MEET WEDNESDAY

Prohibitionists Will Name Party Ticket

RECORD FUND FOR CAMPAIGN

Seaborn Wright, of Georgia, Likely to Receive Nomination for President

COLUMBUS, O., July 14.—What will be the largest national political convention of the year, in point of number of delegates, will begin in this city tomorrow and will nominate a national ticket and adopt a platform on which the foes of the rum demon will stand in this year's campaign.

The Intercollegiate Prohibition Association will hold its oratorical contest this evening, when electioneers from all over the United States will launch oratorical broadsides at the saloon.

Among the presidential candidates mentioned are Seaborn Wright, of Georgia; and Judge S. A. Artman, of Lebanon, Ind., who came into prominence about a year ago by a legal decision in which he declared that the granting of a saloon license is illegal.

Apparently a majority of the leaders believe that it would be better to nominate for president a man who has become prominent in the anti-saloon work while holding office under one of the old parties.

National Chairman Charles R. Jones is confident that the Prohibition party will poll a larger vote this year than ever before.

Chicago, according to Mr. Jones, is the worst city in the United States, with New York a close second.

GROWTH OF B. P. O. E.
1,125 Lodges, 284,321 Members and $220,000 in Treasury.

DALLAS, Texas, July 14.—Delegates to the national grand lodge convention of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks today began the serious business of the session.

The reports of the grand lodge officers were presented today and show a gratifying gain in membership and financial prosperity since the meeting last year in Philadelphia.

In his report, Grand Secretary Fred C. Robinson, says: "The membership, the past year, has had the usual steady growth, and the increase is much greater than it has been for many years."

The membership, the past year, has had the usual steady growth, and the increase is much greater than it has been for many years.

The six best leading lodges of the country, in the order named, are as follows: Brooklyn, New York; Philadelphia, New Orleans, Chicago, Portland, Or.; Denver, Kansas City, Baltimore, Hoboken, Detroit, Oakland, Cincinnati, Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh.

Among the states, Pennsylvania leads in Elk membership, with 25,565; New York is second, with 19,876, and Ohio third, with 17,076.

Michigan, Indiana and Illinois follow in the order named.

The report of the auditing committee, presented today, shows that the total cash on hand is $220,168.06. Of this sum, $100,529.85 is in the general fund, $15,638.21 in the emergency charity fund, $50,000 in the reserve fund, $50,000 in the emergency charity reserve fund, $2,000 in the contingent fund of the grand secretary, $100 in the contingent fund of the grand exalted ruler and $1,000 in the contingent fund of the home committee.

The fight for next year's reunion promises to be a hot one. Seattle claims to be in the lead, but Louisville, Los Angeles and several other cities are also entered in the race.

SEVERAL CASES ARE WEAK. Some of Honey's Oregon Indictments Will be Discharged.

PORTLAND, Or., July 13.—Of the 17 "Honey cases"—land fraud indictments—yet to be disposed of, only half will be tried by T. C. Becker, special assistant to the Attorney general. The remaining cases are to be dismissed.

It has long been generally understood that there were a number of cases in which the government had small hopes of success, while in others the government has a better chance.

The good cases are said to be about nine leaving eight which are doubtful, weak or unnecessary. Some time during the summer, when the time is considered judicious, Becker is expected to dismiss the eight cases.

Among those which may be dismissed is the indictment against George Sorenson, charged with offering a bribe to John H. Hall, when the latter was United States District Attorney; the case against J. H. Hutchins, John Cordano, J. H. Hall, H. L. Reese, A. P. Caylor and John Northrup, accused of attempting to defeat the due administration of justice; the conspiracy case in which Frank E. Alley, Stephen W. Turnell and Edmund and A. R. Downs were indicted.

Henry Meldrum, ex-United States Surveyor-General for Oregon, is under indictment with others, but as Meldrum is now serving a sentence at McNeil's Island, this case may be dismissed, as Meldrum cannot well testify. In addition to these cases there are a few others which the government will dismiss.

NOTICE FOR BIDS FOR STREET IMPROVEMENT.

NOTICE IS hereby given that the undersigned will receive at his office in the Douglas County Bank Building, up to 5 p. m., of Monday, July 29, 1908, sealed bids for the improvement of a part of West First Street and First Avenue North, in the City of Roseburg, Oregon.

WILBUR WANTS NEW ROAD.

Residents of Wilbur and vicinity, to the number of eighteen, have filed in the county court notice that they will petition at the September, 1908, term of court for the location of a new county road, described as follows:

Commencing at a point on the present travelled road from Wilbur to the Calapooia River, about 29 rods west of SE corner of NE 1/4 Sec. 35, 25-6; thence extending NW to present travelled road at the top of the hill near north line of said section 35; said proposed road to be 40 feet wide; also to vacate the present travelled road between the beginning and terminating points as described.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy World Have Saved Him $100.

"In 1902 I have a very severe attack of dysentery," says R. N. Farrar, of Cat Island, La. "For several weeks I was unable to do anything. On March 18, 1907, I had a similar attack, and took Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which gave me prompt relief. I consider it one of the best medicines of its kind in the world, and had I used it in 1902 believe it would have saved me a hundred dollar doctor's bill. Sold by Hamilton Drug Co."

C. Gazley, the well-known fruit grower, was down from Riddle today.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Booth and Atty. Dexter Rice left this afternoon for Portland.

Mrs. A. C. Marsters returned this afternoon from Ashland, where she attended Chautauqua.

D. J. Jarvis has opened a second-hand store in the Hildeburn block, near the S. P. depot.

Rev. C. A. Rexroad and W. E. Clingenpool leave this evening for Cow Creek canyon for a deer hunt.

Miss Alice Smith returned home to Grants Pass today, after a short visit here with Mrs. L. G. Dumbleton.

Henry Easton, who has been managing the Easton grocery firm for the past three months, left last night for Portland to accept another position. He will be succeeded here by his brother, Albert.

James A. Bond, a brother of P. J. Bond, the real estate dealer, arrived here Monday from Spokane, accompanied by his son, Edward, who is an electrician by trade. They will probably locate in this city.

A field of dry grass back of John Bishop's place, in West Roseburg, caught fire this afternoon, threatening Mr. Bishop's house and barn. An alarm was turned in, but before the firemen arrived the blaze was beaten out.

Occasioned by the opening of the deer killing season tomorrow, there has been quite a rush for hunters' licenses at the county clerk's office this week, 127 having been issued past six days. The total since the first of the year is 372.

Final surveys were being made today preparatory to drafting the detailed plans for the new bridge to be erected over Deer Creek at the foot of Jackson street, in conjunction with the street paving work, which is also soon to begin.

Frank Critzer, of Portland, a resident of Roseburg many years ago, passed through here this afternoon enroute to that city from California, accompanied by his son, Thomas, and the latter's wife, Thomas, who is a native Roseburger, underwent a severe surgical operation in San Francisco three weeks ago.

H. O. Lewis has sold his photograph gallery in this city to C. F. Prosh, who has been conducting the Rose City Studio in Portland.

Over Thirty-five Years. In 1872 there was a great deal of diarrhoea and cholera infantum.

It was at this time that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was first brought into use. It proved more successful than any other remedy of treatment, and has for thirty-five years maintained that record.

Heavy Loss in Crops Along the Frazier River

WHATCOM TIMBER IN ASHES

San Francisco Police Capture Greek Who Dynamited Gallagher's Oakland House

SPECIAL to the Evening Review. BELLINGHAM, Wash., July 14.—The Frazier River is on another rampage. Great excitement prevails among the farmers on the lowlands, who are preparing to flee to the hills. Between 30,000 and 40,000 acres are inundated and the loss in crops will be enormous.

COSTLY FOREST FIRE. BELLINGHAM, Wash., July 14.—Scores of men are fighting forest fires on the shores of Lake Whatcom. In three days 2,000,000 feet of cut logs and 800 acres of standing timber have been destroyed.

FAT BURNED TO DEATH. SEATTLE, Wash., July 14.—Grace Carver, aged 7 years, was burned to death in a fire which destroyed her home near this city this morning. Her mother was absent from home at the time. The origin of the fire is unknown.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING. BOISE, Idaho, July 14.—In one of the most severe electrical storms ever experienced in the Boise Valley, John Daly, a rancher, was struck by lightning and killed last night.

ADMITS GALLAGHER JOB. SAN FRANCISCO, July 14.—John Claudannes, a Greek, admitted to the police today that he was hired to blow up the houses of James Gallagher, the star witness in the graft prosecutions. He took the police to Oakland and showed the places where he put the dynamite.

A. T. Steiner was in Roseburg on Monday night. He had accompanied his wife and son from Salem to Elkton, enroute to North Bend to visit with Mrs. Steiner's mother, Mrs. L. M. Perry. Dr. Steiner this morning joined a party of Salem gentlemen here, enroute to Riddle and they will all enjoy a hunt about 14 miles east of there under the efficient guidance of Geo. K. Quinn.

BURNED OUT SECOND TIME. W. J. Armitage Loses Another Drug Store at Arleta.

For the second time within a month, W. J. Armitage, a former resident of Myrtle Creek, and well known in Roseburg, has sustained the loss of a drug store by fire at Arleta, a suburb of Portland. On this latter occasion a real estate office, a grocery store and a house were also destroyed.

Armitage had just about closed a deal for the sale of his drug store to William H. Miller. A month ago he was operating a drug store across the street from the one that burned this morning. It burned to the ground, and the insurance has not yet been paid.

There has been considerable trouble in Arleta and Kern Park over the operation of the drug store. It was said that a great deal of whiskey had been sold in there, and that the place had been the hangout for men of the district.

Although many explanations of the cause of the fire were offered by the residents of the little suburb this morning, no one seemed to know definitely what its origin was. It was suggested that some enemies of Armitage might have burned the place in order to rid the town of a blind pig, but as a fire in the drug store would necessarily destroy surrounding property, it is not believed that anyone would have gone to that extent.

An investigation will be conducted by the insurance companies, however, to ascertain how and by what the fire was started.
