Review readers doubtless observed the fact that this paper gave them the only complete report of the late republican national convention published in Douglas county, including nominating speeches, etc. Equally good service will be given on the occasion of the Democratic national convention which will open at Denver, Colo., on July 7th. The Review is a newspaper for everybody at all times, giving all the news of importance from both home and abroad in a reliable manner and free from fakes or sensationalism. Being a reliable paper our lists are increasing all the time.

The Medford "wets" are jubilant over the ruling of Judge Hanna, sustaining the injunction against the county court declaring the entire county of Jackson "dry." In accordance with the recent vote there under the local option law. It seems to be the consensus of opinion among attorneys elsewhere, however, that Judge Hanna's decision will be reversed by the supreme court upon the appeal thereto which will be immediately taken. No city can enact or sustain a charter containing provisions in opposition to, or violation of, a state law.

What makes our business grow?

It's because we treat the people right.

Some merchants in their attempt to lead in prices often buy inferior goods but that is something that this company does not do.

Our courteous treatment, the superior quality of our goods and the right prices is what is building up our business every day.

If you are not a regular customer place a trial order and be convinced.

Yours for a square deal,

Portland Oregonian: Walter A. Stanton, the manager of the side show in a circus, is being sued in the circuit court by his wife, Leona Stanton, who wants a divorce. She says that he has frequently struck her violently, choked and abused her. She does not state the amount of alimony she desires, but says her husband has $10,000 in cash, besides horses, mining stock and jewelry worth $25,000. His salary, she says, is $2000 a month. She desires to resume her maiden name, Leona Perkins. They were married at Vancouver, Wash., Dec. 19, 1907.

With School Superintendent Lamelin's announcement today of the pupils of the eighth grade final examinations held in the county this month, the names of the successful pupils in other districts having been published last Thursday. Of the seven pupils of the Kellogg school who took the examination the following six passed: Frederic Miller, Harley Clark, Alva Maupin, Anna McClay, Avery Minter and Gladys Masekey. Portland Telegram: Standing out as the most unique punishment ever imposed by Judge Cameron, W. M. Gorsline this morning was ordered retained at the city jail until Roseburg, Or., is declared "dry" July 1, when he will be released to move to that city with his family. Gorsline was accused by his wife of threatening to kill her, and is the husband and father from whom three children and their mother fled last Wednesday night to escape his drunken abuse. Yesterday at the city jail the Gorslines became reconciled, and the complaining wife and mother expressed a desire to withdraw the charge she had filed, but she underwent a change of heart in the night, and appeared this morning to prosecute. She is satisfied with the sentence imposed, and already has begun preparations to leave Portland for a prohibition town.

Sewer pipe of cement continues to gain in favor among Roseburg property owners. F. F. Patterson, the local dealer in that material, reports that the latest persons to contract for that class of pipe are F. H. Churchill and J. W. Hamilton.

The executive committee of Roseburg's 4th of July celebration reports rather slow progress toward making up the parade for the morning's program. Aside from the band, the militia and the customary liberty car, only two entries for the parade have been secured so far, and these are floats promised by the W. O. W. and Odd Fellows lodges. The committee is pegging away faithfully, however, but they cannot make a pronounced success of the celebration unless they receive more encouragement than is being shown them. Funds with which to defray the expenses of such an event are being subscribed very gingerly and in some instances begrudgingly. Although the movement for the celebration was started two weeks ago the subscriptions to date total less than $200, and fully $500 is needed to make any sort of a showing even to compare with celebrations to be held in many towns much less the size of this one.

Grants Pass Courier: Henry Harth arrived here about noon today from San Francisco in a Tourist automobile after an exciting and most eventful trip. After being held back by a band of sheep which he could not get through nor around for a day, he collided with another automobile yesterday in the Skagitto mountains while closely following behind a White Steamer containing a gentleman and party of three ladies. The steamer suddenly turned turtle, precipitating its occupants with serious results. Mr. Harth chanced to be so closely behind that he ran into a bank on the side of the road before he could stop, in order not to run into the wreck. He was then compelled to carry the injured women folk back over the route which they had traversed, a distance of 27 miles for aid and relief. He finally arrived here today.

In the approaching election, a president and vice-president of the United States, a full membership of the house of representatives, consisting of 393 members and delegates and 20 United States senators from as many different states, are to be chosen. The result, involving as it does the control of both the executive and legislative branches of the national government, with the opportunity for a change of parties and policies, is of transcendent importance, and far-reaching consequences, involving the states and the nation.

"I have been afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble for years, passing gravel and stones with excruciating pain," says A. H. Thurnes, a well known coal operator of Buffalo, O. "I got no relief from medicine until I began taking Foley's Kidney Cure, then the result was surprising. A few doses started the brick-dust-like substance and now I have no pain across my kidneys and I feel like a new man. It has done me $1000 worth of good." Foley's Kidney Cure will cure every form of kidney or bladder disease.
