W. P. Jewett, of Gardiner, has been on Coos Bay the past week visiting friends and looking after business. One of the reasons for his trip was to inspect a new craft that he is having built on the Coquille. David Holden, an old time friend of his, recalls how it wasn't many years ago that he and Mr. Jewett came to the coast from Maine and how Mr. Jewett has developed from a dry goods clerk in the C. H. Merchant store to one of the wealthiest lumbermen in this section.

BAD BREATH

"For months I had great trouble with my stomach and used all kinds of medicines. My tongue has been actually as green as grass, my breath having a bad odor. I tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People and found them to be just what I needed. I feel better than I have for years. I can eat anything and sleep peacefully and my tongue is pink and my breath is sweet. I feel like a new man. I had recommended them to my wife suffering from such troubles."

Dr. and Mrs. Royal J. Dye, missionaries to Boleng, Africa, will be in the city tomorrow. Dr. Dye will speak at the Christian church in the evening at 8 o'clock. He has a great message. Come and hear him.

Eugene Guard: Max Zimmerman writes The Guard from Roseburg that he and Mr. Colgate, his partner, are intending to locate permanently in Eugene in the near future. He also announces that another market day will be held here on Saturday, August 8. He states that he and Mr. Colgate now have a deal pending to erect a large auction pavilion here for a permanent market place.

E. Klein and O. Koski are here from Palo Alto, Calif., looking for a suitable location. They are tired of living in a place where wood is $5 a tier and where the uncertainty of rain makes farming and fruit raising too hazardous for comfort. An unexpected rain barely saved the fruit in the vicinity of their home town, but grain and vegetables are a total loss. Like all other newcomers, Messrs. Klein and Koski are well pleased with Roseburg—except its streets. Palo Alto, with a population no larger than that of Roseburg, has 25 miles of paving.

Best the World Affords.

"It gives me unbounded pleasure to recommend Bucklen's Arnica Salve," says J. W. Jenkins, of Chapel Hill, N. C. "I am convinced it's the best salve the world affords. It cured a felon on my thumb, and it never fails to heal every sore, burn or wound to which it is applied. 25c at A. C. Marsters & Co's. drug store."
