Dr. E. J. Page came over from Oakland Thursday evening and returned today. He was visiting here with his daughter, Mrs. A. N. Orcutt, and family. He is now in better health than he was some months ago. He tells us the referendum petitions have been largely signed in that vicinity. The doctor is a firm advocate of good schools but thinks one good Normal school is sufficient for this state. The referendum movement against the big appropriation bill is a protest against the rapid increase of taxation, and legislative extravagance.

Remember, Sloper, the cleaner and presser, will fix that old suit of yours up in fine style. He makes a specialty of doing his work right. Phone 253 when your suit looks shabby—and he'll do the rest. Next door to H. Marks.
