the trains were on time and other mail came all right.
