Drain Normal Notes.

Geo. Neuner, who for the past summer was in the employ of the government in the U. S. and Canadian boundary survey, has again entered school. George has a host of friends here, and is a staunch friend and influential supporter of this school.

Miss Cora Green having completed a most successful term of school at Hayhurst, is again a student of the Normal.

At a recent meeting of the Zam Zamian literary society the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: President, Harry Moon; Vice President, Frank Hill; Sec'y, Grace Frinnell; Treasurer, Mada Drain; Sergeant-at-arms, Ed. Finerty; Critic, Prof. Briggs. The society is well attended by the students, most of whom take active part, thus making it a potent factor in their education. The question for debate next Friday evening is, "Resolved that the municipal ownership of public utilities would be beneficial to the cities."

A very interesting feature of the morning exercises in chapel is the discussion of current events by the students. Prof. Brown, who has charge of this work, assigns to students from time to time various topics of current interest, which after careful preparation they discuss before the school. Another unique feature is an editor who presents to the students each morning a synopsis of the daily news. This exercise is followed by "quizzing" by a member of the faculty. Students take great interest in this work and many of them are developing power in the discussion of these questions.

The Drain second football team, which defeated the Roseburg Public School team at the latter place, after an exciting and hard fought battle, with a score of 5 to 0, will play a return game on the home field Thanksgiving.

Rev. Van Fossen, pastor of the M. E. church of this place, gave an interesting talk to the students at Chapel Monday morning. He commended very highly the work they were doing on current history, and emphasized its importance.

When the excursion train of Portland business men arrived in Drain they found not only the citizens of the town, but the several hundred students of the Normal and training department lined up to greet them. The students saluted with their school yells. Prof. Briggs was the spokesman of the occasion, welcoming them in a neat, cordial speech. This was responded to by a number of the business men, who spoke particularly of the Normal schools. Having visited the Ashland Normal they acknowledge that they had formed a better estimate of Normal schools. They particularly complimented the appearance of the students and seem to be surprised at their number.

The school continues to grow rapidly, and new students are entering almost daily, the enrollment is now larger than at any other time of its history as a state institution.

John and Flemming Henderer, of Leona, have recently entered school.

Gus Cowan, who has been in the employ of the Gardiner Mill Company, came up last week and entered school Monday.

G. B. Burhans Testifies After Four Years.

G. B. Burhans, of Carlisle Center, N. Y., writes: "About four years ago I wrote you stating that I had been entirely cured of a severe kidney trouble by taking less than two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure. It entirely stopped the brick dust sediment, and pain and symptoms of kidney disease disappeared. I am glad to say that I have never had a return of any of those symptoms during the four years that have elapsed and I am evidently cured to stay cured, and heartily recommend Foley's Kidney Cure to any one suffering from kidney or bladder trouble." Steiner & Chapman.

Hitchcock Hears From Mitchell.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Much to his surprise, Secretary Hitchcock received a letter from Senator Mitchell, asking that a certain land case pending before the department be taken up out of order and acted upon. As the case is before the Land Office, Mitchell's letter was referred to Commissioner Richards without comment. Nothing is known about the merits of the case. It involves a single entry in Oregon.

MONEY FOR CLAIMS

Booth-Kelly Co. to Receive $900,000 for Land.

IN KLAMATH RESERVATION

Beaten in Court, Govt. Prefers Paying Appraised Value to Ousting the Indians.

SALEM, Or., Nov. 20.—The Oregon Central Military Road Company, whose large holdings of land were acquired by the Booth-Kelly Lumber Co., will receive $900,000 in cash from the United States Government for lands belonging to the road company in the Klamath Indian Reservation, providing the appraisal of a Government agent and a representative of the Booth-Kelly Company, the assignees of the road company, is approved by the Interior Department and Congress makes the necessary appropriation.

This claim is the result of a suit brought against the Government by the road company for the recovery of every other section of land within ten miles on each side of the road running through the Indian reservation. This suit was adjudicated in the Supreme Court of the United States more than a year ago. The Klamath reservation was set apart by a treaty made with the Indians in 1860. The grant to the land company was made at a subsequent date, but the road company contended in its suit that it was entitled to the land for the reason that the President's proclamation setting aside the land in the Klamath reservation was not issued until 1870, subsequent to the passage of the law by Congress making the land grant to the road company.

GOVERNMENT LOSES.

The Government contended that the reservation was established at the time of the signing of the treaty. The case was decided in favor of the road company, on the ground that the Government in a previous suit to vacate the road company's claim to the land did not set up this treaty as a bar to the road company obtaining title to the land, and for that reason it was presumed to have been waived on the part of the Government.

Most of the land question has been allotted to the Indians on the reservation, and is very valuable farm land. The road company having won the suit, it devolves upon the Government to deliver possession of the land to the company or pay what it is worth. It was for the purpose of determining the value of the land that the Government agent and the representative of the Booth-Kelly Company recently appraised it at $900,000.

OREGON HAS CLAIM.

The state claims 90,000 acres of swamp land in the reservation, which was granted to the state at the time of the passage of the enabling act, many years before the creation of the reservation, but the Interior Department turned down the state's claim, which antedates the claims of both the Indians and the road company. It is said serious trouble would ensue if the Government should attempt to dispossess the Indians of the land now claimed by the road company.

PROGRESS OF CANVASS.

Hearst's Attorney Asserts That Tammany Leaders Used Money.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Information will be laid before Attorney-General Mayer that a Tammany leader drew $50,000 in one dollar bills from a bank the day before election, says the Herald. Clarence J. Shearn, counsel for William R. Hearst, said last night he would make known to Mr. Mayer the name of this leader, the bank from which the money was withdrawn, and other details.

Mr. Shearn said that he will give the Attorney-General specific information of the withdrawal from banks of large sums of money the day before election, in the case of other Tammany leaders.

Alderman Gaffney, Abraham Levy, Henry W. Unger, Charles P. Dillon and George W. Simpson will be examined by the grand jury tomorrow in the matter of the disappearance of John Krup, who was under $5000 bail on a charge of illegal voting. Probably application will be made before Judge Dickey, in Brooklyn, today to open a ballot box from the annexed district of the Bronx where fraud is charged.

Regardless of the decision in that case, Mr. Shearn will apply tomorrow to have a ballot-box from a district either in New York or Brooklyn opened on the ground that fraud has been perpetrated.

Pirating Foley's Honey and Tar.

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. These worthless imitations have similar sounding names. Beware of them. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar is in a yellow package. Ask for it and refuse any substitute. It is the best remedy for coughs and Colds. Steiner & Chapman.

WOLVERTON NAMED

Oregon Supreme Judge Succeeds Late C. B. Bellinger.

IN UNITED STATES COURT

T. G. Halley, of Pandleton, Probable Successor to Supreme Court Says Governor Chamberlain.

Special to Evening Review.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—The president today named Charles E. Wolverton, now one of three supreme judges of the State of Oregon, to be judge of the United States court for the district of Oregon, at Portland. This is the position held by the late C. B. Bellinger and declined by W. W. Cotton, the attorney for the O. R. & N. Co.

THE GOVERNOR'S COMMENT.

SALEM, Or., Nov. 21.—When informed today of the appointment of Chas. E. Wolverton to succeed the late C. B. Bellinger on the federal bench, Governor Chamberlain said:

"Wolverton is an able judge and a thoroughly upright and honorable man. I do not think any political party or faction can criticize the appointment from a standpoint of capability or integrity."

Regarding Wolverton's successor on the supreme bench, Governor Chamberlain stated that he would not definitely decide upon the matter until Wolverton's place was vacant.

"T. G. Halley and W. M. Ramsey, of La Grande, have been recommended for the place," said the Governor, "and I think probably that Mr. Halley will be appointed."

No Case of Pneumonia on Record.

We do not know of a single instance where a cough or cold resulted in pneumonia or consumption when Foley's Honey and Tar had been taken. It cures coughs and colds perfectly, so do not take chances with some unknown preparation which may contain opiates, which cause constipation, a condition that retards recovery from a cold. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered. Steiner & Chapman.

Grand Thanksgiving Ball.

Roseburg Lodge No. 542, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, will give their third annual ball in Elks' Temple, in this city, Thanksgiving evening, Nov. 20. ### WANTS $10,000 DAMAGES.

J. L. Rider Alleges Unpleasant Treatment at Gardiner.

Alleging that the defendants forced him to leave the community of Gardiner under threats of death, after extorting $200 in cash from him, J. L. Rider, employed at Kelly & Banks' livery stables, in this city, has filed a suit for damages in the sum of $10,000, in the circuit court here, against J. L. Koontz, T. W. Angus, Louis Seymour, Frank Barnes, Wm. Storm and Wm. Bernhart. The act is alleged to have occurred on or about March 6, 1904, at which time Rider was employed as night watchman at the Gardiner Mill Co.'s plant, at Gardiner, at a salary of $55 per month.

About 10:30 p. m. of the day in question, the defendants, according to Rider's complaint, assaulted him while he was on duty at the mill and forced him by threats of hanging to accompany them to Storm's house, where he was kept a prisoner until he yielded to the demand of his captors by paying them $200 for his release. Rider alleges further that the defendants, when they released him, ordered him to leave the community within 24 hours or that they would hang or drown him, and that he complied with the order. By reason of this, Rider says he permanently lost his position at the mill and that he has suffered anguish and humiliation, for which he wants $10,000 in cash. J. E. Sawyers and J. A. Buchanan are Rider's attorneys.

Inquiry concerning the case elicited the information that the treatment accorded Rider was the result of stories circulated in the community of Gardiner regarding alleged cruelty of Rider toward his wife, who subsequently obtained a divorce from him.

Sloppy Liver a Fox to Ambition.

You can not accomplish very much if your liver is inactive as you feel dull, your eyes are heavy and slight exertion exhausts you. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup stimulates the liver and the bowels and makes you feel bright and active. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and very pleasant to take.
