EVENING ROSEBURG REVIEW

JULY 3, 1908.

Don't hook a big one—and have the line or hook break—buy tackle you can depend on. We keep it. We have a full stock of all kinds of fishing tackle—lines—hooks—poles—spoons, and leaders any length. It pays to get a good line that will not lose the "big ones." We have everything but the "big fish" story. We take great delight in showing goods—even if you don't want to buy.

TILLAMOOK STAGE HELD UP.

NORTH YAMHILL, Or., July 2.—Stepping from the brush and leveling a double-barrel shotgun at the head of the driver, a lone highwayman held up the North Yamhill-Tillamook stage, four miles west of this city, shortly before 11 o'clock this morning.

He took a trifle over $20 in change from the three passengers and the driver, cut open the mail pouch and took three of the four registered packages, leaving behind the one containing a box of shoes. The robber wore a white mask to hide his face. He was not in the least nervous and appeared to be experienced in the holdup game.

Bloodhounds have been called from the state penitentiary at Salem to assist Sheriff Corrigan in the chase.

Six years ago the North Yamhill-Tillamook stage was held up by a lone bandit at the same place as this morning's robbery. The other robber was never captured.

Bad Burn Quickly Healed.
"I am so delighted with what Chamberlain's Salve has done for me that I feel bound to write and tell you so," says Mrs. Robert Mytton, 457 John St., Hamilton, Ontario. "My little daughter had a bad burn on her knee. I applied Chamberlain's Salve and it healed beautifully." This salve allays the pain of a burn almost instantly. It is for sale by Hamilton Drug Co.

"THEY WON'T GO DRY."
We mean your watches and time pieces. They must be kept cleaned and oiled to get the best results. Remember watch making is our only specialty. J. T. Bryan, The Watchmaker. dTF

Boy's Life Saved.
My little boy, four years old, had a severe attack of dysentery. We had two physicians; both of them gave him up. We then gave him Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy which cured him and believe that saved his life.—William H. Stroiling, Carbon Hill, Ala. There is no doubt but this remedy saves the lives of many children each year. Give it with caution all according to the plain printed directions and a cure is certain. For sale by Hamilton Drug Co.

R. H. C. Wood, the efficient manager of the Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph Co., in this district has been transferred to the Dallas office. He will be succeeded here by G. V. Marshall, of Grants Pass. Mr. Wood leaves for The Dalles in a few days. His transfer is practically a promotion, in view of the fact that a larger salary is involved.

O. P. Standley, of Camas Valley, was brought to Roseburg Thursday evening, suffering from a double fracture of one leg and a severe sprain of the other, the result of a breakdown of his wagon during a runaway of his team of horses. The injured man was attended by Dr. Hoover and then taken back to his home. The fracture is of the two bones of the lower leg, just above the ankle.

Ashland Record: The Warren Consolidation company, which has the contract for the paving of South Street, has entered into a contract for the purchase of the rock required in its paving work with the city. The contract is to pay five cents per cubic yard for the rock and five cents per cubic yard for the use of the machinery in crushing it. It is estimated that between four and five thousand cubic yards will be required.

Ashland Record: Mrs. B. F. Malley has accepted an invitation from the Roseburg education committee to deliver the Fourth of July oration at this city. Mr. Malley may well be termed the orator of Southern Oregon. In 1902 he delivered invitations to speak from 19 different towns, and in 1903 he accepted an invitation from Salem, where he spoke to 15,000. Since that date he has not missed delivering an oration.

MARRIED.

BOSSON-FINCH—In Roseburg, July 2, 1908, A. H. Bosson and Miss Edith Finch, Judge G. W. Wonnacott, officiating. The young couple will reside in Elkton, where Mr. Bosson is engaged in the restaurant business.

NO PAPER ON JULY 4TH.

There will be no issue of The Daily Review Saturday, in order to give our entire working force an opportunity to take "a day off." The only holidays observed by The Review are Christmas and the 4th of July, and we are sure our readers will not object to this observation of the country's natal day. Next week will be a strenuous one in the newspaper offices and The Review will cover the Democratic convention at Denver just as fully and promptly as it reported the big meeting at Chicago. Our extra news service of next week will more than make up for the omission of one day this week.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS—Will all those knowing themselves indebted to me kindly settle as soon as convenient. I have sold my business and therefore desire a settlement of all accounts as early as possible. Respectfully,
C. B. CANNON,
Roseburg, Or., June 17, 1908.

DAILY-PARROTT WEDDING.

Alvin B. Daly and Miss Ethel Parrott, both of this city, were quietly married by Rev. C. A. Rexroad, at the South Methodist parsonage, in Roseburg, Friday evening, July 2, 1908. Mr. Daly is a blacksmith by trade and is employed at Pilkington Bros.' shop. The bride is the well known daughter of L. M. Parrott, of North Roseburg, and for some time past has been employed as a bookkeeper at S. K. Sykes hardware store.

For the present Mr. and Mrs. Daly will reside at the Bayless home on Douglas street.

It Can't Be Beat.

The best of all teachers is experience. C. H. Harden, of Silver City, North Carolina, says: "I find Electric Bitters does all that's claimed for it. For Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles it can't be beat. I have tried it and find it a most excellent medicine." Mr. Harden is right; it's the best of all medicines also for weakness, lame back, and all run down conditions. Best too for chills and malaria. Sold under guarantee at A. C. Marsters & Co's. drug store, 50c.

See Pat for your Paints, Oils and Varnishes; Best on Earth. He can save you money, with a positive guarantee back of the goods. P. O. Box 302, Roseburg, Or. dswjy20
