TOGO WILL STRIKE

Ordered to Attack Russians in French Waters.

KAMRANH BAY THE SCENE

Rojestvensky Wrongly Allowed to Stay There to Await Nebogatoff's Fleet.

TOKIO, April 20.—That Admiral Togo, with the whole Japanese fleet, is to sail at once for Kamranh Bay, where Admiral Rojestvensky's fleet is still at anchor, and engage the enemy in a decisive battle is the positive statement made here. After a five hours' momentous conference of leading Japanese statesmen, the Premier and members of the Cabinet, the decision that the Japanese Admiral should take the initiative and force the fighting was arrived at. The likelihood of the Russian squadron remaining in the shelter of a friendly French Cochin China port until joined by Vice-Admiral Nebogatoff's division of the Russian fleet was considered to add a new and grave danger to the situation, to avert which immediate action was deemed necessary.

The order was forwarded to Togo to gather his fleet together and sail for Kamranh Bay and force the fighting, on the supposition that the Japanese main fleet is at Pescadora Islands, and that Rojestvensky is in Kamranh Bay, which is 800 miles distant across the China Sea. The Japanese Admiral should reach the scene of action in less than three days, and Sunday should see the battle.

The attitude of the French Government in giving shelter to Rojestvensky was declared a matter for serious after-consideration. A dispatch states that Nebogatoff's squadron has reached Suda Straits on its way to join Rojestvensky in the China Sea.
