NO. 98.

JUDGE HANNA'S DECISION.

Nullifies Local Option Election as to the County.

In regard to the decision of Judge Hanna at Medford, Friday, on the contest brought by the liquor interests against the local option law, a dispatch from Medford to the Portland Telegram says:

Judge H. K. Hanna this morning sustained the former order enjoining the County Court of Jackson county from declaring the city of Medford dry under the state law as a result of the county having cast a majority in favor of prohibition at the recent election. In his decision the court practically decided that the late election was nullified, as far as this county is concerned, and that the county court will be sustained in authorizing the licensing of saloons in all precincts which voted in favor of saloons two years ago, regardless of the last election.

In effect, the Medford charter is held good as opposed to the state law. The demurrer filed in the case by Mr. Colvig, counsel for the prohibitionists, will be argued before the court tomorrow, and if not sustained, an appeal will at once be taken to the supreme court, where the matter, being such as affects public welfare, it is hoped an immediate hearing can be had.

It is evident that a long legal contest will ensue. The prohibitionists being now before the court in the contest, any effort will be lost to affect their ends. It is evident today that it will be impossible to enact an ordinance by the present city council to close the saloons under the city charter. The recent license issued with the understanding that they would be revoked in case the county was declared dry, will not run until the action of the supreme court in the matter.

The county court adjourned until June 30, but there will be action when it reconvenes.

The action was brought under a provision of Medford's charter, which reads as follows:

"The city council shall have power and authority within the city limits of Medford, to license, tax, regulate or prohibit barrooms, drinking saloons, billiard rooms, bowling alleys, dance halls, and all places where spirituous, malt or vinous liquors are sold or kept for sale, irrespective of any general law of the state on this subject enacted by the legislature or by the people at large."

The injunction virtually nullifies county prohibition, but leaves in effect prohibition in effect. Gold Hill and Jacksonville will therefore be wet as well as Medford; and Ashland, Central Point, Woodville, Eagle Point, Phoenix, Talent and other dry precincts will remain dry.

Medford went wet in the election, but the heavy prohibition vote in Ashland and Central Point sent the county dry.

Cured of Bright's Disease.

Geo. A. Sherman, Lisbon Red Mills, Lawrence Co., N. Y., writes: "I had kidney disease for many years and had been treated by physicians for twelve years; had taken a well known kidney medicine and other remedies that were recommended but got no relief until I began using Foley's Kidney Cure. The first half bottle relieved me and four bottles have cured me of this terrible disease. Before I began taking Foley's Kidney Cure I had to make water about every fifteen minutes, day and night, and passed a brick-dust substance, and sometimes a slimy substance. I believe I would have died if I had not taken Foley's Kidney Cure." Red Cross Pharmacy.

GIVEN AN OVATION

Great Throng Greets Taft and Sherman in Cincinnati

PARADE HEADED BY BANDS

Hitchcock Declines Job as Manager of Campaign—Sketch of Taft's Running Mate

Special to the Evening Review.

CINCINNATI, O., June 20.—William H. Taft and James S. Sherman, the Republican nominees for president of the U. S. and vice-president, accompanied by representatives of the national committee, arrived in this city today and were given a tremendous ovation. The party was met at the depot by an immense throng of people and brass bands. After several minutes of informal greetings, a parade to Taft's home took place.

The purpose of the visit of Taft and Sherman to this city is to select a campaign manager. This position was tendered to Frank H. Hitchcock, who declined. Myron T. Herrick and Arthur I. Vorys are now mentioned for the place.

Sketch of James S. Sherman. James Schmitt, for vice-president, was born in Utica, N. Y., October 24, 1855, and save for short intervals occupied by travel, has spent his entire life there. He received both an academic and college education and shortly after his graduation from Hamilton college in 1878 was admitted to the bar.

He entered politics in 1880 and four years later was elected mayor of Utica on the Republican ticket, receiving a handsome majority in a city always considered Democratic. At Saratoga in 1895 he was selected to preside over the deliberations of the Republican convention, and was later chosen orator on many notable occasions.

He was elected to the fifteenth, sixteenth and fifteenth congresses as a Republican, and re-elected to the forty-fourth, receiving 225,100 votes against 16,269 votes for John D. Henderson, a Democrat.

Congressman Sherman was for some time chairman of the Republican campaign committee and made a record for himself through the manner in which he got subscriptions. On the floor of congress he made a stirring speech against building of the Panama canal, and declared that America should not accept it as a gift. Despite his attitude in this matter he has for years been one of the staunchest friends of President Roosevelt, and on a number of occasions has conferred with him regarding the present campaign.

While gathering campaign contributions he introduced a 2-cent railroad bill in congress. He was Speaker Reed's most intimate friend in congress during the latter years of his life, and presided in the house more than any other man.

He introduced the anti-trust scalping bill and many other measures. His party has often offered him excellent positions in the employ of the government.

ALL MAY HEAR BRYAN

Edison Phonograph Records of Talks by the Great Commoner.

Every American citizen has heard of the wonderful oratory of Hon. W. J. Bryan, twice candidate for the presidency of the United States. Millions have heard him speak but a vast multitude have never had that opportunity, although the desire to hear him again and again continues to increase. To supply this demand the Edison Phonograph Co. recently arranged with Mr. Bryan to make records of a number of the striking portions of his most famous orations. One of their recording experts was sent to Lincoln, Nebraska, and in the library of Mr. Bryan's own home these records were made. They are among the plainest and most natural records ever turned out and no one who has ever heard Mr. Bryan speak will fail to recognize all the wonderful charm of voice and manner for which he is famous. These records may soon be had at all Edison depositories and will be on sale at Burr's Music House in Roseburg, about July 1st. Call and hear them.

Will Cure Consumption. A. A. Herzen, Finca, Ark., writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar is the best preparation for coughs, colds and lung trouble. I know that it has cured consumption in the first stages." You never heard of any one using Foley's Honey and Tar and not being satisfied.

GEO. TAYLOR UNDER BONDS

Former Roseburg Timber Cruiser Faces Term in Prison.

Information from Crescent City, Cal., reached the local U. S. land office today to the effect that George W. Taylor, well known here as a land locator, had been held there under bail of $1000 on a felony charge of obtaining money under false pretense in fraudulently locating land seekers on Del Norte county timber lands. His examination took place before a justice of the peace in Crescent City on the 14th. It is said the authorities there have evidence that Taylor fraudulently located twelve persons and that they "now have him where he cannot do any more defrauding for some time." Taylor is reported to have done considerable crooked work in Curry county, and there has also been complaint of his work in Douglas county.

A year ago this June, Taylor attempted to victimize a local grocer and would have succeeded probably had not the grocer been an expert in detecting such a trick. Taylor agreed to locate the grocer and his wife on two tracts of land in section 22, 28-40th Lees Creek near Myrtle Creek, but instead located them on claims in sections 2 and 3, of the head of North Deer Creek, in the adjoining township deceiving them by altering the section markings on a tree. The claims which Taylor showed the locating parties contain about 30,000,000 feet of timber each and were not vacant, whereas the claims they were represented to be are not worth taxes.

Returning to Roseburg, the grocer and his wife made the necessary filings at the U. S. land office and Taylor was tendered a check for $500 as his fee. After the grocer signed a blue print of his claim and immediately of water, Taylor ran in a westerly direction from Lees Creek extended in a southerly direction. He became suspicious immediately and lost no time in making an investigation, which resulted in an exposure of the fraud. Pursuing only for him Taylor was still in Roseburg. He demanded the return of his money under threat of prosecution and Taylor lost no time in complying.

Shortly after this incident Taylor left Roseburg, going to Curry county and later crossing the state line into northern California. He left behind in Roseburg the memory of a grocer that the westerly timber land locator, and his arrest in California would be the surprise.

Letter M. Nelson, of Naples, Mo., says in a recent letter: "I have used Dr. King's New Discovery many years for coughs and colds, and I think it saved my life. For nearly forty years New Discovery has stood at the head of throat and lung remedies as a preventative of pneumonia, and healer of weak lungs. It has no equal. Sold under guarantee at A. C. WOULD WASTE NO TIME.

Elect Chamberlain and Then Begin Work, Says Abraham.

PORTLAND, Or., June 19.—Senator-elect Albert Abraham of Douglas county, is in the city from his home at Roseburg attending to personal business and looking over the political situation. The senator was elected on a Statement No. 1 platform, defeating Commodore S. Jackson, a member of the house of representatives at the 1897 session, and who was running for election to the senate on a Republican choice platform.

Senator Abraham considers that the Statement No. 1 question was settled by the recent election and that there will be no attempt made to digest the will of the people. He also believes that the legislature should be organized with the view of transacting the business of the state to the best advantage, that the question of a Statement No. 1 organization should not enter into the problem of selecting a president of the senate or a speaker of the house.

"I have heard of no effort to digest the will of the people and do not believe that any will be made," said Senator Abraham this morning. "I have heard nothing of any plan to organize the legislature on strictly Statement No. 1 lines, except what rumor has been spread in some of the papers. I believe that Statement No. 1 should enter into the business of the legislature to the extent that the people who are pledged to the observance of the popular will should elect their voters for Governor, chamberlain when the time comes for the general election. After that the whole business and intent of the members of the legislature should be to serve the people and the state irrespective of party or faction."

SHOOT HIMSELF WITH RIFLE

Serious Mishap, Overtakes Little Boy, While Killing Birds.

CORVALLIS, Or., June 19.—Two little boys, one little fine, several other cherry birds in a tree, and a physician called to save a difference in the brief story of a shooting affair in northern Benton. The boys were Willie and Denny Denny, residing with their widowed mother near Mountain View, five miles north of Corvallis. While the boys were shooting birds out of the cherry trees on Wednesday evening the weapon was accidentally discharged, the bullet entering the jaw bone, knocking out several teeth, piercing the root of the tongue and burning the boy's eyes as it made its exit through his open mouth.

A Corvallis physician reached the scene in time to stop the profuse hemorrhage that resulted, and it is thought the patient will recover.

The boy's father committed suicide about a year ago by hanging himself in his barn.

STREET PAVING PROGRESS.

A rainy day, even in the dry season, emphasizes our city's need for the street paving for which the city council made the formal order at their meeting Thursday night. That action of the council is hailed with general approval and the work of paving should be advanced as rapidly as possible. Medford has already let the contract for about $45,000 worth of bituminous pavement and Grants Pass has completed all the preliminary formalities and is now ready to receive bids for an extensive lot of paving in that city. Eugene is adding a mile or two to their area of paved streets this season and the prompt and concerted action of Roseburg's citizens is needed in order to keep our city in the forefront of progress among Oregon's wide-awake and growing municipalities.

Many active, progressive people are now coming into our city, and well-paved streets and good roads will prove an important factor toward their making investments and becoming permanent residents here. Oregon has grown rapidly in the past few years. Its real growth and progress is just getting fairly started. People both at home and abroad are just beginning to realize the great possibilities and advantages which here await the touch of enterprise and development.

CONTESTS ARE LIKELY.

Homestead and Timber Entries in Lees Creek Mining District.

Myrtle Creek Mail: Through a desire to gain possession of valuable timber land, much of which will be good for grazing and agricultural purposes when cleared of the brush and timber, some fifteen different parties have located claims in the vicinity of the old North Myrtle mining region during the past year. A number of these claims are on unmined land, while others are on land held as mineral when the gold fever once surged through the veins of the ever credulous goldseeker. At one time the Consolidated Gold Mining company, with headquarters at Salem, claimed more than 2000 acres in that district as mineral land, but most of it has been taken up lately either as homesteads or timber claims. There will likely be a number of contests when these claimants apply for their patents, on the ground that the land is more valuable for mineral than for the timber or for agricultural purposes; but with the exception of one or two pieces of fairly good mineral land on Lees Creek, it is not likely that any such contests will be successful. These parties will likely have no serious difficulty in patenting their land, with one or two exceptions, and when this is done there will probably be a railroad built from here to tap that belt of timber much of which is as good as is found anywhere in Southern Oregon.
