FOURTH AT CANYONVILLE.

Canyonville did her best Saturday, the Fourth, and royally entertained her visiting neighbors on that day of patriotic enthusiasm.

The grounds where the exercises were held were in a sequestered nook along Canyon creek. Here the old pioneers, along with their families, gathered to talk over past happenings and to prophesy for the coming future.

Roseburg's junior band led the parade, which consisted of Uncle Sam and the Goddess of Liberty, with her attending forty-six attendants.

The program was opened with good band music. Following the prayer, by Rev. Reese, the Declaration of Independence was read in a charming manner by Miss Grace Boyle. A number of patriotic songs were sung by the Canyonville choir, and were well rendered.

Hon. Wm. Colvig, of Medford, delivered the oration. Mr. Colvig having lived his boyhood days here, told many reminiscences of his early life, and gave a splendid address, which was listened to by hundreds of patriotic people.

Dinner followed the oration. This needs no describing if ever one has eaten with the generous housewives of Umpqua and Cow creek valleys.

At shortly after one o'clock began a closely contested game of baseball between Canyonville and Riddle lines. Riddle was victorious, carrying home the $25 offered as the prize. Riddle routed made things noisy by shouting: "Strawberry Short Cake, Huckle Berry Pie, V-I-C-t-o-r-y!"

The young men's race was won by John Cornutt, of Riddle. The boys' race by one of the band boys from Roseburg. The little girls' race by Miss Pickett, of Canyonville, and the horse race by George Elliff's son, of Glendale.

Altogether, Canyonville gave every one a good day, and we all returned home in the evening twilight, well burned with the sun's rays, well supplied with pink lemonade and ice cream and hoping Canyonville will give another celebration some day.

MEETS NEXT MONDAY.
The regular monthly meeting of the Roseburg Commercial Club will be held next Monday evening, July 13, at 8 o'clock. All members are expected to be present.
