REPORTER.

THAW OUT OF ASYLUM.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., July 13.—Without gaining his request of a hearing before a jury on the question of the state of his mind, Harry K. Thaw is happy today because he will be permitted to remain in jail at Poughkeepsie until the third Monday in September instead of going back to the asylum at Matteawan, which he dreads.
Justice Mills adjourned the Thaw hearing today without announcing any decision on the question of the jury trial, and the matter now goes over until September. Thaw says he is more certain than ever that he will soon regain his freedom. He likes the luxurious quarters of Sheriff Robert W. Chanler in the Poughkeepsie jail.
Evelyn Thaw was not present at the hearing of her husband's application today. Thaw introduced an affidavit made by Dr. Silo of New York stating that Thaw's health was greatly impaired by his confinement

PIGEONS FLY FROM WILBUR.

PORTLAND, Or., July 13.—The second race of the young bird series of the Oregon Homing Club was held yesterday from Wilbur, Or., 154 miles air line. Twenty-four birds competed. This race proved the most interesting ever held by the club, owing to the fact that nearly all the birds arrived within one minute of the winner.
Owing to the great humidity of the time, 1 hour 52 minutes 47 second, is considered very good for young birds.

C. Veatch. His territory embraces nearly all of the country west of the Mississippi and he is therefore a very busy man. Last week he spent one day and night at Yuma City, New Mexico, where the thermometer was registering 112 degrees at midnight.
