VOL. XI.

ROSEBURG, OREGON, MONDAY EVENING, JULY 20, 1908.

NO. 120.

NEW FOUNTAIN ARRIVES.

Purchased by '95 Mental Culture Club and Ladies of W. C. T. U. That fine new drinking fountain purchased by the '95 Mental Culture Club of Roseburg and the ladies of the W. C. T. U., has arrived and its permanent location will doubtless be decided very soon. The fountain is said to be of a beautiful design and would be an ornament to any portion of our city. It will very likely be placed at the curb of one of the streets in the central part of town, the city laws forbidding the placing of any permanent structure in the center of any street. The thanks of our people are due to the enterprising ladies who have procured for our city this handsome fountain.

Notice to Club Ladies. All members of the '95 Mental Culture Club are requested to meet at the residence of Mrs. W. R. Willis on Wednesday evening at eight o'clock and bring with them the remainder of their pledges for the new drinking fountain, which has now arrived.

The public waiting room will be partitioned off and the apartment on the east will be occupied by Supt. Marshall and Manager Miss Pitchford. A hallway in the rear will be divided, the front portion for a stationery store room, while the rear half will continue to serve as a means of entrance to the equipment and repair room in the back of the building. During the absence of Rev. C. A. Rexroad at Glendale Sunday morning the usual morning service at the M. E. church, South, was left in charge of W. L. Cobb, and Archie Jackson, who recently graduated from the Roseburg high school, delivered a good sermon. Rev. Rexroad and family expect to leave on August 24, for Morrisville, Mo., where Mr. Rexroad has been elected to the position of principal in the preparatory department of Morrisville College. This school, besides giving the regular A. B. degree of other colleges, gives special training for the ministry, being conducted under the auspices of the M. E. church, South. Rev. Rexroad will receive only about one-half of his time to teaching and the remainder to a further pursuit of his studies. While at Glendale he will complete the M. A. course in Vanderbilt University, at Nashville, Tenn. Archie Jackson will accompany Rev. Rexroad to Morrisville and will enter upon a four years' course in the college there upon the work of the ministry in the M. E. church, South. Archie was president of his class in the Roseburg high school and will doubtless do good work in the college course upon which he is soon to enter.

300,000 ACRES THROWN OPEN.

Great Colonization Project in Central Oregon.

(From Oregon Daily Journal.) The best part of the Oregon military road land grant, comprising 300,000 of the total of 500,000 acres is to be thrown open immediately for settlement and colonization. The Oregon Valley Land company, composed of eastern people, with Portland headquarters at 830 Chamber of Commerce, has perfected a plan of sale of the lands in tracts comprising 11,992 tracts, varying from 10 acres with irrigation to 1000 acres of grazing land.

The company is headed by R. J. Martin of Kansas City, J. M. Borders is secretary and M. C. Shimp is their treasurer. These men are the same who successfully put the largest tract ever opened in Colorado on the market last year in the San Luis valley, and built an irrigation dam 80 feet high, storing water for irrigation of a portion of that tract desired for intensified farming.

Clear Title to Land.

H. A. Hunter, president of the Oregon Military Road Land Grant company, former owners of the entire 500,000 acres, returned to Portland yesterday on business connected with the formal conveyance of title to the new company. At the Portland hotel last evening, he said:

"The grant, which extends from the Klamath Indian reservation to Lakeview, and thence through Harney and Malheur counties to the Snake river, should not be confused in the public mind with one or two railroad grants that have litigation over titles. This title to the Oregon military road grant is absolutely unquestioned. It has twice been adjudicated by the supreme court of the United States, which has decided that its validity cannot be challenged. The grant was passed from the government many years ago without any strings to it as to its sale, price at which it should be sold, or any other complication. The lands comprise alternate sections in a strip 12 miles wide through Lake and Harney counties, and a portion of Klamath county. These lands are to be divided into 5774 10-acre farms, 4080 20-acre farms, 1020 40-acre farms, 500 80-acre farms, 400 160-acre farms, 12 640-acre farms, and six 3000-acre farms.

One Uniform Price.

The contracts for farms sold to settlers are certified by the Pioneer Trust Company of Kansas City. The uniform price of each farm, regardless of size, is to be $200. Each 10-acre tract is to have 5 acres of irrigated land. The sum of $200,000 to be held in trust by the Pioneer Trust company will be devoted to construction of an irrigation system taking water from the Cottonwood river to irrigate about 30,000 acres in the Goose Lake valley. The colonization of the grant is guaranteed to be complete by the fall of next year. Growth of the city of Lakeview, county seat of Lake county, is expected to result from the settlement of the grant. Lakeview is located about the center of the lands to be sold, and is now a town of about 3500 people. The company, which owns the surrounding lands, has platted an addition of 11,992 lots and will give a lot free with each farm sold in the grant.

H. S. Conn, for many years a resident of this county, writes from Jensen Springs, New Mexico, where the family is now located. He reports himself and wife reasonably well and their son, Alex, getting along fine.

BECKER OUTLINES CASE.

Statements Made to Jury in Booth-Singleton Case Today.

Special to the Evening Review. PORTLAND, Or., July 20.—Opening statements to the jury in the Booth-Singleton case were made today by Tracy C. Becker for the government and Dan J. Malarky for the defense. Becker gave a clear definition of the meaning and purposes of the homestead laws and then went into the case at issue from the beginning. He said the government intended to show that J. H. Booth, while receiver of the U. S. land office at Roseburg, sent home-stead papers to Washington regarding the selection of Iru lands and Booth and his brother, R. A. Booth, must have been aware of irregularities carried on in such transactions.

WOOLEN MILLS BURN.

Costly Fire of Unknown Origin at North Bend.

MARSHFIELD, Or., July 19.—One of the most destructive fires in the history of Coos Bay occurred at North Bend this morning at about 1 o'clock in the Clark Woolen Mills building. The flames had gained such headway before water could be got to the building that it was destroyed, with all its contents. The structure was 280 feet long by 70 feet wide and three stories high. There was also a large boiler and engine-room and large dry sheds. The plant was one of the best equipped on the coast, the building and machinery being valued at $80,000. There was no insurance on the property. The mill has not been operated for the past two years. It was built in 1903. It was owned by the Simpson Lumber Company.

E. M. Ward, dealer in machinery and logging supplies had a $25,000 stock on the lower floor which was totally destroyed with only $1000 insurance, he having allowed a $10,000 policy to lapse about two weeks ago, intending every day to have it renewed. The Beaver Engine Works, dealers in gasoline engines and boats, also occupied part of the lower floor. Their loss is estimated at $4000 with $2000 insurance. The Simpson Lumber Company, the owners of the mill, had about $15,000 worth of wire rope and cable stored on the lower floor, which was rendered valueless by the fire. It was without any insurance. The origin of the fire is unknown.

PERMANENT EXHIBIT BUILDING.

Plans have been received by the Roseburg Commercial Club for the permanent exhibit building at the S. P. depot in this city. The structure is to be 20x40 feet in size, with octagon corners and a recessed doorway in each end. Plate glass windows will occupy all the four sides of the building, so that the exhibits may be seen from every direction. Suitable elevations will occupy the sides for the placing of exhibits, as well as a table in the center. It is estimated that the cost of the building will approximate not more than $1500. The contract will be let right away and the construction work will follow just as quickly as the materials can be placed on the grounds.

Eugene Guard: Henry Harth, of San Francisco, who is touring the country in his automobile, arrived here today from Roseburg. His wife and daughter came by the passenger train last night. He expects to stay here several days, investigating this vicinity.

STRONG BOX FOUND.

Safe Burglary of I. Abraham's Store Recalled

CONTENTS CHIEFLY PAPER

Discovery Made by J. A. Hewitt at His Farm 3 Miles North of City

—Offers no Clue

The strong box taken from the safe cracked by burglars in I. Abraham's store in this city during the early morning of October 31, of last year, was found Sunday by James Hewitt, on his farm on the Winchester road, three miles north of Roseburg. The box was half buried endways in the ground, the exposed end attracting Mr. Hewitt's attention as he crawled through a stretch of wire fence. His curiosity aroused, Mr. Hewitt examined the box, and some papers which it contained revealed to him the exact nature of his discovery. He brought the box to town and delivered it to Sheriff Fen-ton. There are no circumstances connected with the find that furnishes a clue to the identity of the burglars. That Mr. Hewitt's farm is close to the S. P. R. R. track, however, might warrant the belief that the crackmen are transients and made their get-away on the train.

The strong box, which is made of the most durable steel, was blown open, and the remnant of the fuse used is still protruding from a hole drilled in the top. It had contained about $15 in money, some Rochdale trade checks and a quantity of notes and county warrants, the total value of which ran well into four figures. When found, the box still held the notes and about one-half of the warrants, all in powder, burned at the edges. After examining the papers today, Mr. Abraham expressed the opinion that the burglars carried away, in addition to the money and trade checks, such warrants as were perhaps not scorching in order that they might be used without creating suspicion. The discovery of the stolen box will lessen Mr. Abraham's loss to an appreciable extent, as all the paper which it yielded is valid regardless of its marred appearance.

FOR STREET PAVING.

Formal Ordinances Ready for City Council's Action Tonight.

At the regular meeting of the Roseburg city council tonight the formal ordinances will be read authorizing the 18 blocks of street paving to be done in this city soon, as heretofore outlined in these columns. These ordinances are already prepared, so we learn from Recorder Orcutt, and will doubtless pass the first and second readings tonight. As provided by law they will then lay over until the next regular meeting, two weeks hence, when they will come up for the third reading and final passage. This street paving matter is now entirely in the hands of the council, the bonds being already voted and not a single protest against the paving having been filed. It is generally understood that the councilmen are unanimously in favor of the paving—and even if they were not it is their duty now to go ahead with the work as rapidly as possible, as the people and property owners have expressed themselves as being very strongly in favor of it. As stated above, the ordinances will doubtless be finally passed upon their third reading at the regular council meeting on August 3th. Immediately thereafter, and at that same meeting, the city recorder should be instructed to call for bids for doing the paving. Thus in less than a month from today the entire matter would be in the hands of the contractors and ready for the actual work of paving to begin. They would then have two or three months before the rainy season would interfere in which to lay substantial modern streets in our city. This should certainly be done and put an end to the several months of muddy streets we have had to contend with every year here in the past. The people have now done all they can do to push this matter along and they will expect the council to use every effort to have this paving put in and the new bridge over Deer Creek erected just as quickly as possible.
