Before Judge Hamilton, in this city, Wednesday afternoon, Attorney Chas. Bruneau, of Portland, representing the Oregon Anti-Saloon League, argued an application for dissolution of the injunction issued by Judge Hamilton, restraining the County Court of Coos County from issuing an order of prohibition. Judge Hamilton has taken the application under advisement. The injunction is only a temporary one, Judge Hamilton having issued it during a vacation term of the circuit court at Corvallis last January. The case was to have been tried on its merits at the regular term of the Coos County Circuit Court, which convenes at Coquille on the last Monday of this month. Judge Hamilton issued the injunction on the ground that the election in Coos County was irregular as regards the manner in which the local option question was placed before the voters. The apparent object of the Anti-Saloon people is to obtain a definite decision on the case as early as possible so, if necessary, they can put the local option question before the Coos County voters again next June.

FAMILY WASHING

PER LB. 5c PER LB.

A Long Story Briefly Told

It is true that for 5 cents per pound the Roseburg Steam Laundry will wash, starch and deliver ready for ironing, all family washing. The term family washing embraces such articles as underwear, handkerchiefs, hose, sheets, pillow cases, napkins, towels, etc., while all flat pieces are ironed without extra charge. This means more hours of leisure for the overworked housewife. Talk it over with "Hubby."
