MARKET DAY GREAT SUCCESS.

Eugene Will Hold One Once a Month Hereafter—Profitable.

EUGENE, Or., June 27.—Eugene's first "Market Day" was held today, and was a great success. The affair had been widely advertised and several thousand visitors were in the city. The exercises began in the morning with a street band concert by the Eugene military band. At 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon a vehicle and automobile parade occurred, many farmers and townspeople participating.

The parade was headed by the two young couples who were married in the east park immediately after the parade.

A public auction of stock and farm produce was held during the afternoon, many of the farmers disposing of their holdings at a handsome profit. It is the intention to hold market days in Eugene once a month hereafter.

(The promoter of this market day is Max Zimmerman, who is arranging to hold a similar event in Roseburg on Saturday, July 11. The success of Eugene should stimulate efforts in Roseburg.)
